

DUCE SPEEDS ARMS PLANS

PARIS, Dec. 28.—(UP)—French newspapers asserted today that Benito Mussolini was speeding up Italy's military program in preparation for "coming events."

It was alleged that Mussolini was preparing to call up large numbers of individual army and aviation reservists, to be ready for duty Jan. 31, was putting the navy on a war footing and was stepping up defense production to the maximum particularly as regards war munitions.

Warn of Danger

Undeterred by a series of apparently inspired denials of earlier reports about Italy's and France's activities in connection with an Italian drive for concessions from France, the newspapers continued their campaign of warning to French people against dangers ahead.

The newspaper Oeuvre asserted that Mussolini was preparing to use the threat of a Moslem uprising against Great Britain in event Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain showed readiness to support France against Italian demands.

Denials which were believed to be inspired were published regarding yesterday's report that Italian troops were massing on the French Somalian frontier, that Premier Edouard Daladier's approaching visit to Corsica and Tunis would take the form of a demonstration of strength and that Chamberlain had been asked to stop off at Paris on his way to Rome to visit Premier Mussolini next month.

However, it was noted that coincident with the series of denials the government announced that the navy dispatch boat D'Iberville was being sent from Beirut, Lebanese Republic, to Djibouti, French Somaliland.

As regards the denial that Daladier's visit would take the form of a naval demonstration, there seemed no doubt that the government had deliberately reduced the entire scale of the visit in order not to heighten Mediterranean tension or to give offense to Italy.

To Use Chamberlain

By doing so, it was suggested in diplomatic quarters, Daladier had quietly taken the first step toward opening delicate negotiations with the Fascist government through Prime Minister Chamberlain.

That Daladier was to have been escorted on his visit to Corsica and Tunisia by a convoy of 23 warships there seemed no doubt. Names of the escort vessels had been published and it was planned that more than 40 airplanes should accompany the fleet.

Now Daladier has ordered that only a cruiser and six destroyers accompany him and that the airplanes remain at home. Local airplanes will meet the reduced convoy off Corsica.

Russia Issues Nazi Warning

MOSCOW, Dec. 28.—(UP)—The Journal De Moscou declared today that "any attempt of the Fascist intelligence services to realize their ambitions in the Soviet Ukraine will provoke war and result in a crushing blow against the initiator."

The newspaper, a French language weekly which reflects the views of the Soviet foreign office, was commenting on the German press campaign against the Polish and Soviet Ukraine, which it dismissed as a smoke screen intended to conceal aggressive designs in western Europe and the Mediterranean.

The governments of western Europe want to be caught by Germany's latest crude maneuvers," the journal said, "it is naturally their own affair. The Soviet Union is absolutely indifferent to ballyhoo raised in connection with the so-called Ukrainian problem."

Alert Patrolman Averts Tragedy

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 28.—(UP)—An alert state highway patrolman probably saved the lives of the crew of a 90 car Union Pacific freight train which struck a 4000 pound boulder, wrecking the engine and 26 cars, as it roared down the Columbia river gorge 32 miles east Portland near midnight.

The officer noticed the rock, placed a yellow flare on it and then raced to find a section foreman. Before he returned, the train, loaded with wheat and merchandise and rolling west, crashed into the boulder but the engineer, seeing the flare cut his throttle to "slow."

Union Pacific officials said none of the crew was hurt but according to telegraphic reports from Oneonta, wa station near the wreck, the 26 cars and merchandise were virtually a total loss.

THUMBDEX

Comics	11
Editorial	12
Financial	7
Society	10
Serial Story	11
Sports	6
Vital Statistics	3

New Secretary

Harry Hopkins, above, long-time administrator of WPA, moved into a Cabinet post when President Roosevelt appointed him as Secretary of Commerce, following the resignation of Daniel C. Roper.

DEcries ARTIFICIAL DIVISION OF WEALTH

RICHMOND, Va., Dec. 28.—(UP)—Carl Snyder, chief statistician of the New York Federal Reserve Bank, told the 103rd meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science today that efforts to effect artificial redistribution of wealth are unsound and unscientific.

Snyder, former vice-president of the A. A. A. S. and one-time president of the American Statistical Association, asserted that scientific evidence generally proves capable individuals will amass fortunes and less talented persons will remain at the bottom of the economic pyramid.

Can't Even Up

Without mentioning the New Deal or President Roosevelt's social betterment program by name, Snyder said:

"It is clear enough, it would seem, that we cannot do much in the way of leveling up; that is, if we were to effect perfectly equal distribution of income, the difference to at least three-quarters of our present day population would be scarcely noticeable."

"The only difference would be to the mass of the defectives and incompetents that chiefly make up the hypothetical one-third of our under-intelligent, under-energized, under-capable population (the mongol in our midst). Apparently the chief result of 'social minded' legislation is to stimulate the propagation of the most incapable and in a wide sense 'the most unfit.'"

Fortunes Earned

Snyder expressed his views after Dr. H. Houston Merritt of Harvard medical school and Boston City Hospital had placed blame for widespread incidence of syphilis upon "inadequate" instruction at medical schools.

Snyder said he compiled a list of great American fortunes and learned that a very large proportion of rich men were born poor. The single exception of great wealth built upon a considerable inheritance, he continued, involved the late Andrew W. Mellon. Snyder said that among 40,000 millionaires estimated from the 1929 income tax returns, probably not 800 of them derived their money from inherited fortunes.

Hits Politics In Relief Work

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—(UP)—President Roosevelt is considering today the establishment of non-partisan boards in every county to keep politics out of relief.

The plan, it was learned, was outlined at recent White House conferences. One usually well-informed source said that it was designed to answer congressional criticism of the Works Progress Administration and to soften demands for an investigation of that agency.

Attacks Loom

New attacks on WPA were expected to follow publication of the report of the senate campaign expenditures committee, which investigated charges of political activity among federal employees during the last elections.

Hold Dwarf For Wife Murder

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 28.—(UP)—Virgilio Spinelli, 58, dwarfish Italian immigrant, faced a formal charge of wife murder today after a coroner's hearing at which his children testified against him. A daughter testified he had incestuous relations with her for eight years.

As Spinelli sat trembling, hiding his face in his hands, a coroner's jury found he killed Mrs. Rose Spinelli with an axe, cut up her body and burned it in a backyard incinerator.

The jury formally charged him with homicide and recommended he be brought to trial. Further hearing will be held Friday after which a date will be set for trial.

BEGIN HUGE SEWER JOB

Seven hundred fifty WPA workers will begin work within two of three days on the $344,000 reconstruction and construction project of Section 1 of the joint outfall sewer line as a result of city council's final approval action yesterday afternoon at its special meeting.

City Engineer J. L. McBride asked that the action be taken, that City Purchasing Agent Lloyd Banks be directed to purchase necessary equipment to start the job. Council ordered Banks to proceed.

The city engineer pointed out that WPA officials in Washington, D. C. have just given approval of plans for the project, taking action quickly because the men who will work on the project have been available but no WPA projects have been available for them to work on for weeks.

The continuation of the Section 1 project will include installation of an entirely new line for 700 feet between Adams road and the old screening plant site; construction of 300 feet of line from the south edge of Coast highway at the mouth of the Santa Ana river, under the Pacific Electric tracks, and building of two settling basins near the site of the old screening plant.

(Continued On Page 2, Column 5)

CHINESE INDUSTRY FLEES BATTLE AREA

CHUNGKING, China, Dec. 28.—(UP)—The Chinese government—partly with the aid of United States and British loans—is undertaking an almost unprecedented mass transfer of industrial resources to the unoccupied provinces of western China.

Millions of dollars worth of machinery and equipment, hundreds of thousands of laborers, many hundreds of skilled technicians and engineers are moving westward as Japanese bayonet cut off China's great coastal commercial areas.

Recent Aid

The movement may be one of the most significant developments of the Far Eastern struggle which recently has resulted in mounting Japanese resentment against the United States and Great Britain because of financial aid to China for purchase of agricultural and industrial machinery.

One of the important factors overlooked at present because of the stress of war time is that the government has taken charge of the westward movement almost entirely and now controls or supervises almost 90 per cent of the new western industries.

New Center

Szechuan province, a thousand miles westward from Shanghai, is the center of the new industrial set-up, with most of the factories located at Chungking.

China early learned a costly lesson—that cities captured intact by the Japanese furnish a strong economic foundation for developing and exploiting the country at China's expense. From Shanghai, the Chinese rescued only about 10 per cent of the factories and equipment. At Nanking, the amount recovered was slightly higher, while at Hankow, the ministry of economics claims, not a

(Continued On Page 2, Column 7)

Will Testify In Bond Scandal

MANILA, Dec. 28.—(UP)—Felipe Buencamino, member of the Philippine legislature, left today for the United States to appear as a witness in New York against William P. Buckner, promoter and friend of actress Lola Young. Buckner is charged with having defrauded the public of $1,000,000 by manipulating Philippine railway bond prices.

The ship reaches San Francisco Jan. 20. Buencamino is one of two Philippine legislators whom Buckner was said to have tried to bribe in behalf of a scheme for the island government to take over the railway and buy up bonds. The legislature took no action on the scheme but Buckner was said to have sent reports back to the United States while he was in the islands that the legislature would buy up the bonds, thereby causing the bond prices to soar and investors who bought them at the rising prices to lose $1,000,000.

Frank West Takes Oath Of Office

Judge-elect Franklin G. West, who will preside over department two of superior court after January 2, took his oath of office today in preparation for the beginning of his term. County Clerk Basil J. Smith administered the oath.

Superior Judge H. G. Ames, elected to department one of the court, took his oath earlier.

Judge George K. Soovel, believed to be slated for election as presiding judge of the court for 1939, is in the midst of his term, so is not required to take the oath at this time.

Blizzards Rage Across Eastern States As Cold Wave Spreads

Nazis Shun Lima Parley

LIMA, Peru, Dec. 28.—(UP)—German newspapermen, in a cabled protest to Berlin, have charged Dr. Carlos Concha, Peruvian foreign minister, with deliberately offending the German and Italian governments by failing to invite German and Italian newspaper correspondents to a Pan-American conference cocktail party, it was learned today.

A separate protest was sent to German Minister Willy Nobel here, and a German legation spokesman said he was considering whether to take action.

Boycott Parley

As a result of the incident German correspondents boycotted the final activities of the Pan-American conference, as they boycotted the recent dinner at London at which Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain criticized Nazi newspapers.

The cablegram of protest to Berlin, sent through the Nazi trans-ocean service, said in substance: "Today the president of Peru offered a cocktail party to correspondents covering the Pan-American conference. By means of a false subterfuge, representatives of the press of Germany and Italy were not invited. We consider this a hostile act on the part of the

(Continued On Page 2, Column 4)

INSURGENT FORCES SUFFER HEAVY LOSS

HENDAYE, French-Spanish Frontier, Dec. 28.—(UP)—The Spanish insurgent armies, seeking to close a powerful military pincer movement on the road to Barcelona, smashed slowly forward in the north today but suffered heavy losses as they hampered attacks on government defense lines in the southern sector where Franco is pushing toward Borja Blanca.

Italians Seized

Italian prisoners seized when the Loyalists left their positions for bayonet and grenade counter attacks reported four Italian divisions were in Franco's front lines. The dispatches said, adding that scores of bodies of Italian fighters were left on the field.

The government messages said that the Nationalist attacks continued on a big scale in the Aspa and Soleras areas, where small gains by Franco were admitted, but that the offensive was still far from its immediate objective of Borja Blanca.

More than 300 airplanes, aided by Italian and German artillery,

(Continued On Page 2, Column 3)

Reveals Loss To Farmers In State

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Dec. 28.—(UP)—Director of Agriculture A. A. Brode today estimated California's 1938 farm income at between 18 and 20 per cent below the 1937 figure of $638,240,000.

"It appears that an appraisal of sentiment among farmers of the state at this time would definitely disclose general disappointment and dissatisfaction concerning the financial outcome of farming operations in the state during 1938," Brode said.

Total tonnage production of crops was "somewhat lower" than 1937, but for some crops, such as oranges and prunes, record or near-record production was estimated for 1938, he said. Livestock production was above average, with cattle somewhat lower than the previous year; hog production slightly up and lamb production considerably increased. Production of milk, eggs and poultry was virtually unchanged.

Paid Huge Price For Drug Co. Stock

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—(UP)—McKesson & Robbins, Inc., paid from eight to 10 times the price asked in the open market for shares in certain minor drug firms, and paid a commission besides, it was disclosed today.

Operating through a subsidiary investment house known as the Consolidated Investment Corporation, the late F. Donald Coster, alias Philip Musica, directed these stock acquisitions, it was testified today at the state's attorney general's hearing.

In one instance Consolidated acquired for McKesson & Robbins 150 shares of the International Vitamin Corporation at a cost of $220 a share, Jacob Roggen, senior securities accountant of the state's attorney general's office, testified.

Smashing Protest In Tunis

Things Italian in Tunis were in danger when Tunisians demonstrated against Italy's demands for France's colonies, including Tunis. Here a group of Mobile Guards protect the Italian tourist agency, whose windows the demonstrators succeeded in smashing.

REVEAL MOVE TO REINSTATE EDEN AS FOREIGN SECRETARY

LONDON, Dec. 28.—(UP)—Anthony Eden may be reinstated as foreign minister of Great Britain if Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain fails to make progress in diplomatic negotiations with Benito Mussolini of Italy next month, it was reported today.

Particularly because of the Italian campaign against France, a belief was growing in well informed quarters that the Chamberlain-Mussolini conference was bound to fail.

May Reform Cabinet

It was predicted that the result would be British public dissatisfaction which would force Chamberlain to take a stronger line against Italy and Germany, and to put even more energy into his rearmament program.

A reconstruction of the cabinet soon after the Rome conference was regarded as increasingly certain. It was said there was a chance that Eden might be offered the foreign secretaryship as a crystal clear sign of an altered British policy.

Unity Urged

In some quarters, it was predicted with increasing conviction that when the cabinet is reformed, it may be made one of national unity, with leaders of the liberal and labor opposition parties included.

FDR SPEEDS PLAN TO DOUBLE AIR CORPS RESERVE STRENGTH

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—(UP)—President Roosevelt set in motion today a broad plan to double the nation's civilian manpower available for wartime air service.

The President and the Civil Aeronautics Authority announced a program through which the government expects to train annually 20,000 youths, between the ages of 18 and 25, to be competent pilots.

A $100,000 allotment of National Youth Administration funds has been set aside to begin the project shortly after Jan. 1.

Build Up Reserve

The announcement preceded by a few days the President's budget message in which he is expected to ask Congress for funds to triple military air strength and bring the combined total of army and navy fighting units to around 12,000 planes.

The CAA stated frankly that the training move is an effort to build up the reserve.

(Continued On Page 2, Column 2)

Santa Ana Is Willed Estate

Half of the extensive estate left by the late Martha Halesworth, of Santa Ana, who died December 23, was willed to Stella Kredel, of Santa Ana, a niece of her husband; the other half, except for a $500 legacy and writing desk willed to Charles Hoehn, 1401 Durant street, Santa Ana, goes to heirs in Mukwonago, Wisconsin.

This disposal of the estate was shown when the First National Bank petitioned superior court today to probate the will. The petition, stating that the estate exceeds $10,000, did not disclose its full extent.

An original will, dated in 1932, divided the estate in three equal parts between Wisconsin heirs. A codicil added in 1935, changed portions of the shares, and included Hoehn's legacy. The last codicil, in 1937, made Stella Kredel heir to half of the estate, thus to take precedence over other provisions of the will.

New Finance Head Named

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Dec. 28.—(UP)—Gov. Elbert L. Olson today appointed Phil Gibson, Los Angeles attorney, as director of finance under the new Democratic administration, and outlined his tentative plans for the opening weeks of the 1939 legislature.

Gibson will succeed Arlin E. Stockburger to the important $10,000 per year finance post.

Olson estimated the budget for the coming biennium will top $500,000,000 and indicated that new revenue measures may be sought to meet the budget.

May Change Tax

He said he will personally present the budget to the legislature shortly after the middle of January.

Questioned on the possibility of changing the sales tax, he said exemptions were desired on certain items, including farm implements, clothing and medicine, but said it might not be possible to institute the changes at once.

Olson cited the necessity of all possible revenues to meet the tremendous cost of unemployment relief and old age pensions during the coming biennium. He estimated the relief budget will be $100,000,000, in addition to a special appropriation of $20,000,000 which will be asked of the legislature in January. The reduction of WPA

(Continued On Page 2, Column 8)

J. C. PLEA FOR PWA FUNDS TURNED DOWN

The federal government today denied the application of Santa Ana junior college district for a $315,000 PWA grant for the proposed new $700,000 junior college plant.

Without stating reasons for the denial, Assistant PWA Administrator H. A. Gray, of Washington, D. C., notified Secretary George Newcomb, of the Santa Ana board of education, that the application had been denied. Gray's brief note, received by Newcomb this morning, said that "After a careful review . . . our examiners have concluded that they could not approve the application."

Writes Finis

The refusal appeared today to have put the finishing touch to immediate plans for the new junior college plant. Santa Ana voters last September defeated a proposal to issue $350,000 in bonds to finance the district's share of the project cost. At that time the application for $315,000 grant was pending before PWA. Whether failure of the district to vote the bonds influenced the denial of the grant was not known, school officials said.

Had the grant been approved, it was believed likely that another bond issue might have been submitted to the voters, but the denial apparently left the board of education facing necessity of an entirely new start on the building problem.

Noted Novelist Called By Death

CHICAGO, Dec. 28.—(UP)—Zona Gale Breese, 64, novelist, playwright, lecturer, essayist and Pulitzer prize winner, noted for her portrayals of midwestern small town life, died of pneumonia last night.

She came to Chicago 15 days ago from her home at Portage, Wis., for treatment of another, less serious ailment. Pneumonia developed. She had been receiving oxygen since last Wednesday. She died 10 minutes after she had talked with her husband, William L. Breese, wealthy Portage hosiery manufacturer and banker, whom she married in 1929.

Mrs. Breese wrote under her maiden name. She was best known for her novel, "Miss Lulu Bett," which won the Pulitzer prize in 1921 after it had been dramatized. Her first novel, "Romance Island," was published in 1906.

"Big Four" Of Europe May Meet

BERLIN, Dec. 28.—(UP)—Nazi political sources reported without confirmation today that Europe's "Big Four" would meet again early in 1939 in an effort to iron out all differences, including the French and Italian conflict in the Mediterranean.

Unofficial word circulated in political quarters that a meeting of Germany, Great Britain, France and Italy was under consideration for January in an attempt to continue the appeasement program started at Munich. Official sources refused to confirm it.

The Big Four meeting at Munich was attended by Fuehrer Adolf Hitler of Germany, British Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain, Premier Benito Mussolini of Italy and Premier Edouard Daladier of France.

ARCTIC AIR MOVES SOUTH

BULLETIN

Winter, aimed a second blow at a nation reeling from his first wintry blow.

U. S. Weather Forecaster J. R. Lloyd at Chicago warned that a second cold wave was sweeping down from the Arctic Circle while the first wave held almost the entire nation east of the Rocky Mountains in its grip.

Fringe of the new wave reached Montana and Lloyd said by tomorrow night it would blanket the plains states and the Missouri valley.

By United Press

The most severe cold wave of the winter stretched icy tentacles toward eastern seaboard states today and penetrated even sections of the deep south.

Intense cold already had spread over the plains states, the lower Missouri, Mississippi and Ohio river valleys and the Great Lakes region. Blizzards raged across the upper Michigan peninsula and in parts of Ohio, Pennsylvania and upper New York.

Wave To Spread

U. S. Forecaster J. R. Lloyd at Chicago expected that the cold would cover every portion of the country east of the Rocky mountains by tonight. He said great masses of polar air still were sweeping southeastward from the Mackenzie river basin and that the cold might not abate for a week.

Zero readings were reported from the Rockies to Michigan and a line of near zero temperatures stretched northeastward from Pennsylvania across New York into northern New England. Temperatures reached the freezing point in portions of Southern Texas and were sub-normal in Florida. The Pacific coast was the only section of the country to escape the cold.

Water Shortage

Toledo, O., a city of 300,000 population, faced a threat of a water shortage. High off-shore winds had blown so much water of the Maumee river into Lake Erie the water department was forced to draw upon emergency supplies stored in reservoirs. The river is the city's only source for water. Its stage dropped six feet yesterday and the city's intake was cut to nearly one-fifth of normal.

At least three persons died as a result of the cold and strong winds. Two aged men died of heart attacks caused by over exertion in attempting to walk against a 66-mile an hour gale at Buffalo, N. Y. A young factory worker froze to death in an alley in the industrial section of Muncie, Ind.

Mercury To Fall

The lowest reading at Chicago was 2 above but was expected to drop to six below. The city has had no sub zero weather in three years. New York's millions were comparatively comfortable with the temperature at 25 degrees early today. Kansas City reported a minimum temperature of nine degrees yesterday but it had risen to 21 early today.

The lowest record temperatures included Minor and Devils Lake, N. D., 22 below; Bemidji, Minn., 20 below; and Duluth, Minn., 14 below.

Other representative readings: Wichita, Kan., 20; Dallas, Tex., 24; Denver, 30; Amarillo, Tex., 24; New Orleans, 26; Nashville, Tenn., 26; Birmingham, Ala., 30; Pittsburgh, 16; Philadelphia, 30; and Atlanta, Ga., 12.

Real Christmas Present Arrives

Barbara Ann Pister, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Pister, 823 Grand avenue, who was born at St. Joseph hospital, apparently was the only Christmas baby to arrive at homes or hospitals in the local area, a survey revealed today. Besides having the distinction of being one of the few Christmas babies in the county, the child also has the distinction of having an unusual number of grand and great-grand parents.

The baby's maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Huscroft, Orange, and the mother was Miss Wilda Huscroft of that city. Her paternal grandmother is Mrs. Kathleen Blandin, Orange, her grandfather is F. E. Pister, of Olive, a great-grandmother, Mrs. Anna Daugherty, Mrs. Huscroft's mother, lives in Steubenville, Ohio, and great-grandparents on her father's side, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. VanDerCar, live at Costa Mesa. A great-great-grandmother, great-great-grandmother of Mrs. Blandin, lives at Castle Rock, Wash.

"JIM CROW" SLEEPING CARS FOR JEWS URGED BY GERMANS

BERLIN, Dec. 28.—(UP)—Das Schwarze Korps, organ of the "SS" storm troop organization, demanded today that railroads inaugurate "Jim Crow" sleeping cars on passenger trains to segregate Jews, including foreign ones.

WHITE HOUSE SCENE OF COLORFUL DEBUT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—(UP)—Miss Eleanor Roosevelt, daughter of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt's brother, Hall Roosevelt, of Dedham, Mass., was presented to society last night—the first debut at the White House in 28 years.

The last debutante presented there was Helen Taft, daughter of the late President and Mrs. William Howard Taft. Her party, an afternoon tea, was held in 1910.

Friends Attend
Miss Roosevelt's debut was made at a ball in the White House east room. The reception was preceded by a small dinner in the state dining room, attended by intimate friends and members of the Roosevelt family.

Guests for the reception and ball were received in the east room by Mrs. Roosevelt, her brother, and the debutante.

Nearby, the President's 64-year-old mother, Mrs. Sara Delano Roosevelt, also received the hundreds of young guests. The President, himself, did not join in the dance festivities. He retired to his study on the second floor of the White House after acting as host at the dinner party preceding the dance.

It was not the first time the President had attended a debutante party at the White House. In 1902, when a young bachelor, he attended the party at which President and Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt presented their daughter, Alice, to capital society.

Virginia Reel
Last evening's party was planned for the hundreds of young people who came from Boston, New York and Philadelphia, and including young members of official families. Entertainment was typical of the many other Roosevelt parties held in the past for young members of the President's family.

High spot of the evening probably was when Hall Roosevelt and his daughter led the dancing of the Virginia reel, the favorite dance of the President and Mrs. Roosevelt. They also danced the Eleanor Glide, a dance devised by Marys Chaney, dance-friend of Mrs. Roosevelt, and named for the first lady.

ORDER OF GOATS REVIVED
MARYSVILLE, Cal. (UP)—Members of the Independent Order of Goats held a meeting here for the first time in 30 years. The organization was formed 35 years ago, but with the scattering of members during the succeeding five years, no meeting was held until the present one.

After-Christmas SALE!

Marked DOWN!
Entire Stock of Women's DRESSES and COATS

Crack! Go the prices! Entire stock of winter coats marked way, way down for January clearance! Beautiful bouclés, tweeds, novelty fabrics, fur trim, etc.! All the new colors. Sizes 12 to 20 and 35 to 50! Your size is here! Come! Save at these big reductions.

VALUES TO $10.98..... $6.88
VALUES TO $14.95..... $8.88
VALUES TO $19.75—NOW..... $12.88

One group regular $1 Kayser fabric 68c
suede gloves 68c
One group $1 hand bags, sale 68c
One group slacks suits, Sizes 12 to 20, Regular $1.98 and $2.98
One group girls dresses, Sizes to 16 68c

Entire Stock Women's

DRESSES

Nothing reserved! Every better dress in the store must go! Beautiful new fall materials and colors! All the new smart styles! Sizes 12 to 20 and 35 to 50. Be here tomorrow—while stock is complete.

$3.98 TO $5.98 VALUES..... $2.88
$7.98 TO $9.98 VALUES..... $4.88

ALMOUST'S
215 WEST FOURTH ST. SANTA ANA

As Jewish Refugees Begin Lives Anew

Young German-Jewish refugees wave happily from their temporary quarters at Dovercourt, England. They'll win homes with English families.

Jewish professional men—refugees from Nazi anti-Semitism—learn at Merxplas, Belgium, to become self-supporting farmers.

Rebel Forces Suffer Losses

(Continued From Page 1)

blasted at the government defense lines in a vain effort to open a path for infantry in the southern sector, the Loyalist messages said. The bombing planes flew so low that three were brought down by rifle fire, according to the messages, while "terrific" losses were inflicted on the insurgent infantry.

The southern wing of the pincers movement was intended by Franco to advance by way of Aspa, Cogull and Granadella to the Lerida-Montblanch highway, on which Borja Blancas is situated. From that road the rebels obviously hoped to consolidate their positions and strike at Cervera on the main highway to Barcelona.

Move Steadily
The northern wing of the pincers known as the Trempe sector, appeared to be advancing more steadily on the road to Artesa, a highway junction from which the north wing might strike at Ervera in an effort to join up with the south wing.

Insurgent advances said thousands of prisoners had been taken as their troops seized strong mountain positions in the Montsech area. From the Sierra Montsech the rebels were swinging southward toward Artesa while another column moved eastward along the Segre river via Alos De Balaguer toward Artesa. An announcement at Burgos said that the villages of Clua, Vall De Piet, Carsola, Boda, and Argentera were occupied this morning as the insurgents came almost within shooting distance of Artesa.

Although there are higher mountains on the earth than on the moon, those of the latter appear much more lofty because they rise as high as 19,000 feet directly above the level of the plains, while most of our earthly mountains are situated in country which is itself a mile or more above sea level.

Legal Notice

No. A-6946
NOTICE TO CREDITORS
ESTATE OF WILLIAM V. MATHEWS, DECEASED.
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, by the undersigned, EVELYN SWAN MATHEWS, executrix of the estate of WILLIAM V. MATHEWS, deceased, to the creditors of and all persons having claims against the said deceased to file them with the necessary vouchers in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of the County of Orange, State of California, on to exhibit the same with the necessary vouchers to the said EVELYN SWAN MATHEWS, executrix of said estate, at her place of business, 200 Reliance Bldg., Santa Ana, in the County of Orange, within six (6) months after the first publication of this notice. Dated this 19th day of December, 1938.

EVELYN SWAN MATHEWS, Executrix of the Estate of WILLIAM V. MATHEWS, Deceased.
HARVEY & HARVEY
Attorneys for Executrix
200 Reliance Bldg.
Santa Ana, Calif.

NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS
Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Santa Ana Valley Hospital, a corporation, will be held at the office and principal place of business of said corporation, located at 611 Wellington Ave., in the city of Santa Ana, in the state of California, on Monday, the 9th day of January, 1939, at 8:00 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of election of directors of said corporation and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before this meeting.
Dated this 28th day of December, 1938.
(Seal)
H. W. LEECHING, Secretary.

ECZEMA Itching and Burning quickly subdued and healing of the angry skin aided with Resinol
Sample free Resinol Z. Balto. Md.
Resinol

Nazi Newsmen Shun Lima Parley

(Continued From Page 1)

foreign minister of Peru against German government. Since we have enjoyed the esteem of officials of the conference, we can only suppose that this incident has to do with orders direct from Dr. Carlos Concha, the foreign minister, for the purpose of offending the governments of Germany and Italy.

Italy Doesn't Join
For that reason we have presented the necessary representations to the German minister. "We ask the German government if possible to safeguard the rights of German journalists against continued difficulties offered them." Italian newspapermen refused to join in the protest, saying that they believed there had been a misunderstanding.

President Oscar R. Benavides gave the cocktail party yesterday, in honor of foreign newspapermen attending the conference, to mark the last day of formal activities.

HULL SATISFIED WITH PARLEY RESULTS
LIMA, Peru, Dec. 28.—(UP)—Secretary of State Cordell Hull and other members of the United States delegation to the eighth Pan-American conference are completely satisfied with the work done here toward uniting the 21 American republics against outside aggression, it was understood today.

The conference ended last night, and the United States delegates sail for home in the liner Santa Maria today. It was pointed out that when the conference started the United States delegates wanted it first to point directly toward the totalitarian nations as possible aggressors and secondly to provide for regular, periodic consultation among the foreign ministers of American nations.

Laid Foundation
However, the United States delegates, though admitting that the "Declaration of Lima" against aggression had not named outside nations as possible aggressors and that no means had been provided for consultation at specified intervals, asserted that the declaration actually laid the foundation on which to build later an All-American solidarity edifice.

United States and other delegates expressed belief that the declaration was only a start and that

Begin Huge Sewer Project

(Continued From Page 1)

ing plant. The job will require four to five months to complete, according to Mayor Fred C. Rowland. Because most of the work will be done on sandy soil, rainy weather will not interfere with the job in most instances, it was stated. The 7000-foot line will be built beside the present repaired line now being used and when completed will replace that section of the repaired line.

In connection with the new job sponsored by all of the cities of the joint outfall sewer district, Santa Ana is acting as the contracting city and will pay 45 per cent of the cost to the sponsoring organization. The cost to the sponsors for the new construction is $34,000; thus Santa Ana will furnish $15,300 of the sponsor's share of the total cost.

Cost Divided
The $34,000 cost is divided as follows: Sponsor, $34,000; $262,000 of WPA funds for wages to the 750 men, and $48,000 of WPA funds to pay for material and equipment. The $34,000 also will be used in paying for part of the material and equipment.

The council was especially anxious to get the job started because of the number of WPA workers idle. It was pointed out that the only WPA job in progress now is that of regrading streets and alleys, a project requiring employment of 40 WPA men but now having 80 men on the job.

The first WPA job of repairing and rebuilding portions of Section 1 of the sewer line, started soon after the March 3 flood and now completed, cost $321,000, making the total cost when the new job is completed, $665,000. The $321,000 is divided as follows: Sponsor's share, $119,543, of which amount the state of California donated $45,000; WPA funds for wages, $188,000, and WPA funds for material and equipment, $14,000. Subcontracting amount of WPA funds provided, the state's $45,000 donation and the share of cost which must be paid by other outfall cities than Santa Ana, the total cost of the entire project for Santa Ana is $48,844.

It might be strengthened later, to provide a bulwark against either armed aggression or political penetration.

Four Students Hurt In Crash

(Continued From Page 1)

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 28.—(UP)—Four boys, all students of San Mateo junior college, were injured today, two seriously, when their automobile—a Christmas gift to one of the youths—crashed into a switch engine on Third street. A fifth boy escaped injury.

Fred Talbot, 18, San Mateo, driver of the car, and James West, 19, Hillsborough, were injured seriously. Young Talbot, son of Fred Talbot, prominent lumber man, suffered a fractured skull, cuts and bruises. His condition was critical.

Jerry Baldwin, 20, Burlingame, and Walter Gilliam, 18, Burlingame, were less seriously injured. Harry Miner, 19, Burlingame, escaped unhurt.

OLIVE

OLIVE, Dec. 28.—Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Paulus sr. Sunday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Brelje, Mr. and Mrs. William Passich, of Santa Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Paulus, Mr. and Mrs. August Kahlen and their children, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Paulus, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Paulus jr., Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reusch and Arthur Paulus.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Brelje, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Brelje, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Heman, of Maywood, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harms, Miss Marie Brelje, Miss Mathilda Brelje and Steve Marsh were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brelje in Orange Sunday.

Gathered in the home of Mr. and Mrs. August Lemke for the exchange of gifts were their children and families, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Timken, Mr. and Mrs. George Lemke, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lemke, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Henning, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Lemke, of Escondido; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lemke and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lemke, of Orange.

Mr. and Mrs. William Passich and daughter visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Paulus.

SCHOOLING IN CALIFORNIA

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—An educational survey of the United States shows that the average individual on the Pacific Coast completes a longer period of schooling there than anywhere else in the United States. The average attendance on the Pacific coast is 12 complete grades, while in the east, south and central states the average is only 8½ grades.

China Industry Flees War Zone

(Continued From Page 1)

single valuable factory fell into the hands of the Japanese because retreating Chinese destroyed them, or moved them westward.

Huge Expense
Transplanting these factories and industries entails a huge outlay of capital. Loans and subsidies were provided by the finance and economic ministries, which put this activity under the mines and industries readjustment commission and the natural resources commission, war babies of the Nationalist government.

Approval by either organization results in a loan from either private or state banks. The government allotted 10,000,000 yuan for these loans. This sum and more has been expended.

Navy To Pay Good Will Visit

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—(UP)—The navy department said today that it plans to send a division of cruisers on a "good will" trip to South America next spring.

Naval officials said that details of the proposed cruise were not available but it was understood that division number seven, with the exception of the Vincennes, probably will make the trip.

Other ships in this division are the San Francisco, the Tuscaloosa, and the Quincy.

It was said that the Vincennes' overhaul schedule probably would prevent her participation.

New Director Of Finance Named

(Continued From Page 1)

rolls in California will add largely to the relief load, he said.

To Economize
Concerning the state deficit, which he estimated will be $42,000,000 by the end of June, Olson said he will depend on economies and hopes for acceleration in business conditions to meet his budget and reduce the present deficit.

The governor-elect praised Gibson "as the unselfish kind of man who should be drawn into public service." He said the new appointee had lived in California since 1922, was a World War veteran, had wide experience in civil law and "brings to the service of the state outstanding judgment and experience."

Gibson is married, has no children, and lives in Beverly Hills. He is 46 years of age.

P. H. MARSHALL HONORED

MIDWAY CITY, Dec. 28.—P. H. Marshall, whose birthday is in Christmas week, was honored guest at a dinner party in the Santa Ana home of Mrs. Marshall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Elwell, and following the serving of the dinner Mr. Marshall was presented with gifts in observance of the occasion.

Those included were of the immediate family and the same group joined Mr. and Mrs. Marshall at their South Jackson street home for Christmas dinner on Sunday.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Elwell, the hosts, Santa Ana; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jenkins; M. and Mrs. P. H. Marshall and son, Jimmie Marshall, Midway City.

LIFE Goes to a Party

in a
DOUBLE-BREADED DINNER JACKET

And not only does life go to a party in a dinner jacket like this—but ease and comfort and smartness and style all go along too!

Midnight Blue
$40 $29.50 from Hart Schaffner & Marx
A Special Value Made for Us!

Hugh J. Lowe
Men's Wear—Boy's Wear
109 WEST 4TH ST.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Investors and holders of Master Fidelity B. & L. certificates, definite term certificates of Fidelity series, issued by Pacific States B. & L. ass'n., take notice:

Owing to the suit, filed in the Superior Court of the State of California, in Los Angeles, by plaintiff against the defendant, Pacific States B. & L. Association, for the collection and protection of certificate holders interests, and in view of oral opinion given by the Honorable Judge Emmet H. Wilson, Friday, Nov. 25th, we, the committee representing a group of investment certificate holders for the protection of said group, have decided and will hold a mass meeting, for all those interested, in Santa Ana, Calif., at College Hall, Northwest corner of 10th and Main street on the night of December the 28th (Wednesday) at 7:30 P. M. for a mutual discussion.

(Signed) Executive Committee Fidelity Group.

New Dealers To Seek Control Of Rules Committee

The weather

(By United Press)
Southern California—Fair tonight and Thursday; frost in interior to night; gentle northerly wind off coast.

TIDE TABLE

Thursday, December 28
High, 6:44 a.m. Low, 2:15 a.m.
2:38 a.m. 4.4 ft. 9:25 a.m. 28 ft.
2:12 p.m. 2.0 ft. 8:07 p.m. 1.6 ft.

TEMPERATURES

Santa Ana
(Knox and Stout)
High, 61, 2:45 p.m. Low, 43, 2:15 a.m.
Yesterday's Weather Elsewhere

Atlanta	42	Honolulu	74
Boston	52	New Orleans	48
Chicago	30	New York	52
Cincinnati	24	Omaha	20
Denver	26	Phoenix	64
Detroit	16	Portland, Or.	48
Edmonton	12	Sacramento	38
Fresno	60	St. Louis	22
Havre	4	S. Lake City	32
Helena	14	S. Francisco	56
Los Angeles	67	Washington	50
Minneapolis	4	Winnipeg	4

EMERGENCY CALLS

In case of fire, accident or emergency call telephone operator and she will assist you in giving your call to the proper authorities.

Notices of Intention to Marry

Michael J. Knapp, 22, Wanita F. Wear, 22, Long Beach.
Clyde M. Luther, 25, Camilla L. Estabrook, 23, Riverside.
John W. Lehnert, 31, Los Angeles; Doris K. Wilson, 30, Beverly Hills.
Charles E. Lee, Olive; Dorothy F. Becker, 22, Santa Ana.
John M. Lohenstein, 22, Lila M. Falconer, 20, Los Angeles.
Jack T. W. Lampros, 22, Josephine M. Muro, 44, Alice Whitney, Los Angeles.
John A. Nelson, 35, Linna M. J. Bell, 27, Los Angeles.
Raulin J. Rios, 22, Elsie J. Roche, Los Angeles.
Antonio L. Rios, 26, Nellie Somara, Los Angeles.
Morris Raskin, 22, Lillian O'Brand, Los Angeles.
John H. Seiffert, 73, Ottilia H. Walker, 75, San Diego.
Charles Schlessinger, 42, Mildred Levine, 28, Los Angeles.
Harold W. Taylor, 23, La Habra; Joseph R. Bradshaw, 42, Kansas City, Mo.; Alfreda W. Forsberg, 28, Santa Ana.
John A. Beam, 21, Gloria J. Stoll, 18, Huntington Park.
Lucky Dick Barber, 21, Mary Sunny Powers, 20, Long Beach.
William O. Carlson, 54, Mabel S. Eyal, 28, Los Angeles.
Lyle R. Darrel, 38, Trona; Marguerite K. Baugh, 29, Los Angeles.
William E. Elliott, 21, Long Beach; Geraldine A. Brinton, 21, Kansas City, Mo.
Manuel Esparza, 25, Dolores Canales, 19, Los Angeles.
Sidney J. Garside, 44, Lillian C. Berg, 49, Los Angeles.
Eugene M. Martin, 31, Sadie L. Reese, 28, Long Beach.
John C. Heath, 28, Carolyn A. Ross, 21, Los Angeles.
Rudolf S. Koshinsky, 21, Bessie O'Connell, 19, Los Angeles.
Floyd L. Hornback, 20, Bessie W. Sorenson, 20, Fullerton.

Marriage Licenses Issued

Herold V. Loughhead, 21, Florence E. Dale, Garden Grove.
Chester E. Marks, 24, Fullerton; Sue Jane Whitfield, 24, Santa Ana.
Oliver C. Stearns, 22, Placentia; Grace P. Wallace, 20, Costa Mesa.
Frank M. Yamaguchi, 24, Garden Grove; Shigeo Ohashi, 21, Troutdale, Oregon.
James I. McGinley, 30, Long Beach; Elsie T. M. Hill, 43, Huntington Beach.
Tony C. Macedo, 27, Ruth E. M. Huston, 29, Santa Ana.
Cyrus L. Slosson, 39, Opal I. McKee, 41, Anaheim.
Howard J. Merrill, 31, Beatrice Figueroa, 25, Anaheim.

MELROSE ABBEY MAUSOLEUM

provides the modern and ideal method of interment. Prices are terms reasonable. Investigation implies no obligation. Ph. Orange 131

FOR FLOWERS

THE Bouquet Shop
409 N. Broadway Phone 1490

SHANNON FUNERAL HOME

Phone Orange 1160

Did "Santa" Bring You a Kodak or Movie Outfit?

Get FREE instruction at STEIN'S "Of Course".

Whether or not you purchased your outfit here, we shall be pleased to instruct you in the operation of your kodak or movie outfits. Expert instructors are ready to serve you. Call in at any time.

STEIN'S "of course"

KODAK AND MOVIE HEADQUARTERS

Expert Kodak Finishing

307 WEST FOURTH ST. SANTA ANA

SMOOTH PATH AHEAD FOR GROUP

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—(UP)—Administration leaders in the house sought today to smooth the path for New Deal legislation in the next Congress by recapturing control of the rules committee.

In order to accomplish this, they believed it would be necessary to retain the present 10 to 4 Democratic majority and not grant Republicans increased representation in line with G.O.P. Congressional gains in the November elections.

"Headaches" Lose

Four members of last year's rules committee, which provided the administration with some of its biggest headaches, were defeated for election. Two of them, Reps. Arthur H. Greenwood, D., Ind., and Byron B. Harlan, D., O., were administration votes. The other two, Chairman John J. O'Connor, D., N. Y., victim of President Roosevelt's campaign to defeat anti-New Dealers, and Rep. William J. Drivier, D., Ark., were inclined to talk at White House leadership.

Thus the administration is in a position to add four friendly members to the vital committee, and to gain the chairmanship in the person of Rep. Adolf J. Sabath, D., Ill., a dependable New Dealer, who succeeds O'Connor.

New Deal Vulnerable
But even with this increased pro-administration sentiment on the body, the New Deal remains in a vulnerable position, for Rep. E. E. Cox, D., Ga., an outspoken foe of the President, becomes ranking Democrat and in line for the chairmanship upon the next vacancy.

Other anti-New Deal Democrats on the committee include Rep. Martin Dies, D., Tex., who has broken openly with Mr. Roosevelt, and Reps. Howard W. Smith, D., Va., and J. Bayard Clark, D., N. C., both of whom generally oppose the administration.

Constant Threat

House leaders, hence, will oppose any attempt to increase Republican representation to approximately 40 per cent—as will be done on other committees—because of this constant threat of anti-administration votes by Democrats.

The rules committee in the last session of Congress twice blocked the wage-hour bill in the face of strong White House pressure for the measure.

The deckle edge was regarded as an unavoidable blemish of hand-made papers by early Oriental paper makers, who cut it off often. When the advent of machine-made papers, deckle edges became a sign of hand-made papers; today, machines make deckle-edge papers.

Santa Ana Lodge No. 241

and A. M., Third Degree, Friday, January 6th, Refreshments, 7:30 p. m.

HOWARD C. CAMERON, (Adv.) W. M.

DEATHS

BROWN—Funeral services for Mary Charity Brown who passed away in Bakersfield, December 20, 1938, will be held at 10 a. m. Friday, December 30, 1938, at the Brown and Wagner Colonial chapel. Rev. Gerald S. Bash, pastor of the First Christian church officiating. Interment in Fairhaven cemetery.

DE LEON—In Santa Ana, December 27, 1938, Orlando de Leon, infant son of Mr. Gilbert de Leon. Funeral services were held this afternoon at 4 p. m. at Winbigler's Memorial chapel. Interment in Santa Ana cemetery.

JOHNSON—Mitchell Johnson, 78, of 157 Seventh street, Garden Grove, passed away early today at St. Joseph hospital from heart ailment. A native of Massachusetts, Mr. Johnson lived in Garden Grove eight years, in California, 30 years. He was bandmaster at the Page Military Academy, Los Angeles, for 20 years. There are no known survivors.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my sincere thanks to my friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness and sympathy and also their beautiful floral offerings during my recent bereavement.

GEORGE E. MORRISON.—Adv.

Flowerland

Beautiful Floral Tributes
Ch. 845-W—510 N. Broadway
Dainty Corsages—Wedding Flowers
Artistic Floral Baskets

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

By William Ferguson

THE CAPYBARA, OF SO. AMERICA, REACHES 4 FEET IN LENGTH.

ONE DIAMETER OF AN IVORY BILLIARD BALL GROWS LARGER IN SUMMER, BUT THE DIAMETER ALONG THE NERVE CENTER REMAINS UNIFORM.

ANSWER: Some snakes lay eggs, and others bring forth young alive. But snakes are egg-layers, while rattlers bring forth wriggling babies.

The Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON—The next chairman of the TVA will be Senator James Pope, Idaho New Dealer defeated for renomination last summer. The President has offered him the post and he has accepted it.

Senate leaders have told Pope they expect no difficulty in confirming him. Pope sounded out some of his colleagues on this point because the legality of Arthur E. Morgan's ouster is still pending in the courts. Morgan claims his dismissal was illegal, and no hearing has yet been held on his appeal.

Originally Roosevelt did not intend to fill Morgan's place until the court action had been disposed of. But the serious illness of Commissioner David Lillenthal has thrust the whole burden of managing the great power project on Acting Chairman Harcourt Morgan, who asked the President to appoint a third commissioner to help out.

Note—Pope's appointment will not be announced until the new session convenes, because of the law barring the appointment of a Congressman to a job created during his term of office.

Nazi Rebuff

The State Department rebuff to Germany over hard-hitting Harold Ickes' speech against the Nazis was a lot more significant than most people realized. Both the President and the State Department knew in advance what was coming from Germany and deliberately planned to step on it.

To get the full picture it is important to know that the State Department casts a watchful eye over most speeches of Cabinet officers dealing with foreign affairs. Once before, when Ickes was making a transatlantic broadcast to Great Britain, the State Department had a lot to say about it and tried to get him to change the text. Also, Cabinet members submit advance copies of their speeches to the White House.

In this case, the State Department had nothing to do with writing the text of Ickes' anti-Nazi speech in Cleveland, or with inspiring him to make it. But it did nothing to stop him.

After the speech was delivered, State Department officials knew that a protest was sure to come from Hitler. It always has come in the past, despite the fact that the Hitler-controlled press has unleashed almost unprintable remarks about the Government of the United States.

So this time usually sedate Sumner Welles, Acting Secretary of State, made sure he had White House support, waited for the inevitable German protest, then took the gloves off.

One telltale indication that Roosevelt knew exactly what Welles was doing was the Acting Secretary's reference to Woodrow Wilson. Welles told the German Charge d'Affaires that Germany's castigation of Wilson was particularly distasteful in this country. Actually the castigation was made by Hitler himself in his speech during the Czech crisis, remarks which particularly provoked Roosevelt. He commented on it privately with considerable emphasis at the time.

War Inevitable

Behind all this was not mere pique at the Nazis. It was a deliberately planned move to pound home upon Hitler and his leaders the sentiment of the United States toward Germany.

And behind this, in turn, was the conviction, reported here by U. S. ambassadors, that war is inevitable next spring unless Hitler comes to his senses.

One thing which may bring him to his senses, it is hoped, is realization by other Nazi leaders that Germany has built up a powerful potential enemy in the United States.

Capital Chaff

All tickets to the Press Club luncheon for Anthony Eden were sold within an hour. There were 1100 applications, some being phoned from as far as California. . . . Star witness before the TVA investigating committee so far has been J. A. Krug, 31-year-old chief of the Power Planning Division. He knew all the answers; even Republican members paid him tribute. Friends of the late Paul V. Anderson, crusading Washington correspondent, have launched a movement to name a Western mountain peak after him in recognition of his notable work as a conservationist. . . . Reason Jim Farley uses green ink on personal correspondence and black on official is because the Bureau of Standards advises him that green fades more quickly than black. . . . Among the 80 Republican newcomers in the House of Representatives, four are teachers, three newspaper publishers and six insurance agents.

Careership

Indicative of State Department care in watching foreign affairs speeches of New Deal officials was its deletion of two recent Pan-American speeches by Thurman Arnold, Assistant Attorney General, and Ed Smith of the Labor Board.

Smith voluntarily sent his speech to Sumner Welles, and later got this telephone call:

"Mr. Smith, I agree absolutely with what you have to say. It's 100 per cent right. But we have to be a little careful about some of the advice we give our Latin American friends, and in the very last part of your address where you refer to the differences between dictatorships and democracies—don't you think we might word that a little more delicately? At least you let me send one of the members of the American Republics Division over to talk with you about it."

Smith was glad to accept the suggestion.

Thurman Arnold was asked to omit from his speech certain references to President James Monroe, author of the Monroe Doctrine.

Corn-Fed

The roulette wheel of politics, which passed the name of Otha Wearin in the famous Iowa purge primary, stopped before the name of Ben F. Jensen, and paid off this obscure citizen of Exira, Iowa, with a seat in the House of Representatives.

Otha Wearin tried for the Senate seat of Guy Gillette, and failed. Ben Jensen, who had just lost a job as manager of a lumberyard in a town of less than 1000 people, stepped up and claimed Wearin's seat in the House.

He ran as a Republican, but got fewer votes in the Republican primary than Jim Pearson, a radio announcer. Lack of a majority threw the selection into convention, and Jensen was chosen by the Republican machine.

Jensen is a Dane, in a district where the Danish and Swedish vote is strong. He endorsed the Coughlin money bill, and was endorsed by the Townsend clubs. (Copyright, 1938, United Features Syn)

Drunk Drivers Booked At Jail

Three drunk drivers were booked at county jail yesterday to begin serving terms of 75 days each following conviction while two others were fined $150 each.

Frank Van De Putte, 40, Route 1, Placentia, convicted in Brea, went to jail as did Manuel Fernandez, 45, Rancho Santa Fe, convicted at San Clemente, and Ernest Vasquez, 21, Yorba, convicted in Anaheim.

Audrey Hillyard, Orange, and Roger Berdelman, Huntington Beach, both arrested in Santa Ana and both pleading guilty in city court, were those fined.

TINY LOCOMOTIVE RUNS

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UP)—A miniature locomotive, built with dentists' drills and jeweler's tools, operates perfectly and has a speed of 17 miles an hour. The model was made in Southern Railway's shops and scaled to one-sixteenth of an inch.

FLYING AROUND

with DALE DECKERT

Congratulations to Lieut. Wally Scott, of the Marine Flying Corps, who has just returned to Pensacola, Fla., after paying a flying visit to his folks here in Santa Ana. About six years ago, after completing his education in the Santa Ana schools, Wally joined the flying corps in Long Beach. He was sent to Pensacola where, after a year of training, he was graduated as a full fledged second lieutenant. Since that time he has been in active duty, and for the past year has acted as chief instructor of the advanced combat flying squadron at Pensacola. Pilot friends of Wally here in Santa Ana wish him continued luck and enjoyment in the fascinating profession he has chosen—a Marine flyer.

Joe Hager, popular instructor at the two-hour "solo flight" on Dr. Stevens' operating table at Pasadena hospital last week, and upon landing, found that he had lost a gall bladder during the flight. However, I have word from his bedside that Joe is making a speedy recovery, and will be back in Santa Ana in a very short time. That's swell!

Never explain—for your friends do not need it and your enemies will not believe you anyway! However, the patch which appeared over my eye this past week concealed a cut which I received from a fall on the slippery steps at home during the recent rain, and not from an airplane accident. Again let me remind my friends that I still contend that one is safer in the air than on the ground. . . . believe it or not!

A new floating-marker light is being developed by the Civil Aeronautics Authority to help seaplanes and flying boats in alighting on the water. The apparatus as a whole consists of a 39-inch streamlined airplane tire through which a five-foot vertical tube is set in gimbel with a 25-pound battery container affixed at the bottom of the tube.

Hangar Gossip . . . The Martin school of flying added another Taylorcraft to its fleet of student ships during the past week. Floyd Martin, Tommy Thompson and Jerry Keeley took Jack Gregg with them in the Stinson cabin ship to Mines field Monday and did it impossible. They stuck Jack for the breakfast when they walked out on him, leaving him holding the well known sack—which in this case was the check. . . . Louis Betschart, of Talbert, landed on his Dad's ranch Christmas day, and tried to plow up the ranch with his propeller. . . . result . . . one more broken prop for a souvenir. . . . There are now 32,335 miles of domestic airline in the U. S. The backlog of unfilled orders on hand with Los Angeles aviation firms amounts to $70,000,000 as of November 1. . . . Happy Landings.

Dinner Enjoyed In Tustin Home

BARBER CITY, Dec. 28.—Members of the Barber City Woman's club gathered for their annual Christmas party at the clubhouse recently. The room was tastefully decorated in the traditional red and green and under the Christmas tree were heaped the parcels for the gift exchange.

The long table was gay with flowers and red candles and a turkey dinner was served at 7 o'clock. A birthday cake, bearing candles of red, appeared at the dessert period, honoring J. K. Shotwell.

The gifts were distributed by H. A. Goble as Santa Claus' helper, after which there was community singing. W. Whitcomb played the violin for those wishing to dance. Games of "500" also entertained.

Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Tyler, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Robinson, Mrs. Floy C. Hilborn, W. E. Hilborn, Mrs. Adelaide Olsen, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Goble, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Upham, Mrs. Emma Freeman, Mrs. Ella Dorman, W. Whitcomb, Mrs. Humphries, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Shotwell, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Johnson, Mrs. Marie Sennece, Mrs. L. C. McGarvin, Mrs. E. B. Finley, Mrs. Frances Richards.

The first nonstop solo airplane flight from Buenos Aires to Lima was made in March, 1937, by a Peruvian army officer, who covered the 2000 miles in 13 hours, 51 minutes.

STOCKMEN TO RAP EMBARGO

NOGALES, Ariz., Dec. 28.—(UP)—With the international border closed to all cattle shipments, stockmen of Northern Mexico were reported today planning to demand the Mexican government lift an unofficial "embargo" on exportations into the United States.

William Greene, president of the Greene-Cananea Cattle company, one of the largest in the border area, left by airplane for Mexico City to plead with Pres. Lazaro Cardenas to lift the restrictions. Several other Sonora cattlemen also were preparing to go to the capital city.

A government spokesman at the border said cattle could be moved across the border with permission from federal authorities, but American and Mexican cattlemen reported telephone and telegraph appeals were unanswered.

The government in an official announcement said "certain restrictions" had been placed on exportations because markets in the interior were having a hard time obtaining stock as a result of higher prices paid for exported cattle.

The Australian phalanger is the only animal known to have given fur.

BIGGEST WASHING MACHINE VALUE YOU HAVE EVER SEEN!

$29.95

DURING HORTON'S GREATER JANUARY FURNITURE SALE

AT LAST! A DANDY TANK-TYPE CLEANER

COMPLETE WITH ATTACHMENTS

$29.95

Premier Vac-Kit

The NEW Premier VAC-KIT is the final answer to a recognized need in every home. A decidedly low-priced yet highly efficient tank-type cleaner, designed for above-the-floor cleaning. Thousands of women have paid an average price of $70.00 for tank-type cleaners. The new Premier VAC-KIT does an equal job of dusting and costs only $29.95. Weighs only 7 pounds with five simple attachments for every dusting job. Ample power for thorough results. See this cleaner and be convinced!

NO DOWN PAY! ONLY 50c WEEK

Easy Terms

America's Big Selling Favorite

"FAULTLESS"

Think of it! A family size washer of national reputation for as little as $29.95! Almost unbelievable—but true! A sturdy, compact, dependable washer that'll make every wash day a pleasure and give highly efficient, low-cost operating service month after month and for years to come. Be sure you see this famous washer NOW while you can buy at this low price.

Nothing Down—50c Week

EUREKA CLEANERS $13.95

Thoroughly reconditioned by factory-trained expert service men. Can't tell from brand new. Will give years of good service and save you many dollars.

Our Vacuum Cleaner Service Dept. repairs and rebuilds all makes. Free inspection at your home. Phone 282.

UNIVERSALS • PREMIER-DUPLEX • REBUILT HOOVERS

Complete Home Furnishers

MAIN AT SIXTH

Phone 282

HORTON'S

New Officers Named By Huntington Beach Chamber

H. W. HARTLEY HEADS GROUP

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Dec. 28.—Herbert W. Hartley, automobile dealer here, was elected president of the Huntington Beach Chamber of Commerce at the annual election meeting held in the organization offices last evening. He succeeds Dr. L. F. Whittaker. Frank E. Bundy, oil man was elected first vice president and H. P. Rampton was selected as second vice president. J. Sherman Denny retained his office of treasurer and W. H. Gallienne was returned as secretary of the organization.

The executive committee will meet in a few days to make plans for the annual banquet, which is scheduled for some time in January.

Dr. Whittaker thanked the members of the board of directors for their efforts in completing a successful year in 1938.

BREA FAMILIES HOSTS AT DINNERS

BREA, Dec. 28.—Sergeant and Mrs. William Carow, Miss Betty Bergman, Harvey Bergman, of San Francisco; Miss Martha Leavenworth and Francis Blystone were Christmas guests at the home of Mrs. Beatrice Livingston and Mrs. Agnes Stanger.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nelson, of Pasadena; Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Johnson, of Orange; Harry Parker and Howard Parker were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Culp Christmas day. Miss Marjorie Culp and Miss Sally Culp also were present.

Edward Zerbe, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Zerbe, is spending the holidays with his parents from Berkeley.

Miss Kathryn Burke entertained 12 people with a turkey dinner Monday afternoon at her home on South Pomona avenue. Those present were Joe Burke, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burke, Virginia Burke, Robert Burke, Mr. and Mrs. James Grewco, Ben Templeman and Miss Cecil Templeman.

Miss Marjorie Culp left Monday for Berkeley, where she will spend a week visiting her sister, Mrs. Albert Geisendorfer (Julia Culp).

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan LeGro, of Hollister, former residents of Brea, are arriving this week to spend the New Year's week end in Brea. They plan to attend the Rose bowl game while here.

Installation Of W.R.C. Arranged

BUENA PARK, Dec. 28.—The Woman's Relief Corps met recently at Memorial hall on Whitaker avenue for a business meeting and Christmas party. Sylvia McCloud was initiated into the organization. Mrs. M. Fadden was elected guard, Sylvia McCloud, treasurer; Mrs. B. Berish, Junior club advisor and Mrs. Fanny Shearer was appointed godmother for the organization.

After the business meeting was finished each member was presented with a gift and refreshments

CITY "GAMBLES" ON GAMBLING EQUIPMENT FOR "FURNISHINGS"

Eugene Fenelon, county purchasing agent, got something for nothing today—all things, gambling equipment.

W.R.C. President

Vivian Bacus, 11-year-old Westminster girl, is the first president of Gladys McDonald Junior Woman's Relief Corps of Westminster. She is a sixth grade student.

Police News

Edwin Hurd, 19, sailor of the U. S. S. Blue, was booked at county jail last night by Officer V. G. Wolfe of Orange, and charged with grand theft of an auto. He is accused of stealing an automobile belonging to Leslie Neel, 465 South Olive street, Orange. Bail was fixed by Justice Cal D. Lester at $1000.

There are other ways to sling mud than in political circles, police reports indicated today. Several windows at the Franklin school were cracked by mud-slinging boys, it was revealed. One boy was located and warned and his mother was notified of the damage done.

On report of an employee of the Buffalo Inn that two allegedly "hard-boiled men" refused to pay for wine purchased at 2 a. m. today and were creating a disturbance, Officers Paul Cozad and Ralph Pantuso went to the place and arrested William Pace, 35, 06 1-2 West Sixth street on a drunk charge. Pace's companion, Joe Queen, Orange, was sent home.

Convicted of being drunk and a vagrant, Patrick J. Byrne, 52, San Francisco janitor, was jailed here yesterday by Anaheim police to begin a 30-day term.

A fast talker often will speak as many as 150 words a minute, according to estimates.

At the next meeting January 12 at 7:30 p. m., installation of officers will be held and a special invitation is extended to the public to attend. The corps, organized a few months ago, now has 30 members. Mrs. Julia Tindill is president of the group.

As Sheriff Logan Jackson's storage room for gambling equipment was being rapidly cleared out and most of the property returned to the owners, Superior Judge G. K. Scovel issued a court order directing that some of the equipment be turned over to Fenelon to be rebuilt into legally usable property.

Law Forces Return
Sheriff Jackson, stating that the equipment has been gathered during his term of office, pointed out that slot machines, marble games and other similar equipment, with their contents including money, must be returned to those from whom it was taken since in most instances no arrests were made. Where no arrests were made and no convictions obtained, the property still legally belongs to those from whom it was taken.

Pleas of Guilty
However, Judge Scovel's order had to do with property once belonging to John H. Gage, et al., arrested in Santa Ana township, and Thomas H. Meagher, arrested in Huntington Beach township, for gambling law offenses. Both men pleaded guilty, thereby making the property county-owned property. The Gage and Meagher equipment includes roulette wheels, black jack tables, chairs and other accessories. What equipment cannot be made into furniture for use by county officials must be destroyed, the judge ordered.

S. A. Hospital Staff Re-Elects

The medical staff of the Santa Ana Valley Hospital, held its monthly meeting in the sun room of the institution last night. Dr. Hugh Wilson O'Neill gave the principal address. His subject was "Decelerate Rigidity."

Election of officers for the coming year featured the business meeting. Dr. G. Emmett Raitt was re-elected president; Dr. Chad Harwood, vice-president; Dr. Elizabeth Tock, secretary; Dr. Roland P. Yeagel, Dr. Mark Dalton and Dr. Hugh Wilson O'Neill members of the executive committee.

Only one death resulted during the month, according to the report of the hospital staff.

Reckless Driver Among Defendants

A reckless driver, three speeders and two persons charged with boulevard stop violations were fined by City Judge J. G. Mitchell yesterday.

Jack Tumber, Santa Ana, was fined $6 for speeding; Manuel Rubio, Santa Ana, $8 for speeding and $5 for boulevard stop jumping; Orville Skidmore, Laguna Beach, $8, speeding; Percy Terrey, Los Angeles, $25 for reckless driving and $5 for failing to appear in court; Hanjoro Yoshida, Route 4, Santa Ana, $5, boulevard stop violation, and Ralph Heim, Santa Ana, $5, no driver's license and parking with car motor running, unattended.

Ships Leave For Navy War Games

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Dec. 28.—(UP)—Departure of the first and slower units of San Diego based navy ships for the Caribbean to participate in fleet problem 20, is scheduled for 11:30 a. m. tomorrow, the navy department announced today.

Fighting units will not leave until January 4. They will overtake the ships now leaving, at either Panama or Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, which is to serve as operations base for the fleet during maneuvers.

The Light cruiser Trenton left today for Mare Island to take in tow an army dump scow for Pearl Harbor. Another ship will haul it to Midway Island for duty on the war department's project of dredging a seaplane harbor.

Varied Music Set For Tomorrow

Declared to be significant for its variety, an outstanding program has been arranged for the concert of the federal music project and to be presented at 2:15 p. m. tomorrow at Birch Park under the direction of Dale Porter.

Included among the feature numbers to be presented are: "New Colonial" march, by Hall; "Youth Triumphant," by Henry K. Hadley; "Sing Gipsy," by Kolman; and Moszkowski's Spanish dances Nos. I, IV, and V.

An Emergency Call for S. Sandman

DIXIE DUGAN

Dressed to Kill

By STRIEBEL and McEVROY

FAMILY GROUPS ENJOY DINNERS

GARDEN GROVE, Dec. 28.—Supervisor and Mrs. J. C. Mitchell entertained with family dinners Sunday and Monday. Tall red tapers in crystal holders surrounded by holly berries and pine cones reflected on a mirror for the table centerpiece. After the turkey dinner on Christmas day all gathered around the tree for a gift exchange.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Parks Clemmons and baby, of San Diego; Mr. and Mrs. Leland Mitchell and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mitchell and son, Jackie; Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell and son, Dick, of the home.

Members of the family present for a turkey dinner at the home of Mrs. A. P. Mills were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alexander and son, of Huntington Park; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Mills and family and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mills and family.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Schnitzler entertained with a turkey dinner at their ranch home, Mr. and Mrs. E. Schneider, Mr. and Mrs. George Orme, Miss Fernie Schotter and Wallace Schnitzler. Later the group went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Schneider for a dessert course and gift exchange. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schneider and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Manderscheid, L. A. Young and Donovan Schneider.

Guests at a 2 o'clock turkey dinner Monday at the S. C. Oertly home were Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Head and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Manderscheid, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Schneider and son, Donovan; Miss Mabel Head and John and George Oertly. After the gift exchange the group enjoyed playing Chinese checkers.

MITCHELL JOHNSON CALLED BY DEATH

Mitchell Johnson, 78, bandmaster at the Page Military Academy in Los Angeles for 20 years before his retirement, and resident of Garden Grove for eight years, passed away today at St. Joseph hospital from a heart ailment.

Mr. Johnson, resident of 157 Seventh street, Garden Grove, owned a ranch there. He lived in California for 30 years, was a native of Massachusetts.

There are no known relatives surviving. Announcement of funeral services will be made later by Brown and Wagner Colonial funeral chapel attendants.

Plans To Purify State Elections

FRESNO, Cal., Dec. 28.—(UP)—Assemblyman Hugh M. Burns of Fresno today outlined legislation designed to "purify" California elections which he intends to introduce at the forthcoming session of the state legislature.

His measure would require a complete accounting of all money spent by candidates' persons or organizations in behalf of any candidate or ballot propositions.

Now in the hands of the legislative council, the bill provides that 60 days before the election, every candidate's organization and individual must file a statement of receipts and expenditures in behalf of himself or any candidate or proposition. It provides for weekly statements of expenditures thereafter until the election.

STOLEN CAR SOUGHT

Police throughout California were on the lookout today for an automobile belonging to H. L. Trebber, 615 East Washington, and stolen from Broadway between Sixth and Eighth streets, while parked there yesterday. The car is a 1930 A-model Ford coupe, grey in color with green wheels. It is valued at $150.

SIDE GLANCES

By George Clark

"I'll dress for dinner just once more. After that our daughter's friends will have to judge for themselves what kind of a family we are."

Arrange Talk At Tustin Assembly

TUSTIN, Dec. 28.—Stanley Wilson, son of Fred L. Wilson, will speak on "Youth Hosteling Through Europe" at the freshman assembly at 1 p. m. January 3 in the high school auditorium. The speaker graduated from Tustin High school in 1934. He returned recently from a six months tour of Europe.

Wilson is a graduate of Santa Ana Junior college and the University of California. Freshmen are planning one or two short features in addition to the talk. All friends of the school are invited to attend.

Dinner Enjoyed By Club Members

TUSTIN, Dec. 28.—Christmas day was the occasion for a dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Windler of Yorba street, Tustin. The dinner had been planned by Mrs. Windler, her daughter, Miss Minnie Windler, Mrs. Henry Windler, and Mrs. Gunder Holland. One of the features of the day's festivities was the grab bag held after dinner.

Later in the day the group assembled in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gunder Holland, 613 Drange avenue, Santa Ana for the evening dinner. There, group singing and Chinese checkers were enjoyed.

Taking part were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Windler, their daughter Minnie and son Fred; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Windler, Mr. and Mrs. Gunder Holland and their daughters, Hildred and Ida Marie, Mr. Martin Holland and Miss Pearl Teagas.

WESTMINSTER

Mrs. Katherine Bell is in Riverside to spend the holiday season with Mr. Bell who is located there.

Mrs. Ethel Paulk is spending the holiday season in Los Alamitos with her daughter, Miss Mildred Paulk.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Murdy and Miss Ella Murdy spent the Christmas week end at Arlington where they were with Mrs. Alma Burns, a daughter of the Murdys.

By ROBERT PILGRIM

Church Arranges Vesper Services

TUSTIN, Dec. 28.—There will be a dedicatory vesper service at 5 p. m. New Year's day at the Presbyterian church with hymns of praise and dedication and a procession by the choir. The auditorium will be lighted by candles, with one candle glowing for each person present at the service. Members of the board of deacons are in charge of the arrangements.

A special Christmas service was held at the church. The choir, under the direction of Mrs. Vincent Humeston, arranged special music for the service.

"Jesu Redemptor," by Pietro Yon, was the choir's opening number, followed by the Scripture reading of the Christmas story, "O Holy Night," by Adams, was sung by the choir, with the solo part by Mrs. Rena Bouchard. "Glory to God," by Rogers, was the final number by the choir, followed by a duet by Miss Marjorie Rawlings and Vincent Humeston. "A Christmas Message for Us Today" was the theme of the sermon by the pastor, the Rev. Calvin A. Duncan.

Talk On Safety Set For Jan. 3

COSTA MESA, Dec. 28.—A special program on safety will be presented at the meeting of the Costa Mesa Elementary P. T. A. the evening of January 3 at the Main schoolhouse. Louis Van Orman, of Los Angeles, traffic expert, will be the speaker. Two traffic films, "Horse Sense" and "Horse Power," will be shown in addition to Van Orman's talk.

The program will also include a baritone solo by Henry Abrams, superintendent of the Costa Mesa schools, and a piano duet by Miss Ruth Karges and Mrs. Marie Pearce, faculty members. The program, to be presented under the direction of Mrs. William Currie, is open to the public.

NAME LEADERS OF H. B. GROUP

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Dec. 28.—At a re-organization meeting of the Brotherhood of the Methodist church of Huntington Beach held last evening in the church parlors, B. H. Stewart was elected president, Roy K. Smith, vice president and John Price, secretary-treasurer.

Wray Andrew, head of the Civilian Industries, of Long Beach, and conference president of Methodist Men, spoke on phases of the Brotherhood work. L. L. Crum, who served as temporary chairman last month, presided.

The next meeting will be held January 3 at the church and at that time the date of meetings will be decided upon. F. M. Smith will be in charge of the program of the next meeting and Joe Cady and William Judy, other arrangements.

Dr. Ralph E. Hawes and Roy K. Smith, sang solos, accompanied by Mrs. Edna Conrad.

COUPLE WELCOMED

WESTMINSTER, Dec. 28.—Family reunions are the order of the day for the H. B. Anderson family in welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson, who leave Friday to return to Ft. Sill, Okla., concluding their visit of six days here. Anderson is a lieutenant in the U. S. army. The marriage of the couple took place last June, the same week he graduated from West Point and this is the first time local relatives have met the bride.

The visit was a surprise to Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Anderson but other relatives knew of the proposed plans and were present on Christmas eve when the couple arrived in Santa Ana at the South Sycamore home of Anderson's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Fox, who entertained at a Christmas dinner. The second reunion was held Monday in Los Angeles at the home of cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Wartenbe.

Find What You Want In The Classified Ads!

EVERYTHING on the classified pages and thousands of other articles are wanted—and obtained at least expense—by readers of Register Want Ads . . . necessities, luxuries, conveniences and services . . . things costly or inexpensive, common or unique . . . can be, and are, bought, sold, traded or rented in the big Register Classified Section.

Every Register reader should make use of this convenience. Make money with it! Sell or trade your unneeded possessions. Rent your property. Read and use Register Want Ads for profit.

Phone 6121 and place a Result Getting Classified Ad today.

Register Classified Ads

"For Quick Action"

"They're my pants. . . I got caught in the rain and I put 'em in the oven to dry and the rice pudding boiled over."

TIPPY TACKER'S CHRISTMAS ADVENTURE

Five Persons Injured In Spectacular S. A. Crash

CALUMPTIERS WIND UP YEAR

Calumpty Camp and its auxiliary held their last meeting of the year last night at the Knights of Columbus hall, with a pot luck dinner, Christmas tree and other entertainment.

Commander Albert P. Dresser presided and at the end of the dinner he presented a birthday cake to President Ruth Hest, Past Commander Chas. W. Winter, Past President Bess Moberly and Mrs. Mary Mann, all of whom had birthdays in December.

Have Santa Claus
Junior Vice Commander John Hinkley, acting as Santa Claus, presided over the Christmas tree and presented every one with apples, candies and pennies.

The entertainment opened with the audience singing "Jingle Bells," with Mrs. Cora Graham leading and Mrs. Emma Peterman at the piano. H. L. Short, of Los Angeles, an employee of the Union Oil company put two reels of moving pictures on the screen. These reels showed scenes from Skyways from San Diego, via Los Angeles, Las Vegas, Salt Lake, Pocatello, Butte, Helena, Yellowstone Park and Glacier park, and one reel called "Finny Fighters" showing deep sea and other fishing.

Plan Installation
Commander Dresser congratulated Calumpty Camp on being rated No. 1 place in the department this year by the department inspector and his assistants.

The committee having charge of the dinner, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Annie Palmer were: Edward E. Palmer, Henry R. Haskell and wife, Jacob E. Wine and wife, Warren L. Cook, Arthur F. Hammond and Mrs. Mary F. King. The new officers are to be installed on January 3 and the installation will be preceded by an outgoing and incoming officers dinner at the Daniger cafe at 6:00 p. m.

The Iroquois Confederacy of Indians was the first League of Nations in America. The league was composed of the Senecas, Cayugas, Onondagas, Oneidas, Mohawks, and later, the Tuscaroras.

A Great NEW YEAR'S EVE SHOW

Broadway and West Coast Theatres—All Seats 55c Tickets Now on Sale!

Get Your Tickets Early!

Doors Open 11:30 p. m. Show Starts 12 Midnight!

Plans Migration

Reichsbanker Hjalmar Schacht who goes to London to further Nazi plans for removing Jews from Germany, is pictured with his granddaughter. One rich Jew and four poor ones would be freed as a single economic unit.

NEW YORK SOCIALITE IN $75,000 DEBUT

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—(UP)—Brenda Diana Duff Frazier, the richest, prettiest and most publicized debutante of the year, "came out" to society in the grand ballroom suite of the Ritz Carlton hotel early today at a party which cost $75,000 and didn't start until after midnight.

A thousand guests paraded some $3,000,000 worth of orchids, ermine and diamonds up the festooned stairs, at the top of which was a champagne bar, one of four bars. The four, incidentally, dispensed hanger cures, a concoction of milk and Coca Cola (the Coca Cola must be squirted into the milk) designed by M. Adolphe Jeanet, the Ritz's banquet director.

The No. 1 picture girl of 1938 stood in the receiving line beside her mother, Mrs. Frederic Matris, who has battled through several courts to preserve the $8,000,000 estate inherited by Miss Frazier from her paternal grandmother, Clara Duff Frazier, who died in 1926.

In a gown of white duchess satin trimmed in ostrich feathers, Miss Frazier greeted the guests to whom her face and lithe figure had been a familiar sight in night clubs and on newspaper and magazine pages for months. Her mother wore a black dress trimmed in sequins, a tiara, three strands of pearls and orchids.

BLIND CROSSING HELD TO BLAME

A blind intersection, Washington to Baker streets, where many accidents have occurred in the past, was blamed in connection with a two-car accident yesterday afternoon, according to Santa Ana police, and five persons were injured. Cars were badly damaged.

Steve Page, 60, one driver, of Route 1, Box 281, Garden Grove, with his wife, Mrs. Vic Page, 54, was traveling south on Baker street, and Bert Norris, 26, the other driver, of 1335 West Washington, with his wife, Mrs. Leslie Norris, 24, and his father, Ed Norris, 55, was traveling west on Washington when the collision occurred.

Taken To Hospital
Page and Ed Norris were rushed to Santa Ana Valley hospital, the others to St. Joseph hospital for treatment after police gave first aid. Ed Norris, who suffered cut head, cut over the eye, bruised eye, possibly rib fracture, probably will go home today. Page was transferred to St. Joseph hospital last night to be near his wife and is recovering from bruises and internal injuries, it is reported.

Two Go Home
Mrs. Norris went home yesterday as did Bert Norris but Norris, suffering shock, returned to the hospital for rest last night. Mrs. Norris was cut near the right eye, according to report filed by Officers Ernest Zimmerman and Daniel M. Jones. Mrs. Page suffered severe cuts to her hand and possible chest injuries.

Cars driven by Presilano Rivera, 62 Adams street, south on Main, and Walter Welbourne, Los Angeles, north on Main, at Delhi road, collided yesterday, no one being injured. Fog was blamed for the accident. Rivera was ticketed for having no windshield wiper nor driver's license.

Nebraskans Plan Sunday Affair

Mrs. J. A. Crawford of 938 North Grand street, announced today there will be a meeting of all former Belvidere, Nebr., residents now living in Orange county, at the Jack Fisher park Sunday, January 1.

A dinner will be served at 1 p. m. with other forms of entertainment planned for later in the afternoon.

Prisoners Leave Stolen Auto

Stolen by prisoners who escaped from the Los Angeles county road camp, a car belonging to M. E. Davis, San Dimas, was found by Deputy Sheriff Ezra Stanley and William Trapp abandoned at Whittier boulevard and Cypress avenue, La Habra, early today. The gasoline and keys were gone from the car.

You May See It Today At—

THE BROADWAY—"In Society," with the Little Tough Guys "gang," Mischa Auer, Mary Boland, Edward Everett Horton, Helen Parrish, Jackie Searl, Frankie Thomas, and "Blondie," with Penny Singleton, Arthur Lake, Larry Simms, Gene Lockhart; also latest "March of Time" and selected shorts.

WEST COAST—"Dark Rapture," filmed and recorded on the Dennis-Roosevelt Belgian Congo expedition, and "Arrest Bulldog Drummond," with John Howard, Heather Angel, H. B. Warner, Reginald Denny; also selected short subjects including world news.

WALKER'S—"Breaking the Ice," starring Bobby Breen, with Charles Ruggles, Dolores Costello, Irene Dale, and "Smashing the Rackets," with Chester Morris, Frances Mercer; also "Miracles of Sport," sports novelty, and world news.

THE STATE—"Three Kids and a Queen," with May Robson, Charlotte Henry, Frankie Darro, Henry Armetta, and "On the Great White Trail," a Renfrew of the Royal Mounted film with James Newill; also "The Little Ranger," an Our Gang comedy.

The BILTMORE Bowl
World's Largest Hotel Supper Club

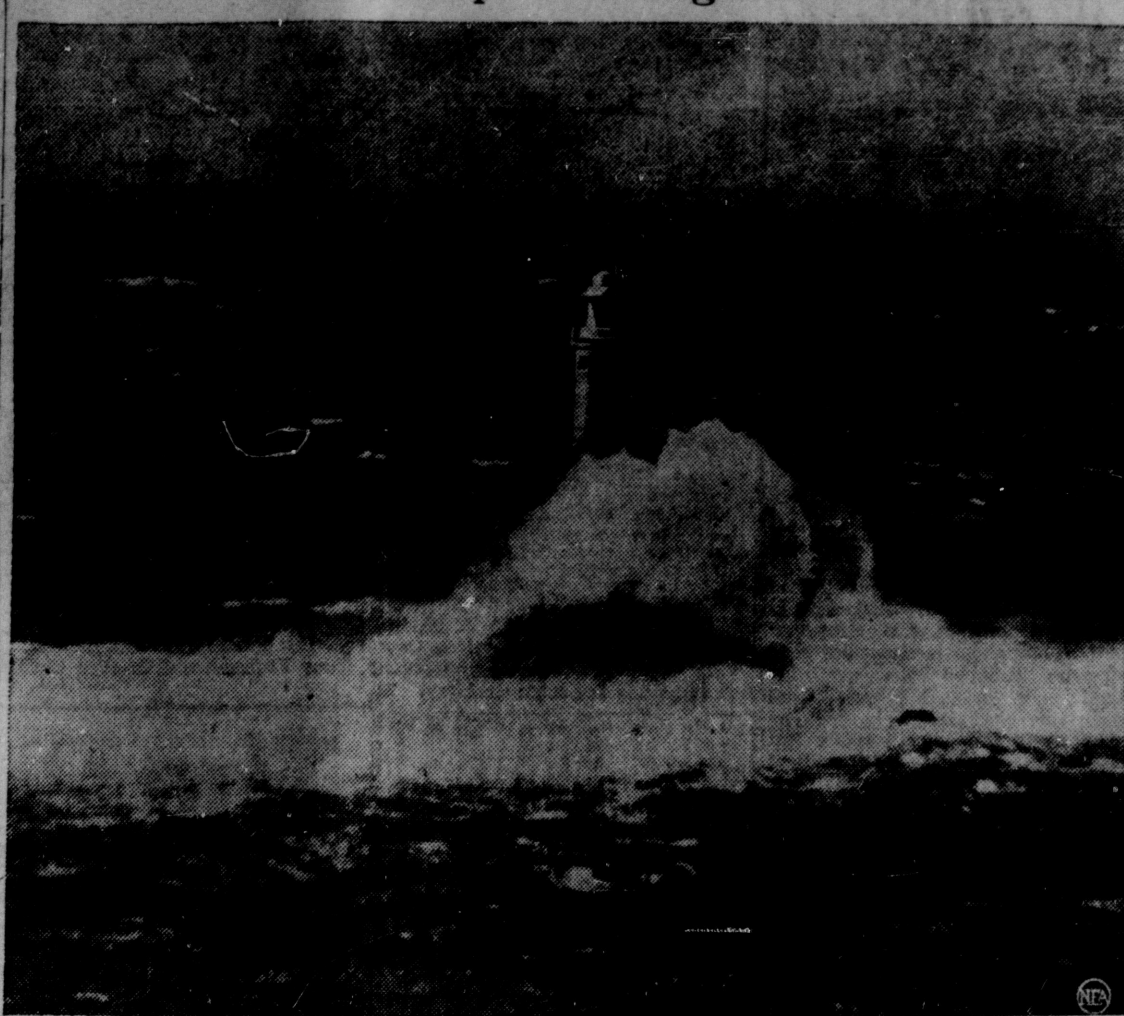

SHEP FIELDS' Famous Orchestra ALL-STAR Floor Revue

Dining, Dancing NIGHTLY EXCEPT SUNDAY

DINNER $2 No Cover Charge Till 10 p. m.

Free Parking
IN THE BILTMORE Hotel

Winter Captures A Lighthouse

Angry seas, lashed into a fury by the great cold wave has swept over Europe, break high against Longships Lighthouse off Land's End, England, marooning the ill head-keeper. Rescue ships have been trying to bring relief to the keeper and crew for three weeks.

STATE LEGISLATIVE LAWYER GIVES COUNTY COUNSEL RULING

The county supervisors cannot create a position of special county counsel and the state legislature cannot empower the local solons to create it.

This was the official opinion today of Legislative Counsel Fred B. Wood at Sacramento, legal advisor for all state legislators, and which was received by State Senator Harry Westover.

Have No Power
Westover had written to the legislative counsel concerning the action of the county supervisors who today reported back that in his opinion the supervisors do not have the power to create the special counsel office.

The three-page opinion, backed up by 12 pages of legal precedent, held that the only method by which the county of Orange could have a special counsel would be for the state legislature to pass a law that would apply to all non-chartered counties having the same population as Orange county.

Westover today told The Register that in his opinion, the authority of the legislative counsel was on the same basis as the attorney general and was recognized by lawmakers throughout the state.

Rank As "Assistant"
On December 6 the county supervisors under the authority of Section 4041.22 of the political code, to "assist" the district attorney by advising the board of supervisors and various other officials. Walker is to rank as an "assistant" to District Attorney-elect George Holden but will not be under the supervision of the district attorney's office, it is said.

Subsequently Holden reminded the board that Walker is not actually a county counsel and that the law makes the district attorney legal advisor to all departments and districts and hold him responsible for certain matters, such as opposing all illegal claims against the county. Holden, however, said he had no objection to the creation of Walker's place and was ready to co-operate.

OLSON PLANS PUBLIC HEARING ON PARDON FOR TOM MOONEY

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Dec. 28.—(UP)—Governor-elect Culbert L. Olson said today he would hold a public hearing between January 2 and 16 on release of Thomas Mooney, convicted of the 1916 San Francisco preparedness day bombing.

The governor-elect said it was possible that Mooney himself would be brought from San Quentin prison in connection with the hearing.

"I don't know of any reason why he shouldn't be," Olson said.

To Convince Olson
The hearing will be different from previous Mooney pardon hearings in that persons desiring that the convicted labor leader be held in prison must convince Olson that he should not issue the pardon.

Answering questions on whether he would refer the Mooney question to the advisory pardon board, Olson said "there will be no reference of that case to any board. I'll hear it myself."

The governor-elect said the Mooney case would be one of the first things he would take up after he takes office next Monday.

"I understand that an application for a pardon will be presented on behalf of Mooney immediately," Olson said.

"I expect to conduct a hearing at the first opportunity, surely between January 2 and 16."

WARMTH 'POSSUM'S UNDOING
PASADENA, Cal. (UP)—One warmth-loving opossum finally located the steam heating pipes beneath the bathroom of the E. Jost home as an ideal nesting place. When discovered a month later by the family, they transferred it to a still warmer place in the oven, where it came out a roast.

Male ostriches sit on the eggs during the night, females during the day.

TREASURE CHEST TONIGHT
800 Or 5
Continuous Shows From 2 P. M. at Both Theaters

STATE
TONIGHT & THURSDAY
MAY ROBSON in "3 KIDS and a QUEEN" with Charlotte HENRY and Frankie DARRO

WALKER'S
LAST TIMES TONIGHT
"BREAKING THE ICE" AND "Smashing the Rackets" THURSDAY

ROY ROGERS
BILLY the KID RETURNS
AND Shirley TEMPLE
"Just Around the CORNER" AND
Vacation from LOVE

M'KELVEY ASKS FOR 'BACK PAY'

Deputy Sheriff G. F. McKelvey, suspended by Sheriff Logan Jackson during the grand jury investigation of the pamphlet, "Fools Rush In," and McKelvey's prosecution by the district attorney's office on charges based on the pamphlet, which later were dismissed, yesterday applied to the county supervisors for salary covering the suspension period. The request was referred to the district attorney for a report and recommendation.

Called as Witness
McKelvey was under suspension from September 7 to November 30. He told the supervisors yesterday that he could not seek other employment while under suspension, and that he was called as a witness several times by the state in the prosecution of the pamphlet case.

WHITE DEER BAGGED

GENEVA, Ohio (UP)—Since not more than six out of every 100,000 deer shot are white, Adolph Laurie bagged a rarity when he came home with a white doe. Laurie noticed the 160-pound white doe bedded the season opened, and an hour and a quarter after hunters could officially take to the woods, had felled her.

A LECTURE BY TWO OF THE FOREMOST

AUTHORITIES ON THE SUBJECT:

How to Be Young and Well at Any Old Age with Raw Vegetable Juices

BY

Wm. HOWARD HAY, M.D.

of Pocono Haven Sanitarium

Mt. Pocono, Pennsylvania

AND

N. M. WALKER, D. SC.

Scientist, Author, Inventor and World Traveler

Authority on and exponent of Raw Vegetable Juices.

On Thursday, December 29, 1938

8 P. M.

At the American Legion Hall, North Birch St. Santa Ana

Admission FREE

Freewill Offering

Do not miss this lecture! Tell your friends!

WEST COAST TODAY — SEE THE GREATEST "INSIDE" PICTURE OF THE SECRET LIVES EVER BARED TO HUMAN EYES!

"DARK RAPTURES"
DARING! AUTHENTIC!
Filmed and Recorded on the Dennis-Roosevelt Belgian Congo Expedition

"ARREST BULLDOG DRUMMOND"
WITH JOHN HOWARD HEATHER ANGEL H. B. WARNER REGINALD DENNY

Broadway
Mat. at 1:45, 25c

THEY'RE HERE AGAIN

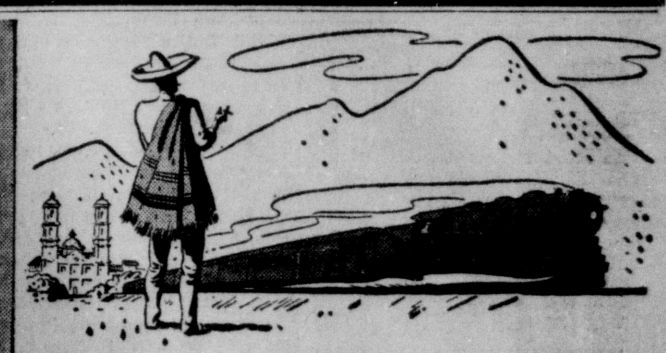

"Blondie"
Penny Singleton, Arthur Lake, Larry Simms, Gene Lockhart

"IN SOCIETY"
Mischa Auer, Mary Boland, Edward Everett Horton, Helen Parrish, Jackie Searl, Frankie Thomas

"March of Time"

"Just Around the Corner"

"Vacation from Love"

See More of MEXICO by TRAIN

You go to bed in an air-conditioned Pullman. Next day, it's buenos dias to a totally different world... a sunny winter-time world of little stations, venerable cathedrals, heavy-laden burros. You'll buy serapes (a dollar is worth five times as much down there), loaf under Mazatlan's palms, see the grand Barrancas, fascinating Guadalajara, and the gay life of Mexico City. Stop over at Southern Pacific's picturesque Hotel Playa de Cortes at Guaymas.

Our charming West Coast Route shows you more of a Mexico that is unchanged and unspoiled. See twice as much for no extra rail fare by going one way on the West Coast Route, one way via El Paso.

From Los Angeles to MEXICO CITY $85.50 ROUNDTrip

Fare good in air-conditioned Pullmans (plus berth charge) direct without change between Los Angeles and Mexico City, or stop over as you wish. Return limit 30 days. Low fares from other Southern California cities.

Southern Pacific

CITY TICKET OFFICE — 504 N. MAIN ST. Phone 3042 — E. B. Sharpley, D. P. A. Station — 1030 E. Fourth St. — Phone 1401 M. J. Logue, Agent

JONES SAYS DUKE-TROJAN STRUGGLE EVEN

Grid Rules To Get 'Breathing Spell'

SAN FRANCISCO GETS N. C. A. A. HOOP TOURNEY

SAN FRANCISCO.—(UP)—Announcement was made today that the Western playoff of the National Collegiate Athletic association basketball tournament will be held in San Francisco March 17-18.

Art McChrystal, sports director of the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition, said the championships would be played in the exposition's livestock exposition, which has a seating capacity of 12,000.

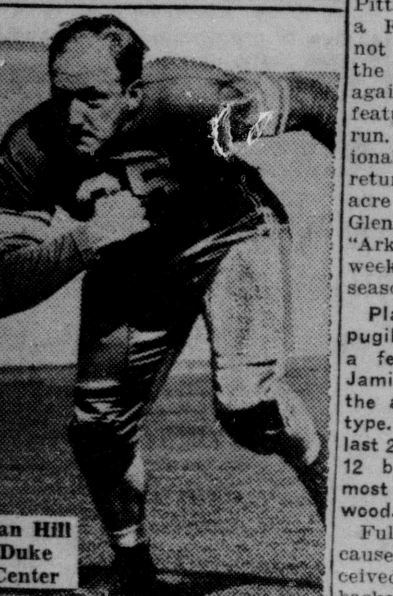

Change in the site of the playoffs from Kansas City to the Fair site on Treasure Island was made after the fair directors agreed to underwrite the championships.

Formal selection was made by Harold Olsen, Ohio State basketball coach and chairman of the N. C. A. A. hoop committee. He was reported to have conferred with Phog Allen, University of Kansas coach and also a member of the N. C. A. A. committee, who had favored holding the playoffs in Kansas City. The change was urged by Fair directors and John Bunn, former basketball coach at Stanford who is now Stanford's dean of men.

DUKE CAPTAIN INJURES BACK

PASADENA.—(UP)—Dan Hill, co-captain and one of the great centers of 1938, was on the injured list today as Duke began secret practice for its Rose Bowl game next Monday against Southern California.

Hill sprained his back while charging down the field under a punt yesterday. He was taken to a hospital for treatment and afterward said he felt much better. Although he will be out of the lineup for several days, it was believed he will be sufficiently recovered to start the game.

The Blue Devils worked at Brookside park yesterday on pass defense and for the first time since arriving in California, the players met in sharp body contact. Eric Tipton, star halfback whose kicking helped beat Pittsburgh and put Duke in the Rose Bowl, again devoted most of his time to punting and the first string ended ready down the field to tackle the receivers.

Coach Wallace Wade did not, however, permit the substitute unit to tackle the regular backs when the system was reversed.

Today Duke closes its doors to spectators and newspapermen. Wade explaining, "we can practice so much better in peace and quiet."

At Bovard field in Los Angeles, where U.S.C. is working, Earl Stanley was stricken ill and taken from the field. The team physician said his condition was not serious and that he would be back at work today.

The Trojans worked on defense, but again there was no scrimmage. Jones, whose team have won four Rose Bowl games in four years, said the squad would be taken to Pasadena tomorrow for a look at the Rose Bowl. He said only brief workouts will be held Friday and Saturday and that the team will rest Sunday.

BASKETBALL SCORES

(By United Press)
Minnesota 35, N. Y. U. 32.
Illinois 60, Manhattan 47.
Oregon 60, West Illinois Techs. 45.
Cornell 52, Canisius 32.
Washington State 55, Ellensburg, Wash., Normal 31.
Nebraska 35, U.C.L.A. 30.
Idaho 44, Utah 22.
Brigham Young 50, Montana 45.
California 49, Ohio State 35.
Ottawa 60, Haskell Institute 17.
Southwestern 47, McPherson 27.

You Can't Beat Our Milk—But You Can Whip Our Cream
1/2 Pt. 10c
QUINLANS For Quality
615 West 4th Street

SAFETY ZONE FOR PASSERS TO BE STUDIED

PLAVAN DENIES HORSE STORY

The $10,000 California Breeders' Stake at Santa Anita Saturday will not have a Santa Ana flavor after all . . . but thereby hangs a tale.

Joe Hernandez, "the voice of Santa Anita" who doubles in brass as a racing writer for The Examiner, broke a story yesterday that Urbain Plavan, the North Main street horseman, had purchased an animal called "Toro Play." It happens that Toro Play was named (way back in 1936) by his breeder for the California classic. And Trainer Woody Fitzgerald of the Norman Church stable (which owns Plucky Flight, the probable favorite) was quoted as grumbling that "Toro Play, our discard, is the horse we'll have to beat."

"There's nothing to it," declares Plavan. "I read the story but it was as phony as the way Joe spelled my first name. He called me 'Ulysses,' and I ought to do something about THAT."

"Toro Play is a pretty fair horse but he's an in-and-outter. As a matter of fact, I thing a longshot named Alex the Great has a good chance to win that $10,000 purse. He had a fine sprint workout the other day and I believe he can go on."

Plavan explains that Hernandez error may have been by the fact that Toro Play was shipped to Santa Anita from Tanforan along with Tornelli, Urge Me, Khaynam and other Plavan "Trainee" Mike Eaton was in charge. The Santa Anita sportsman is not sure when Tornelli and the others will start at Arcadia. Plavan says there's nothing much for them in the first "condition book" which runs for two weeks.

PERIPATETIC PARAGRAPHS

Floyd Ellis Vaughan ("Arky" to you) is spending the holidays with his father, Robert Vaughan. The Pittsburgh Pirates' great shortstop, a Fullerton sandlot product, had not been in his home town since the Pirates played there last spring against Portland, a contest "Arky" featured with a first inning home run. At the conclusion of the National league campaign, Vaughan returned directly to his new 480-acre Potter valley ranch. Brother Glen Vaughan will accompany "Arky" back to Potter valley this week to look after Arky's off-season interest—sheep. . . .

Placencia has a heavyweight pugilistic hope who'll turn pro in a few weeks. His name is Joe Jamison, who is ending a hitch in the army. Jamison is the Carnera type. He's 6'7 and has won his last 20 starts among the amateurs, by the kayo route. He'll do most of his training at Hollywood. Watch for his name. . . . Fullerton jockey is criticized because the handsome trophy he received for winning the big Chaffey basketball tournament last week was engraved "Chaffey, J. C., 1938 Tournament Winner." It should have said "1937". . . .

This is the time to caution readers of this department against bets that Duke will beat Southern California on New Year's Day. Remember the Rose Bowl game will be played on January 2 this year. . . . er, I mean next year. . . .

Omgosh! Just discovered that every member of San Bernardino jaycee's backfield (which led the Indians to the Eastern conference football championship) will be back next season. Hall Finney, Don Fisher, Paul Holmes and Homer Doake all return. . . . along with All-Conference tackle Roger Johnson, Ends Don Trust, Chuck Gunning and Gordon Snyder, and Guards Frank Frazee and Bill Hukkes. Only absentees will be End John Thompson, Guards Bill Williams, and Owen Walker, Tackle Bill Thompson and Center Jim Verdick. . . .

"A lot of people are going to be fooled by those 1-2 odds on Southern California to beat Duke in the Rose Bowl," declares Andy Kerr, Colorado coach. "Duke has a better offensive team than it is being given credit for. It played and beat us without George McAfee, and kept him out of the Pitt game. . . . and he's Wallace Wade's best back."

Kerr says Duke is a cinch if it rains. The Blue Devils play a great kicking game," he explains "not only in kicking but in covering and returning punts."

ROLE OF UNDERDOG PLEASES OKLAHOMA

MIAMI (UP)—Tom Stidham, coach of unbeaten Oklahoma, was not worrying today although Tennessee was made a 3 to 1 favorite for next Monday's Orange Bowl football game.

"Those odds are just about right," the husky gridiron tutor said—but a twinkle in his eyes belied his words. Stidham is getting a kick out of being the underdog, a new experience for his powerhouse eleven which bowled over 10 opponents and was scored on only twice.

WARN AGAINST PRO SOFTBALL

CHICAGO.—(UP)—Lou Little of Columbia university, chairman of the rules committee of the National Football Coaches' association, said today he believed the gridiron would get a "breathing spell" from major rule changes.

The committee meets today but was not expected to adopt radical revision. The coaches opened their four-day annual meeting last night. "At least, we aren't planning to recommend any drastic changes," Little said. "The trend is away from that idea. Coaches are being more conservative about radical revisions of the code. Most of us feel that football needs to catch up with the times."

He said there is a "pretty happy balance" now between offense and defense and that "what we need now is to stabilize and clarify the present rules so they can be placed on an understandable basis."

Little listed proposed changes which will be discussed and indicated that nothing would be done about suggestions to: 1. Eliminate the point after touchdown; 2. Move the goal posts back to the goal lines; 3. Adopt the professional passing rule which permits passing from any point behind the line of scrimmage.

Little indicated these three suggestions would be discussed: 1.—A proposal sponsored by Coach Pat Hanley of Boston university concerning protection for a "safety zone" for passers. Under it, a defensive player would be penalized 15 yards if he "roughed" the passer after the latter had thrown the ball and still was standing in the "safety zone." This zone would be approximately three yards laterally and three yards backwards.

2.—Accidental hitting of an ineligible receiver by a forward pass. Under the present rule, this results in loss of the ball where the play originated. Little said it had been suggested that the pass be declared incomplete and the penalty be loss of a down.

3.—Commission of a foul by an offensive player while a punted ball is free. The present rule calls for loss of the ball to the opposing team where the play originated. "Losing the ball seems too drastic a penalty," Little said. "Maybe something will be worked out to correct this."

Manager-Joseph McCarthy, who piloted the New York Yankees to their third straight world series championship. Player—Johnny Vander Veer, who set an all time big league record by batting two consecutive no-hits, no-run games for Cincinnati. The corresponding minor league honors went to Lou McKenna, secretary and business manager of the St. Paul American association club who was credited with the team's rise from seventh place in 1937 to the pennant in 1938; Paul Richards, manager of the Atlanta club which won the Southern association playoff and Dixie series championships; and Fred Hutchinson, Seattle Pacific Coast league pitcher purchased recently by the Detroit Tigers for $50,000 and several players. He won 25 games and lost only 7 during the season.

'WHIZZER' TO SAIL SOON FOR ENGLAND

PITTSBURGH.—(UP)—Byron (Whizzer) White, bound for Oxford, Eng., to study at Hertford college under a Rhodes Scholarship, bid farewell to his Pittsburgh Pirates teammates today and told President Arthur Rooney that only a war on the other continent would bring him back to play professional football.

White stopped off here en route to Philadelphia. He is scheduled to sail for England Jan. 4. The Whizzer was the leading ground gainer in the National Professional Football league this year.

White won his Rhodes Scholarship at Colorado university where he also won All-American quarterback honors. He was paid $15,000 for his first year in pro football.

BUDGE SAYS AUSTIN BEST OF AMATEURS

NEW YORK (UP)—Don Budge, who makes his professional tennis debut next week against Ellsworth Vines, today announced his list of the world's first 10 amateur players.

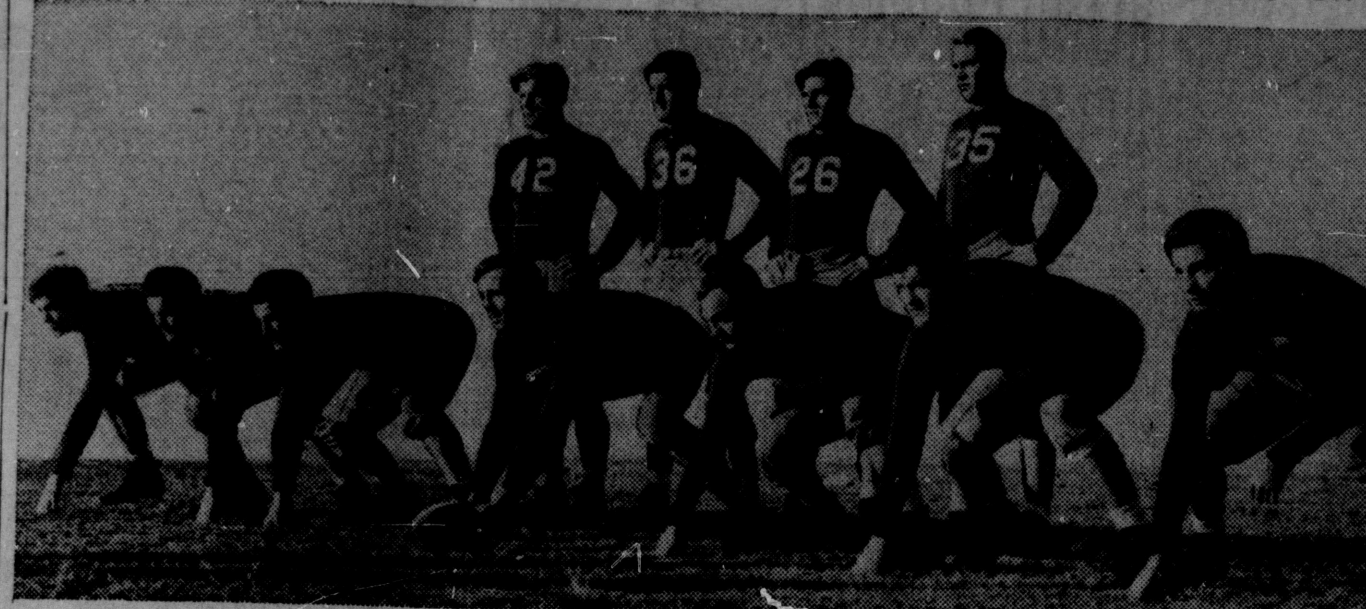

He named Henry W. (Bunny) Austin as the top man in the world and rated the others as follows: 2. John Bromwich, Australia; 3. Robert L. Riggs, Chicago; 4. Roderick Menzel, Czechoslovakia; 5. Sidney Wood Jr., New York; 6. Gene Mako, Los Angeles; 7. U. F. Cejnar, Czechoslovakia; 8. Adrian Quist, Australia; 9. Henner Kenkel, Germany; 10. Bryan Grant, Atlanta.

WESTERN ALL-STAR TEAM SCRIMMAGES

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—Coach "Babe" Hollingberry and "Biff" Jones sent their West team against a squad of Stanford players to play in their first real scrimmage practice in preparation for the Shrine's East-West game Jan. 2.

Both East and West squads were attempting to arrange scrimmages for the past week but have had to content themselves with intra-squad workouts because of a shortage of bay region players during the holiday season.

Only Notre Dame Beat This Team; Can T. C. U. Do It?

This is how Carnegie Tech will line up against air-minded Texas Christian in the New Orleans Sugar Bowl, January 2. In the line, from left to right: Ted Fisher, Don Campbell, Bill Rieth, Johnny Schmidt, Henry Pyszynski, Pete Dobrus, and Karl Striegel. The backs, from left to right: George Muha, Ray Carnelly, Tony Laposki, and Merlyn Condit. Only Notre Dame beat this team this year, an referee's mistake on the Irish that day.

WARN AGAINST PRO SOFTBALL

MODESTO (UP)—John H. Fee, reputed to be the originator of the increasingly popular game of softball, warned today the future of the sport was threatened because it was becoming "too professional." Fee said the rapidly forming commercial aspects of softball, such as commercially sponsored teams paying of players and admission prices were beginning to "take the fun out of the game." He advocated more local organization by purely amateur groups. Fee introduced the game first as indoor baseball and then as playground ball during his term as Y.M.C.A. physical director here from 1902 to 1912.

VANDER MEER NO. 1 PLAYER OF SEASON

ST. LOUIS.—The three No. 1 men of the 1938 major leagues, as announced today by baseball's newspaper, The Sporting News, were: Executive—Warren Giles, vice-president and general manager of the Cincinnati Reds.

Manager—Joseph McCarthy, who piloted the New York Yankees to their third straight world series championship.

Player—Johnny Vander Veer, who set an all time big league record by batting two consecutive no-hits, no-run games for Cincinnati.

The corresponding minor league honors went to Lou McKenna, secretary and business manager of the St. Paul American association club who was credited with the team's rise from seventh place in 1937 to the pennant in 1938; Paul Richards, manager of the Atlanta club which won the Southern association playoff and Dixie series championships; and Fred Hutchinson, Seattle Pacific Coast league pitcher purchased recently by the Detroit Tigers for $50,000 and several players. He won 25 games and lost only 7 during the season.

Bears Beat Ohio But Bruins Lose To Huskers

BERKELEY (UP)—University of Nebraska's and Ohio State's barnstorming basketball teams moved to Los Angeles today for their final matches Friday and Saturday night in a round-robin series with the University of California and U.C.L.A.

The Nebraskans, having scored a surprise defeat over California in their first game here, made it two straight over Western teams last night by defeating U.C.L.A., 35-30.

California, however, clamped on a tight defense in defeating Ohio State, 49-35, after leading all the way. The Buckeyes were forced to make all their shots from long range.

JAYSEE-NEAL HOOP CONTEST POSTPONED

A freshly varnished floor prevented Santa Ana junior college and T. J. Neal's Sporting Goods basketball teams from playing at Andrews gymnasium last night.

The contest has been postponed until a later date because the Don sagemen are slated to meet the strong Concordia club basketball team of Orange tomorrow in the Walker Memorial hall at Orange.

This will mark the first start since the beginning of the Christmas holidays for Coach Bill Cook's team. The Ducks will be slightly favored to win from the Orangemen because of superior service strength and the fact that J. E. Baden, the Concordia coach, has not had his team at full strength yet.

BEGINS WORKOUT FOR FIGHT LOS ANGELES (UP)—Henry Armstrong looked fresh and fit today as he began training for a defense of his welterweight title against Baby Arizmendi here Jan. 10. The Mexican challenger has been working at Soper's ranch. They split four previous fights, Armstrong won three and Soper one.

The PAYOFF

By HARRY GRAYSON (NEA Service Sports Editor)

Grenny Lansdell, Mickey Anderson, and Little Bill Sangster, backs most likely to star for Southern California against Duke in the Rose Bowl are Pasadena boys. . . . While the Blue Devils are unwelcome in some quarters, their engagement with the Trojans is likely to establish a new record for attendance and receipts in the Arroyo Seco. . . . $9,259 customers and a $315,000 gate.

Henry Armstrong believes that John Henry Lewis has a good chance to outpoint Joe Louis at Madison Square Garden, Jan. 25, if he doesn't get tagged in the early going.

Foreign reports have Gottfried von Cramm heading next year's German Davis Cup team. Tom Harmon, Michigan backfield star, did not make the eastern tour with the basketball squad so he could catch up with his studies.

Charles Kutsinger still has an idea that War Admiral is a better runner than Seabiscuit. . . . Says that at the end of the first quarter of the match race he felt that the Admiral wasn't himself.

Hagen Plays in California; Norwegian Ski Champion Here Who circulated that report about Walter Hagen retiring? . . . He will play the winter tournament schedule in California. Reidar Andersen is in New York to try his skill in the ski jumping championships of this country and Canada. . . . The highest fame a Norwegian athlete can attain is to win it three times in a row. . . . The floating power of this remarkable athlete in the air was proved three years ago when he soared

John in the lead as always and I right behind, when about 300 yards in front of us and just on top of a little raise, a grizzly mother with two cubs showed up.

We had seen some fresh bear diggings after ground hogs so weren't so much surprised as when a mama bear. She raised on her hind legs to look us over and the cubs did likewise. She was an impressive sight, this mother bear, and she looked much larger than she really was. A grizzly always excites an Indian and John was no exception for he said: "get off quick for shot." I had no intention of trying to kill this mother with her six-month old cubs for they were too young to take care of themselves through the winter. Any way, before I could have shot, she started off up the mountain behind a butte and was lost to sight temporarily.

Refuses to Shoot John and I went after her as fast as our horses would run, the bear on one side of the butte and we on the other. We came out to the other end about the same time she had not over 75 or 80 yards apart. During the run I explained to John that I wouldn't try the shot as the cubs were too small and when his excitement was over John knew this to be my policy. But we both wanted a closer view of this little family. Well, mother and the child, ren gave us another exhibition. They all pounced up on their hind legs with me frantically trying to get my camera working for a long shot picture. I think the mother bear's speed was governed by her cubs. Of course she wouldn't leave them, and either they weren't badly scared or I didn't realize their speed. When they got to a steep place the mother, gut up first and when she did she again stood up and waited for the cubs. I think John was disappointed I didn't kill the old bear.

This family was so cute and mama was so worried that I did want a picture badly. The horse I was riding was pretty high strung and when he was close enough and when he got the scent of the cubs, he concluded he was close enough so I had to get off and make a run about if I wanted a picture.

Fail to Get Picture John came to the rescue, took the camera and tried to get close enough (but he didn't want to get too close) for the picture. By now the family had gained the top of

Next morning we were on our way early. After passing through quite a forest fire, which wasn't really dangerous but most distressing we camped at the edge of that most wonderful game section known as Caribou Mountain.

This really isn't a mountain but a rolling plateau above timber. This is the section where the caribou meet about the September for their annual mating and where, in the tongues of timber that find their way up the little draws and canyons, the moose gather for their tryst. It's a big country where you have a chance to see both grizzly and black bear, goats, moose, caribou, plenty of bird life in both kinds of ptarmigan, ground hogs, wolves and coyotes. Two trout streams, also have their source there. All in all it is Sportsman's Paradise.

I should guess the mountain (for it is so designated) would be approximately 20 miles north and south, and the same distance east and west. You can ride over the entire country or to such vantage points where it can be studied with your binoculars. There are occasional rough, steep places where you have to look for an opening to lead your horse.

The one animal not found is the ram and yet, on at least one occasion, I killed on the north end, about a four-year-old. The Indians told me then the never had known a ram to be on this mountain. Probably it was once whipped out during the rut from some other mountain.

Head for Cash Creek Instead of going to Camp Briggs (so named by the Indians) we swung off to the right and headed for Cash Creek.

It was now in the early part of September and caribou were appearing in small bands everywhere; that is small bulls, cows and calves. As yet the big bulls (which are desirable for trophies) were in the brush polishing up their horns for their good appearance and also for place. But these stags are not in the same class with the larger and more amorous and truculent moose. Those big fellows really give you something to watch when they stage a royal battle for the affection of their lady love.

We stopped at a pretty little spring for lunch and how the horses reveled in the lush green grass. We almost always spent about an hour for tea. It was about three hours yet to the place on Cash Creek we intended to make camp and we were going along,

John in the lead as always and I right behind, when about 300 yards in front of us and just on top of a little raise, a grizzly mother with two cubs showed up.

We had seen some fresh bear diggings after ground hogs so weren't so much surprised as when a mama bear. She raised on her hind legs to look us over and the cubs did likewise. She was an impressive sight, this mother bear, and she looked much larger than she really was. A grizzly always excites an Indian and John was no exception for he said: "get off quick for shot." I had no intention of trying to kill this mother with her six-month old cubs for they were too young to take care of themselves through the winter. Any way, before I could have shot, she started off up the mountain behind a butte and was lost to sight temporarily.

Refuses to Shoot John and I went after her as fast as our horses would run, the bear on one side of the butte and we on the other. We came out to the other end about the same time she had not over 75 or 80 yards apart. During the run I explained to John that I wouldn't try the shot as the cubs were too small and when his excitement was over John knew this to be my policy. But we both wanted a closer view of this little family. Well, mother and the child, ren gave us another exhibition. They all pounced up on their hind legs with me frantically trying to get my camera working for a long shot picture. I think the mother bear's speed was governed by her cubs. Of course she wouldn't leave them, and either they weren't badly scared or I didn't realize their speed. When they got to a steep place the mother, gut up first and when she did she again stood up and waited for the cubs. I think John was disappointed I didn't kill the old bear.

This family was so cute and mama was so worried that I did want a picture badly. The horse I was riding was pretty high strung and when he was close enough and when he got the scent of the cubs, he concluded he was close enough so I had to get off and make a run about if I wanted a picture.

Fail to Get Picture John came to the rescue, took the camera and tried to get close enough (but he didn't want to get too close) for the picture. By now the family had gained the top of

Next morning we were on our way early. After passing through quite a forest fire, which wasn't really dangerous but most distressing we camped at the edge of that most wonderful game section known as Caribou Mountain.

This really isn't a mountain but a rolling plateau above timber. This is the section where the caribou meet about the September for their annual mating and where, in the tongues of timber that find their way up the little draws and canyons, the moose gather for their tryst. It's a big country where you have a chance to see both grizzly and black bear, goats, moose, caribou, plenty of bird life in both kinds of ptarmigan, ground hogs, wolves and coyotes. Two trout streams, also have their source there. All in all it is Sportsman's Paradise.

I should guess the mountain (for it is so designated) would be approximately 20 miles north and south, and the same distance east and west. You can ride over the entire country or to such vantage points where it can be studied with your binoculars. There are occasional rough, steep places where you have to look for an opening to lead your horse.

The one animal not found is the ram and yet, on at least one occasion, I killed on the north end, about a four-year-old. The Indians told me then the never had known a ram to be on this mountain. Probably it was once whipped out during the rut from some other mountain.

HEELS LEVY HAS FAST WORKOUT

BY TOM GWYNNE (Register Track Correspondent)

Alfred G. Vanderbilt's Heffly, hitherto relegated to the ranks of the "classy cripples," today loomed as one of the "big horses" on Santa Anita's equine battlefield following a smashing mile trial yesterday, a prep for Monday's New Year Stakes. With Silvio Coucci in the saddle, Heffly worked in 1:39 1-5, handsily—easily the most impressive performance seen to date at the Arcadia horse park.

Trainer J. H. (Bud) Stotler, highly pleased after the workout, remarked: "Well, I guess he isn't a bad horse." This was his second "work" since coming to Santa Anita. He went three-quarters in 1:14 Saturday afternoon, and appeared to put a lot of work under his belt before bringing him west.

Rival trainers turned a searching gaze on Heffly and immediately pegged him as one of the toughest potential foes on the grounds.

Held Back By Illness Spinning the calendar back to last winter, the somewhat conservative L. H. Whitehill had Heffly in tow along with other members of the T. P. Morgan string. "He's right for the $100,000 handicap, Seabiscuit will have his hands full," declared Whitehill. Unfortunately, he wasn't right, and didn't go in the handicap. He developed an oslet and was later fired.

Jockey George Woolf, who rode Heffly in five winning races, including the Laurel Stakes which he dead-heated with Seabiscuit, ranks the 5-year-old as a real menace this season. Woolf's opinion is pretty accurate as he has ridden the best of them, including Seabiscuit.

Away from the races since October 1937, Heffly has had ample time to recover and he's now going as sound as the proverbial bell of brass.

Hooking him up with Ligarotti and Specfly in the mile and sixteenth New Year Stakes may be a difficult starting assignment, but at least, Heffly will be watched by every trainer on the grounds who has a Santa Anita Handicap hope.

Lonnie Copenhaver, the astute Western trainer who parlayed a band of cripples into a hard-hitting winning stable, and later hit the turf jackpot when he was signed on as one of the Louis B. Mayer trainers, is slightly warm under size 16 collar.

"I've heard nothing but roping horses since I've been here. You would think I was the first and only horseman who ever used a rope. And furthermore, that all the training I have ever done has been on the end of a rope."

The press has played up Copenhaver's rope, and the Eastern training brigade, which looks askance at roping horses, no doubt raked him over the conversational coals. The record discloses the significant fact, however, that he's made racing pay the hard way—footing his own bills. And he'll do alright for Mayer, if he gets the chance.

Incidentally, horses have been roped in England for a couple of hundred years, but they call it "lunging."

George Woolf and Johnny Adams have been signed to ride the crack Neil S. McCarthy entry of Morning Breeze and Dear Diary in the California Breeders' Champion Stakes Saturday. Raymond (Sonny) Workman will pilot Norman Church's Plucky Flight, and Silvio Coucci will have the leg up on John Cromwell's Valley Lass. This looks like the contention in the race, unless Playful Wink, stablemate of Plucky Flight, should happen to run to one of his good works and capture the pot.

HERE AND THERE: The complete list of horses for the graded handicaps is now out, and the bulging Class "D" list looks like a scrambled up affair. . . . Grading horses is a tough and thankless task, and many observers believe that Grade "D" is too low on the thoroughbred scale to make accurate classifications. . . . Adventure, full brother to Discovery, tips the beam at 1200 pounds. . . . Raymond Adams has been leased to the C. C. Rash stable by the Roseade outfit. . . . Flying Breeze is sharp enough to take wings first out. . . . Isaroma, Tony Pelletier's good 3-year-old which holds two decisions over Lawrin and is unbeaten, is ready for his comeback in about two weeks.

ARM STILL STRONG Harry Lejeune, who once threw a baseball 456 feet 9 1/2 inches for a world record, is a waiter in a Grand Rapids restaurant.

COMPLETE WINDOW and HOUSE CLEANING Floors Cleaned, Waxed and Polished. First Class Janitor Service. Best References.

CITY WINDOW CLEANERS Phone 5633, Santa Ana

'ODDS ON S. C. UNJUSTIFIED' COACH'S VIEW

By HENRY McLEMORE (United Press Staff Correspondent)

LOS ANGELES.—Coach Howard Jones is a very busy man these days.

Even the bees envy his industry as he readies his Southern California football team for the Rose Bowl game with Duke.

His hours are filled with the devising of new plays, the perfecting of old ones, blackboard talks, skull practices, praise here, blame there, long talks on the field, and conferences with his many assistants. Add to this the hundreds of requests for tickets he must be getting, and you have a man whose leisure is as limited as Mrs. Roosevelt's.

Yet, there is one man that Howard Jones will take time off to see and talk with—and that man is any man who can give him a sane and sensible reason why Southern California should be a 2 to 5 favorite over Duke, or why certain Los Angeles natives are going about betting on Southern California and giving from 10 to 14 points.

"I don't know who established such odds, but I know one thing—they weren't started by any man, woman, or child who knows much about football. Anyone who knows football knows that our team and Duke should be rated even. I see the game as one between two strong clubs, with neither side deserving the favorite's position."

Admits Trojans Strong Jones made it clear that he was not belittling his team when he said it should not be given preference over Duke in the mind of the public. He likes his team, thinks it is one of the strongest he ever coached, with speed, power, brains, and reserve strength. He admits that it is in top shape, too.

However, he says he has no reason to believe that the Duke team isn't one of the best Wallace Wade ever coached, with all the essentials of a great eleven.

"I haven't seen the Duke team except in the newsreels," Jones said as we swirled through a revolving door enroute toward another appointment. "Just the regular newsreels, not the entire pictures of the games. But I have been coaching long enough to know that a team doesn't go through a major schedule undefeated, untied, and unscored on just because it's lucky. Luck will win for you once in a while, but not through a whole season."

FINANCIAL MARKET NEWS

New York Stocks—Citrus Prices By Sizes

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—(UP)—Stocks advanced fractions to more than two points today in volume that approached the 2,000,000-share mark. Bonds had their most active day of the year with prices mixed, while citrus prices were the most active in more than two months with prices higher.

The selling dried up and when pressure relaxed the stock market moved up easily. All sections participated with variations again leaders. Steels advanced on point or more. Bids for small amounts and moderate gains were noted in motors and coppers. Demand was noted for some building issues. Several issues made new highs.

Furnished by Wm. C. Cawley & Co., Members New York Stock Exchange, 516 N. Main St., Santa Ana, Ph. 600

High	Low	Close
Air Reduction	64 1/2	64 1/2
Alcoa	18 1/2	18 1/2
Aluminum	18 1/2	18 1/2
Am. Can.	46 1/2	46 1/2
Am. Locomotive	29 1/2	29 1/2
Am. Pwr. & Light	5 1/2	5 1/2
Am. Rad. & Elec.	17 1/2	17 1/2
Am. Steel	20 1/2	20 1/2
Am. Steel & Ref.	20 1/2	20 1/2
Am. Steel Fdy.	39 1/2	39 1/2
Am. Tel. & Tel.	145 1/2	145 1/2
Am. Tobacco	87 1/2	87 1/2
Anaconda Copper	34 1/2	34 1/2
Armour of Ill.	4 1/2	4 1/2
Armstrong	4 1/2	4 1/2
Atchafalpa	40 1/2	40 1/2
Atlantic Ref.	22 1/2	22 1/2
Aviation Corp.	7 1/2	7 1/2

High	Low	Close
Baltimore & Ohio	7 1/2	7 1/2
Barnard	15 1/2	15 1/2
Bendix Aviation	29 1/2	29 1/2
Bethlehem Steel	7 1/2	7 1/2
Borden Co.	16 1/2	16 1/2
Borg Warner	31 1/2	31 1/2
Briggs	30 1/2	30 1/2
Budd Mfg.	6 1/2	6 1/2

High	Low	Close
Case	88 1/2	88 1/2
Caterpillar Tractor	44 1/2	44 1/2
Cerro de Pasco	47 1/2	47 1/2
Chesapeake & Ohio	35 1/2	35 1/2
Columbia Gas	6 1/2	6 1/2
Common Solvents	10 1/2	10 1/2
Celanese	22 1/2	22 1/2
Comm. & So.	1 1/2	1 1/2
Cons. Oil	20 1/2	20 1/2
Cons. Ed. of N. Y.	23 1/2	23 1/2
Cons. Oil	8 1/2	8 1/2
Continental Bk. A.	19 1/2	19 1/2
Curtis-Wright	7 1/2	7 1/2

High	Low	Close
Deere	19 1/2	19 1/2
Dist. Corp. Seagram	20 1/2	20 1/2
Douglas Aircraft	77 1/2	77 1/2
Dupont	150 1/2	150 1/2

High	Low	Close
Eastman Kodak	180 1/2	180 1/2
Elect. Auto. Lte.	33 1/2	33 1/2
Freeport Sulphur	29 1/2	29 1/2

High	Low	Close
Gen. Elec.	42 1/2	42 1/2
Gen. Foods	37 1/2	37 1/2
Gen. Motors	49 1/2	49 1/2
Golden Afloat	24 1/2	24 1/2
Goodrich	24 1/2	24 1/2
Grain Processing	23 1/2	23 1/2
Gr. N. Pac.	23 1/2	23 1/2
Gr. Western Sugar	25 1/2	25 1/2

High	Low	Close
Hecker Prods.	10 1/2	10 1/2
Hiram Walker	50 1/2	50 1/2
Holly Sugar	12 1/2	12 1/2
Hudson Motors	7 1/2	7 1/2

High	Low	Close
Illinois Central	20 1/2	20 1/2
Int. Harvester	57 1/2	57 1/2
Int. Nickel	55 1/2	55 1/2
Int. Tel. & Tel.	8 1/2	8 1/2

High	Low	Close
Johns. Manville	102 1/2	102 1/2
Kennecott Copper	41 1/2	41 1/2
Kroger Grocery	19 1/2	19 1/2

High	Low	Close
Libbey Owens Ford	52 1/2	52 1/2
Loew's Inc.	52 1/2	52 1/2
Long Bell Lbr.	3 1/2	3 1/2

High	Low	Close
Mack Truck	27 1/2	27 1/2
Marine Corp.	33 1/2	33 1/2
McIntire Porcupine	51 1/2	51 1/2
Montgomery Ward	50 1/2	50 1/2

High	Low	Close
Nash-Kelvinator	8 1/2	8 1/2
Nat. Cash Register	24 1/2	24 1/2
Nat. Dairy Prod.	12 1/2	12 1/2
Nat. Biscuit	23 1/2	23 1/2
N. Y. Central	20 1/2	20 1/2
Nor. Am. Co.	21 1/2	21 1/2
Nor. Am. Aviation	18 1/2	18 1/2
Nor. Pacific	12 1/2	12 1/2
Nat. Pwr. & Light	7 1/2	7 1/2

High	Low	Close
Pac. Gas & Elec.	28 1/2	28 1/2
Pac. Lighting	42 1/2	42 1/2
Park Unit	4 1/2	4 1/2
Penn. P. C.	76 1/2	76 1/2
Phillips Dodge	42 1/2	42 1/2
Phillips Pet.	21 1/2	21 1/2
Pennsylvania Rail	21 1/2	21 1/2
Porter Bakeries	12 1/2	12 1/2

High	Low	Close
Radio Corp.	7 1/2	7 1/2
Remington Rand	16 1/2	16 1/2
Rep. Motors	1 1/2	1 1/2
Rep. Steel	24 1/2	24 1/2
Union Carbide	8 1/2	8 1/2

High	Low	Close
Safeway Stores	26 1/2	26 1/2
Sears Roebuck	73 1/2	73 1/2
Simmons	31 1/2	31 1/2
Southern Pac.	12 1/2	12 1/2
So. Cal. Edison	22 1/2	22 1/2
So. Pacific	18 1/2	18 1/2
So. Bell	21 1/2	21 1/2
Stand. Oil	6 1/2	6 1/2
Stand. Oil Cal.	27 1/2	27 1/2
Stand. Oil N. J.	51 1/2	51 1/2
Stewart-Warner	10 1/2	10 1/2
Studebaker	7 1/2	7 1/2
Swift & Co.	17 1/2	17 1/2

High	Low	Close
Texaco Corp.	46 1/2	46 1/2
Union Carbide	8 1/2	8 1/2
Union Pacific	92 1/2	92 1/2
United Aircraft	42 1/2	42 1/2
United Corp.	2 1/2	2 1/2
U. S. Gypsum	10 1/2	10 1/2
U. S. Rubber	52 1/2	52 1/2
U. S. Steel	67 1/2	67 1/2
U. S. Steel	67 1/2	67 1/2

High	Low	Close
Vanadium	27 1/2	27 1/2
Warner Bros.	5 1/2	5 1/2
Western Union	22 1/2	22 1/2
Westinghouse	118 1/2	118 1/2
White Motors	12 1/2	12 1/2
Woolworth	49 1/2	49 1/2

High	Low	Close
Yellow Truck	18 1/2	18 1/2
Approximate Averages
Industrials—151.48, up 1.05
Rails—32.05, up .50
Volume—2,160,000 shares.

High	Low	Close
Statistics Indexes
Copyright 1938
1926 Average Equals 100
STOCKS
Inds. Ralls Util. Stocks
Yesterday	125.2	125.2
Week Ago	125.0	125.0
Month Ago	122.7	122.7
Year Ago	122.9	122.9
1938 High	132.1	132.1
1938 Low	105.6	105.6
BONDS
Inds. Ralls Util. Bonds
Yesterday	105.8	105.8
Week Ago	105.8	105.8
Month Ago	105.8	105.8
Year Ago	105.8	105.8
1938 High	107.2	107.2
1938 Low	104.9	104.9

High	Low	Close
HOME LOANS
FIRST FEDERAL Savings & Loan Assn.
OF SANTA ANA
5th and Spurgeon

WARNS AGAINST BORDER WALLS

A warning against the increasing trend toward border barriers at state lines was sounded by Thomas H. MacDonald, Chief, U. S. Bureau of Public Roads, in addressing the recent annual convention of the American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators.

"There surely will be general agreement with the statement that there has been a too rapid drift toward unsound insulating restrictions in the legislation of individual states," Chief MacDonald said.

"Many of these have to do with the motor vehicle and its use although by no means wholly confined to it. Nationally it is an alarming trend. The greatness of this country and in a high degree, our standards of living and opportunities are primarily due to the free flow of people and commodities across state lines.

"Let anyone who questions this statement spend sufficient time in Europe to get the full impact of the universal border restrictions and impositions. Even the food that comes to the table reflects these limitations. Hate across the border is one of the most frightful enemies of national and international peace and prosperity."

WILLIS OVERLAND SALES INCREASE

TOLEDO, Ohio, Dec. 28.—Sales of Willis-Overland passenger cars and trucks for the first ten day sales period of December were in excess of total sales for the entire month of December, 1937, according to W. C. Cowling, Vice-President.

Production at the Toledo plant is close to capacity and the assembly plant at Los Angeles, California is in full operation to take care of the sales in the Pacific Coast areas.

Expansion of distributor and dealer sales outlets is continuing at a steadily increasing rate with the present distributor structure reporting active retail dealer interest in the new Overland which was introduced by the company in November.

Active retail sales were reported from all parts of the country where dealers had cars, according to Mr. Cowling.

Orders for export shipment are keeping pace with domestic orders with current distributor representation in the export field covering 68 countries.

CLAYTON NAMED AS MERCURY SALESMAN

Dorsey Clayton, long identified with the automobile fraternity of Orange county, has been appointed salesman in charge of Mercury Eight for George Dunton, local Ford, Lincoln and Mercury dealer.

The announcement of Clayton's appointment was made here today by R. R. McDonald, general sales manager of the Dunton agency.

"Clayton's ability in automotive sales work has long been recognized," McDonald said today, "and it was that ability that prompted us to select him to introduce the Mercury Eight, the most recent addition to the Ford motor family."

Great Circle Tour Fine Holiday Trip

Magic carpet motoring just about describes the indelible impression gained from an automobile adventure on the Great Circle Tour in Southern California.

Combining vivid desert distances, pine-crested mountains with a seasonal touch of snow at this season, and the dashing white-capped surf of miles of Pacific shoreline, the sightseeing outing by way of Palm Springs, Imperial Valley, San Diego and return to Los Angeles veritably leads "around the world."

With the various short side trips a traveler may care to make, the circle expedition will encompass about 550 miles in total distance on the average, according to the touring bureau of the Automobile Club of Southern California. This permits a leisurely, most enjoyable tour within a week-end or better still, over a three-day period, or longer as time allows.

Motor Mileage Follows Income

The greater your income the farther you drive each year.

This was the finding of a special federal survey, according to a report received by the Automobile Club of Southern California from the Department of Agriculture.

Cars owned by city families in the $250-500 annual income group were driven an average of 2024 miles a year, while those owned by families in the highest income group studied, from $500 to $10,000 were driven an average of 10,680 miles a year.

"In the villages, the lowest income group drive their cars an average of 1630 miles annually and the highest, 11,389 miles. On the farms, families earning from practically nothing to $250 annually drove their cars an average of 2011 miles for the twelve-month period, while the wealthiest of the rural dwellers drove an average of 5476 miles.

Most Eskimos do not swim, although they spend most of their lives near the water,

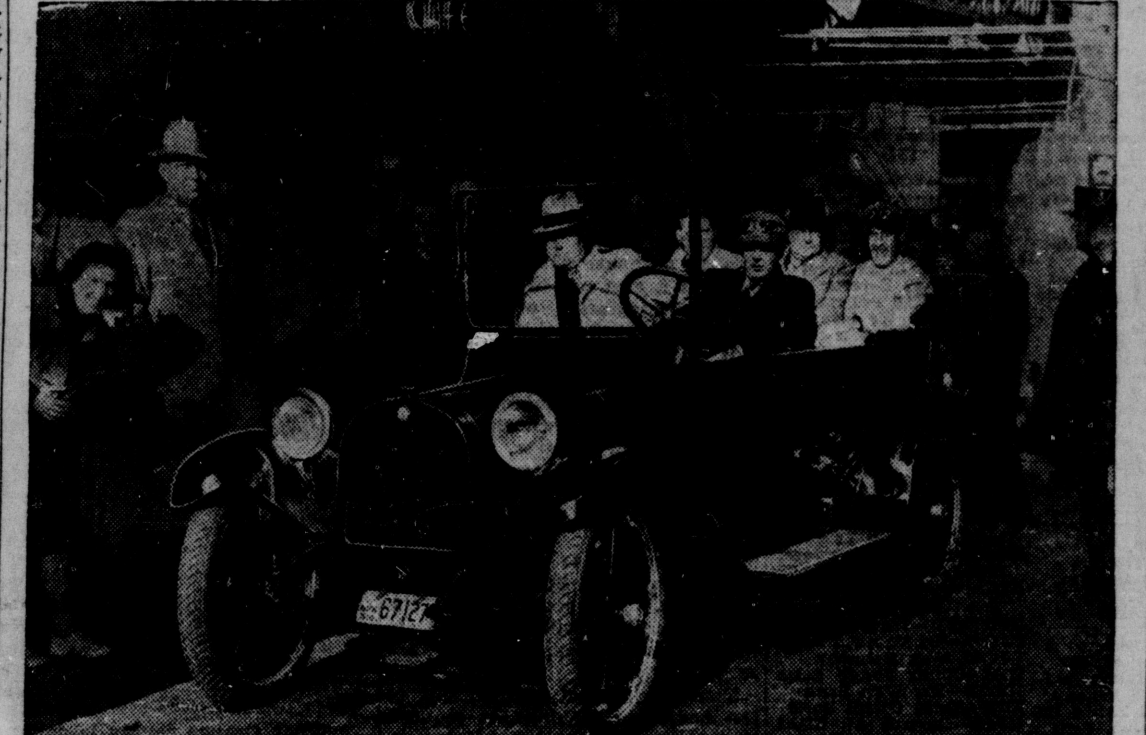

AUTOMOTIVE NEWS

New Center Road Divider Shown Here

The first installation of its kind in the world, the new center road divider on Ramona Boulevard in Los Angeles attracts the attention of Miss Vivian Coe, shown beside a new Dodge luxury liner sedan. Officer Carl W. Heisterman points out the blinker lights that have been installed at 100-foot intervals on the spring steel rail to safeguard night traffic. Nearly a mile in length, the new highway divider requires less room than the two ordinary white line road-markers.

Ancient Auto Shows Its Mettle

With an efficiency undiminished by the quarter century that passed since it went into service, the Dodge touring car seen above recently brought a tonneau load of Detroit automobile executives to the New York automobile show. The car, built on the day the Dodge company began the manufacture of automobiles twenty-five years ago, made the run by way of celebrating its maker's Silver Anniversary. The duster-clad gentleman at the right of the driver is Forest H. Akers, Dodge vice-president and director of sales. In the left rear seat is Cliff Bishop of Brooklyn who became a Dodge dealer twenty-five years ago. In the center is E. J. Poag, assistant general sales manager of Dodge, and flanking Poag is Henry M. Kowall, manager of the New York region of the Dodge organization.

EARLY DARKNESS IS MOTORING HAZARD

any part of the main bright portion of the beam strikes an object higher than the lamp centers 25 feet or more ahead of the vehicle. In no event shall the main bright portion be higher than 42 inches at a distance of 75 feet ahead of the vehicle.

The Metropolitan Museum of New York has a small but precious collection of gloves dating back as far as the Elizabethan period in England. Made of soft leather, they are elaborately embroidered with designs, heraldic emblems, and miniature pictures.

Accent on Allure

Glaring headlights are prohibited. A practical test to determine when headlights or auxiliary driving or fog lamps are glaring, according to the Vehicle Code, is as follows: A lamp is deemed to be glaring if

HAVE you seen the new Buick?

HAVE YOU seen the new Buick?

HAVE you SEEN the new Buick?

HAVE you seen THE new Buick?

HAVE you seen the NEW Buick?

HAVE you seen the new BUICK?

W. R. GORDON

Your Buick Dealer
Fifth and Spurgeon — Santa Ana — Phone 258

BUICK HAS NEW GEAR SELECTOR

During the process of developing the improved operating controls that feature the 1939 Buick cars, Buick engineers devised the Handi-shift gear control which is one of the most appreciated features of the new line, according to W. R. (Stormy) Gordon, local Buick dealer.

In keeping with the smart streamline styling of the new Buicks, the front compartment of the car has been made more comfortable by the elimination of the now obsolete "wobble stick" for shifting gears.

Gear shifting now is accomplished by convenient movement of a new gear shift lever which is mounted under the steering wheel within easy reach of the right hand. The action of shifting gears is essentially the same as with the conventional gearshift so that there is nothing new to learn, save for the appreciation of a new ease and feeling of safety.

Lever On Steering Column

The gear shift lever which extends out from the steering column, is connected to a small diameter shaft running parallel to the steering column down to the underside of the toe-board where it operates an appropriate linkage affording positive but effortless gear selection.

The Series 40 transmission now is a more compact unit of unusual capacity and endurance. It embodies a completely new shifting mechanism that is much more effective and easier to operate than in the average synchro-mesh transmission. This has been done in order to make the action of gear selection effortless to a degree hitherto unapproached in motor car practice.

Better Alignment

By virtue of long development preceding its introduction on 1939 Series 40 Buicks, the new transmission is smaller in size and lighter in weight than the previous design. All this has been accomplished without changing the size of the gears in any way. Consequently, the new transmission has gears of the same diameter and same tooth sizes as before, assuring its ability to transmit the tremendous torque of the Buick engine.

Being shorter, the transmission is more rigid than before, thus providing better alignment, and assuring less wear and longer life. The mainshaft is pivoted in larger caseless bearings while the counter and reverse gear bushings have been given longer life through improved lubrication.

Those who appreciate the higher speed and acceleration, sometimes desirable when accelerating in low gear in heavy traffic, will be pleased under these conditions due to a change in gear ratios in first and reverse gears.

Redesign of the Series 40, 89 and 90 Buick transmission also involved changes necessary to the application of the new Handi-shift transmission.

N. Y. Drivers Must Know Reading

Driver's licenses were refused 3664 applicants in New York the first quarter of this year because of their inability to read English. Inaugurated two years ago, the English test has barred an increasing number of would-be drivers who otherwise might have been involved in accidents through inability to understand directional and warning signs, says a report reaching the Automobile Club of Southern California.

Ponce de Leon discovered Florida on March 27, 1513.

You may be liable if someone is hurt on your property. A nominal premium will protect you.

ROBBINS-HENDERSON INSURANCE
107 W. 5th Phone 127

PAY $92 LESS this year and get a finer

PONTIAC

Profit by one of the industry's biggest price reductions and enjoy Pontiac's Newest Ride, amazing performance and record economy for a difference of only 12c a day compared to the next lower-priced cars.

NOW ONLY $738*

*Delivered at Pontiac, Michigan. Prices subject to change without notice. Transportation, state and local taxes (if any), optional equipment and accessories—extra.

AND UP

BARTELSON PONTIAC CO.
Fifth and Spurgeon Santa Ana

RESTORE PROSPERITY

Santa Ana Register

And The Santa Ana Daily Journal

CLASSIFIED MARKETS

SECTION TWO

SANTA ANA, CALIFORNIA, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1938

PAGES NINE TO FOURTEEN

Jimmie Fidler in Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, December 28.—After twenty-odd years of sneering, Hollywood is at last turning to great literature for its story ideas. "Radio-Radio," with "Gunga Din" already completed, plans to produce "Ivanhoe," "Don Quixote," "The Pathfinders," and "The Deerslayer." United Artists, currently filming "Wuthering Heights," is discussing the production of a whole series of classics—including "Black Beauty," "Pickwick Papers," "Silas Marner," "Richard the Third," and "Lorna Doone." Paramount will film "The Light That Failed," and at least two of Sir James M. Barrie's immortals. Twentieth Century-Fox has acquired screen rights to "Old Curiosity Shop," and M-G-M, which has experimented in the past with such pictures as "David Copperfield," "Romeo and Juliet," and "Tale of Two Cities," has half of the huge writing staff busy adapting great literature to the screen. The reason for the new cycle lies, of course, in the fact that every classic filmed to date has "packed them in" at the box office. John and Jane Public have welcomed such film fare with greedy enthusiasm and demanded more. And right there is where I pause for a chuckle. These same producers who are now scrambling for screen rights to the literary masterpieces are the same gentlemen who have argued for years that the average theater-goer has the mentality of a 12-year-old child and that pictures must be kept on a level with their intelligence. It looks now as though the twelve-year-old mentalities were right here in Hollywood, all the time.

IDOL CHATTER: Andy Devine's scratchy voice is sweet music after listening to the broad "A's" of the English brigade. The one "must see item" on Jane Withers' list when she made that Santa Francisco trip was Alcatraz—she's a murder mystery addict. Nancy Kelly's star-travel is Nelson Eddy. June Lang and her mother are a Hollywood parody on the Siamese twins—inseparables. Wonder why some smart promoter doesn't stage a bout between those two fistfuffers, Errol Flynn and Rudy Vallee. Bonita Granville's appealing screen smile is becoming a not-so-appealing off-screen fixture. In spite of her sophistication, Virginia Bruce always reminds me of a Dresden china dairy maid. I've heard people criticize Warner Baxter as an actor—but I've never heard him criticized as a person. Look alike: Marie Wilson—in a high hair do—and Madeleine Carroll. Patrick Knowles looks like the strawberry festival. Danielle Darrieux says she does not want audience to love her "for her body alone." Today's friendly tip: if those Ritz zannies ever invite you to one of their parties, take out an accident policy before you go. I don't know George Brent's opinion of dogs—but the isolation of his desert hideout is an indication of his opinion about people. This year's champion viewer-with-alarm: Hugh Herbert. Odd that Greta Garbo, Joan Crawford, and Luise Rainer—rated Hollywood's three unhappiest women—should all be under contract to the same studio. Congratulations to Lew Ayres—29 years old today.

The hottest night spots in town these days is the Grace Hayes Lodge. All the screen celebrities are habitués—and, looking the place over, you'd probably wonder why they've selected it as their favorite hang-out, for it's much like any other dine-and-dance place. The secret is a point in psychology. Every night Grace Hayes invites each celebrity present to get up on the stage and perform. And do they love it!

TEN YEARS AGO THIS WINTER: Al Jolson's "The Singing Fool" was breaking all house records... John Gilbert's romance with Greta Garbo had the local gossip adith... Mrs. Tom Mix was trying to obtain a Paris divorce... The newest foreign importation was Lili Damita... Hollywood's "happiest couple," Doug Fairbanks and Mary Pickford, floored the local socialites by having lunch in the White House with "Silent Cal"... Evelyn Brent broke with Gary Cooper and married Harry Edwards on the rebound...

I haven't much patience with "big name" authors who come to Hollywood, loot the industry for all they can, and then go away to sneer. But here's a story that would make any reputable writer tear his hair. As it was told to me, Louis Brom-

New Water Assessment Ordinance Enacted

ALL YEAR USE OF SEALS TOLD

A New Year's resolution considered by anti-tuberculosis forces to be of first importance to all Orange County residents was suggested today by A. J. Cruickshank, treasurer of the Orange County Tuberculosis and Health association. Cruickshank also is treasurer of the state tuberculosis association.

The suggested resolution reads: "I hereby resolve to look up the Christmas Seals sent me at Thanksgiving time by the Orange County Tuberculosis and Health association and pay for them immediately."

Second Resolution
In an open letter, Cruickshank said he also would suggest a second resolution for those who did not receive Christmas Seals through the mails: "We hereby resolve to look up the Orange County Tuberculosis and Health association at 112 West Fifth street, Santa Ana, and buy Christmas Seals for use throughout the year to help protect the homes of my community from tuberculosis."

"Christmas Seals, although planned for use on holiday mail, may advantageously also be used during the year," he explained. "Such use helps spread the knowledge that tuberculosis is preventable, and that it is now being fought through organized control programs of tuberculosis associations. The 1938 Seal Sale has met with gratifying success thus far, but every possible cent is needed to finance the continuance of vital local programs."

Many who received sheets of Christmas Seals may have mislaid or forgotten them, Cruickshank reminded. He added that every sheet must be accounted for before anti-tuberculosis campaign for the coming year may be made up.

"All who can afford to contribute to this work—and nobody can afford not to contribute—are urged to do so at once," Cruickshank concluded.

Twice Granted Probation, Man Then Draws Term
Having twice violated the probation granted him last January, in connection with a check charge, Homer T. Garcia, 24, lost it yesterday in Superior Judge James L. Allen's court, where probation was revoked and he was sentenced to one year in the county jail.

Garcia, who had purchased a used car in Los Angeles December 31, 1937, issued a bogus check in payment, and then traded the car in on another at Fullerton, was apprehended in Yuma and received probation here last January 7. Constable George Acuna of Needles where Garcia had been employed at the time he got into trouble, was made his sponsor.

Two weeks later, Acuna wired officials here that he had arrested Garcia on a burglary charge. Garcia got out of that difficulty, but in November he was arrested on a check charge at San Bernardino.

At that, Judge Allen decided it was time to revoke probation and give Garcia his punishment.

Orders Jaysee Pictures Taken
Ciara Westermann, sophomore editor Del Ano, Santa Ana Jaysee yearbook, today reminded all February sophomore class graduates that they must arrange with Rabe studios to have their pictures taken immediately following vacation.

With the college year approximately half over, work on Del Ano is progressing rapidly and is at present ahead of schedule, Carroll Richardson, editor, stated. Lay-out work and business transactions are practically complete, he said.

WILEY OF 'FOOT-RACE FAME' SQUARES SELF WITH LAW HERE

E. V. Wiley, 28, whose extradition from Nevada to Santa Ana on a charge of child abandonment was climaxed by a footrace to the state line between local officers and Nevada authorities, today had squared accounts with the law in California and was headed home to Carson City, Nevada, to build up a riding stable he has started there.

In Superior Judge G. K. Seovel's court yesterday, Wiley posted $200 bond to guarantee payment of $20 per month toward support of his two children in Santa Ana. He was then free to go his way.

Outwit Four Attorneys
Deputy District Attorney Bob Gardner and Deputy Sheriff Steve Duhat extradited Wiley from Carson City a few days ago, outwitting and outmaneuvering Wiley's four attorneys and the Nevada sheriff, who tried to halt them with a writ of habeas corpus, after the Nevada governor had issued the extradition warrant.

Margin of 20 Feet
The local officials, with their prisoner, dodged out the back door of their hotel and into a taxicab as the lawyers and sheriff came in the front door with the writ.

They escaped by a margin of 20 feet, which is as close as the sheriff came to serving the writ that would have halted them.

Hitler Approve?
The local officials, with their prisoner, dodged out the back door of their hotel and into a taxicab as the lawyers and sheriff came in the front door with the writ.

R. R. SITUATION REVIEW GIVEN
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 28.—(Special)—Increase of railroad traffic is anticipated in 1939, but this larger volume of business will not be sufficient to assure against major financial breakdowns in the railroad industry unless it is accomplished by public action to enable the roads to cope with new and changed conditions.

This statement was made here today by A. D. McDonald, President, Southern Pacific Company, in a year-end review.

Face Critical Times
"Despite continuation in 1938 of the improvements in operating efficiency and service to the public that has marked recent years, as a New Era in railroading, the American railroads face the most critical financial situation in their history as the year 1939 opens," McDonald said.

"The situation is characterized by increased costs in every phase of operation and by greatly increased competition, while income has decreased and the degree of managerial freedom to meet the new conditions remains largely that of the long-past era when railroads had virtually a monopoly on land transportation in this country. The most encouraging phase of the railroad outlook is that the country now shows a definite disposition to take the remedial action, realizing there can be no permanent prosperity until the fundamental transportation problem is solved."

"No other industry in America has a better record for progressive endeavor in this decade of economic depression, a decade in which a New Era of railroading was actually launched."

Gains More Speed
"Typical of the New Era has been the speeding up of rail transportation to make possible today's fastest tempo of business. For example, on Southern Pacific Lines the average speed of freight trains has increased more than 25 per cent during the last decade."

"Basically the inequities of our transportation policy as between highways, waterways, airways, on the one hand, and railways on the other must be removed. Greater freedom must be given the rail carriers to price their products and generally to maintain themselves as independent going business concerns, with the government taking only such regulatory action as may be necessary to prevent discrimination and to safeguard the public interest."

The "great Swallow," a fish which lives in the mid-Atlantic at great depths, can swallow other fish larger than itself.

Funds received from the campaign will be used for the Jaysee scholarship funds, Miss Lella B. Watson, club advisor revealed. A conservative goal of $100 has been set, Miss Watson added.

Last year's penny drive collected more than $140, with honors going to the Spinsters' club for the largest donation. The organization contributing the most money to the cause will be rewarded with a prize, club officials said.

Special Excursion Fares To PASADENA
AND RETURN ON ACCOUNT OF TOURNAMENT OF ROSES
AND U. S. C. vs. DUKE UNIV. FOOTBALL GAME
Motor Transit service will leave Santa Ana at 6:30 A. M. Monday, January 2nd, for Pasadena.
Make reservations for transportation early to secure best location for viewing the parade. Special cars return directly after the parade.
Tickets also good going and returning on any regular schedule. Return limit three days from date of sale.
SANTA ANA STATION, 426 East Fourth Street
Telephone 925—H. G. Hammond, Agent
MOTOR TRANSIT LINES
H. O. MARLER, Traffic Manager, LOS ANGELES

PLANS $25,000 S.A. APARTMENT

If the action started by city council yesterday is materialized, the southeast corner of North Broadway and Santa Clara avenue soon will have a $25,000 improvement.

That was the report made at the special council session in the afternoon. Dr. Harvey C. Maxwell, eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, 1112 North Main, petitioned council to change the zone from single family residence area to apartment area.

Call For Hearing
He declared he wished to construct single, double and triple apartments on the location.

The city planning commission recommended that notices of Dr. Maxwell's wish be posted and a public hearing be held at the next regular meeting of council, January 3 at 7:30 p. m. Council approved the recommendation and will hear anyone who wishes, to enter an objection.

BEER LICENSE PROTEST FILED

More than 100 Garden Grove residents yesterday asked the county supervisors to represent them in protesting application for a liquor license in that vicinity, as the board received notice from the State Board of Equalization that the Costa Mesa American Legion post had been denied its application for a beer license in Legion hall there.

The Garden Grove residents signed petitions to the supervisors, asking the board to represent them in protesting to the state board the application of Clyde Rees for a liquor license at Bill's place, 1132 Garden Grove boulevard. On motion of Supervisor John Mitchell, the board voted to file the protest on behalf of the citizens.

Behalf of Protestants
Remembering its experience in the Costa Mesa case, the supervisors were careful to frame their protest on behalf of the Garden Grove citizens rather than themselves. They had filed a protest with the state board against the Costa Mesa Legion license, when requested by Costa Mesa citizens, later discovering that the resolution was considered as coming from the supervisors themselves.

The notice received from the state board in fact referred to the supervisors as protesters. It stated that at a hearing December 15 the Legion application was denied.

PLAN DANCE PROGRAM
Pupils of the Vera Getty dance studio will present a program of dances and musical entertainment at the regular meeting of the Santa Ana Breakfast club at 7:30 a. m. tomorrow at the Main cafeteria. This was the announcement of Dr. Charles V. Doty who will serve as program chairman for the meeting. Hale T. Barker will preside.

Books published before 1870 no longer are protected by copyrights, speak for itself.

She's Model Deb Of Manhattan

Fashion model Wilma Baard met all the best people at her Christmas "debut", arranged by a cynical set of New York playboys. Photo shows Wilma—daughter of a large captain—on the arm of a real Count, Rudolph Maximilian Montgelas (extreme right) as she shook hands with opera star Gladys Swarthout.

QUAINT NOTICE SAYS MESA IRKED OVER 'WITE-ELLYFUNT'

Described as reminiscent of the vernacular used by the uneducated "colored folks" of the Deep South in Civil war days, a special "notice" was received in The Register's mail today from an unidentified Costa Mesa resident.

The notice read as follows: 'BEENETHRUSHERS KNOWDIS
"Goan gitcher 'longlost' Juger-gnawt No. 7 Red Beene Hallin Waggin 'nowon' exhibit Coastla Maysa Center'sparkinspott frum Halo-wien date. "Sorrybutt" natifs gettin tarred viuin a "missplained ornamnt" witch is "wite-ellyfunt" on ther ands. Also yore pro-putty gittin deetery-rotted in this wea-ther."

"Shined but not deetecteded, "Shanty Ana Halo-weaned Munkeshiners.

"N.B.—'Reely, Jedge, wee dideen doll.' (OH 'YEAH?")

Did you get it? Well neither did a few of the scribes, but investigation and inquiry revealed that someone in Costa Mesa is irked by the fact that a wagon was abandoned there last Halloween and has never been called for by the owner.

In other words, the notice probably should read: "Bean Threshers Notice.
"Go and get your long lost wagon, which now is on exhibit in the Costa Mesa center parking lot, and has been there since last Halloween. Sorry, but the natives are getting tired of viewing a misplaced ornament, which is a white elephant on their hands. Also your property is deteriorating in harsh weather. This note is 'signed' but its writer still undetected, and better known as 'Santa Ana Halloween Monkey-shiners.'" The "N.B." appears to speak for itself.

CITY ACTS TO REVISE RATES

In special session yesterday afternoon, city council enacted a new water assessment ordinance, making obsolete a previous water assessment ordinance and assessments.

The first revision of the water assessments was made to raise $50,000, to apply on replacement of damaged outfall sewer line on Section 1 of the joint outfall sewer. The new ordinance was adopted yesterday a request of many local citizens who protested when they first received their water bills after the previous ordinance became effective.

Over Longer Period
The new ordinance, effective January 1, 1939, lowers the water assessments considerably, particularly for those who use large quantities of water commercially. However, it makes the effectiveness of the ordinance one year instead of a lesser period as originally planned, so that the necessary $50,000 still can be raised, and yet lower individual bills as compared to those under the initial revision.

Rates Are Compared
Under the original revision, for the first 1000 cubic feet of water used there was a $1.25 minimum plus a charge of five cents for each 100 cubic feet used, or 11.75; the new ordinance abandons the five-cent charge.

Under the old ordinance the next 3000 cubic feet or less was to cost 15 cents; the present ordinance charges 14 cents; for the next 21,000 cubic feet or less, the old rate for all over 25,000 was 12 cents as against eight cents for the corresponding use under the new.

Service Program Is Outlined For S. A. Rotary Club

To be more thoughtful of others, to be more tolerant, and to render a little more service in the coming year were the resolutions prescribed for the Santa Ana Rotary club by John McCoy, immediate past president of the organization, at the final meeting of the year yesterday at the Masonic temple.

In a musical program presented by Daniel Stover, club pianist, Miss Marjorie Keeler played two violin solos, Harvey Brubaker, of El Monte, sang Scotch songs in dialect as he appeared in Scotch costume and Bob Noble, Santa Ana Junior college student, presented a clarinet solo.

President William Stauffer was in charge of the meeting and announced that members of the Anaheim Rotary club will meet with the Santa Ana organization next week. The Anaheim club regularly meets on Monday.

COME TO OUR BIG

PRE-INVENTORY

Sale

STARTS TOMORROW

HERE'S GOOD NEWS FOR VALUE SHOPPERS!

We believe in doing things RIGHT! So we stage this big sale—giving you REAL VALUES NOW while you have lots of time to select them! Everything from regular stock—all such knockout values they'll send you home singing our praises—rejoicing in your savings on

CHINAWARE

GLASSWARE

HOUSEWARES

GIFTS

LAMPS

TOYS

WIESSEMAN'S

Santa Ana Main at Fifth

WE WELCOME YOUR CHARGE ACCOUNT

OFFICE SUPPLIES

The Christmas rush is over. NOW, closing books for the year, inventory, filing and transfer time for records. All your needs here at STEIN'S "Of Course." The largest and most complete stock of office supplies — ready to serve you.

BLANK BOOKS — LOOSE LEAF LEDGERS — LOOSE LEAF FORMS OF EVERY DESCRIPTION — FILING CABINETS — SUPPLIES — STATEMENTS — RUBBER STAMPS — TRANSFER FILES — COLUMNAR PADS.

STEIN'S "of course"

The Complete Stationery Store

307 W. Fourth St. Phone 1111

TOP MEAT SHOP

210 N. BROADWAY PHONE 3344

Thur. BABY BEEF

and RIB STEAKS

Fri. SIRLOIN STEAKS

21¹/₂ 13¹/₂ 29¹/₂

Each

"OUR MEATS ARE TOPS"

SOCIETY AND CLUBS WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES

Pretty Plant Tells Secret Of Betrothal

Shining white wrappings started with cheerful Christmas bells, distinguished a pretty flowering plant presented Christmas afternoon to Mrs. John Sauer as climax of a gift exchange among members of the intimate family circle gathered in the Sauer home on Yorba street. But as the tissues were removed, Mrs. Sauer found a Christmas message greeting which was of special importance. For the rhymed message, read aloud to the family circle, revealed the betrothal of John Vernon Sauer, only son of the home, to a charming Alabama girl, Miss Helen Tonjes.

Miss Tonjes, who completed her college studies last year at Whitier College, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tonjes of Alabama, and is teaching this year at El Monte. Mr. Sauer is finishing his studies this year at Santa Ana Junior college, combining college work with his duties with Smart and Final. The young people made the same romantic announcement on Christmas Eve to the Tonjes family circle, when Mr. Sauer joined his fiancée in celebrating her first Christmas celebration. Their wedding plans are still indefinite although they admit the event will take place in the summer.

Following the excitement occasioned by the news, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sauer finally settled down sufficiently to enjoy the buffet supper planned by their hostess, and served to the accompaniment of the home's gay Christmas appointments.

Welcomed to the happy affair with the hosts, their son and his fiancée, were Mrs. Sauer's mother, Mrs. Mary Rowley; Mrs. Margaret Suddaby, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Suddaby, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Suddaby and daughter Patsy; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Sauer, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Rowley and son Billy, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hibbet, all of Santa Ana and Tustin, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Owens and daughter Pauline of Los Angeles.

Couple Married Here To Live in Ventura

Wedding bells rang out on Christmas day for Mrs. Marguerite R. House, 604 Stafford street and P. A. Hamm of Ventura, who were married at 12:30 o'clock in the home of the bride. The Rev. P. F. Schrock, pastor of First Congregational church, officiated.

The bride wore a navy blue tulle with a corsage bouquet of sweet peas in orchid tones. Her matron of honor, Mrs. Paul E. Helmick, also chose a navy blue costume with pink sweet peas. Mr. Helmick was best man.

Others present for the ceremony were Miss Betty Lynn House, daughter of the bride and James Hamm, son of the bridegroom; with Miss Mary Schrock. P. A. Hamm is affiliated with Lang Transportation company in Ventura, in which city he and his bride will make their home at 331 Wall street. The new Mrs. Hamm is daughter of Mrs. M. J. Dickson of this city and George A. Dickson of Los Angeles.

Announcements

Quill Pen club members were reminded today that their annual holiday party will be held Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Marshall Harnois, 414 East Walnut street. The Christmas edition of the club newspaper will feature the program, which will include a gift exchange.

Golden State Royal Neighbors will meet tonight at 6:30 o'clock in the K. C. hall for a covered dish dinner to be followed by election of officers.

Orange County Camera Club of which Burr Shafer is president will meet Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in The Barn for annual election of officers. Members have been requested to bring their three best pictures to be chosen for submitting to the exhibition to be held in San Diego next month. From this San Diego exhibit, will be made a regional selection of winners to go in the exhibit at the San Francisco fair next year.

Junior Ebell Society members were advised today by Mrs. Carleton Smith, News Letter editor, that the monthly club publication will be off the press a day or two later than usual. Because of the holiday rush and other complications, the delay was necessitated, it was explained. However, the News Letter will be distributed to members before the dinner meeting Tuesday at 6:30 o'clock in the clubhouse.

Torosa Rebekah lodge has announced that program beginning tonight at 9 o'clock in I. O. O. F. hall, will be open to the general public. Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Shields of the Meglin Dance studio, will present a half hour entertainment, one of whose youthful artists will be little Vina Mae Harmer, child acrobat.

Ernest Kellogg Auxiliary V. F. W. will have an all-day sewing meeting tomorrow in the home of Mrs. Ruth M'Callia, 327 East Second street. The hostess will furnish the meat for covered-dish luncheon to be served at noon. Members are asked to bring table service.

CONSTIPATION AND RECTAL DISEASES (PILES)

Successfully Treated Without Surgery, Drugs, or Hospitalization

H. J. HOWARD

OSTEOPATH

PHONE 4306

1318 N. MAIN ST., SANTA ANA

Cheerful Spirit Of Holidays Prevails In Countless Homes

All-Day Affair

Among the many gift packages arriving at the George S. Briggs home, 644 North Broadway, one from the young grandchildren in Fresno, children of Mr. and Mrs. Coyle Briggs, contained a beautiful Madonna figure, something for which Mrs. Briggs has long been wishing. This exquisite figure was immediately given the central place amidst the modernistic grape clusters formed of scarlet and silver Christmas balls, which were mirrored on the center of the table where Christmas dinner was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Briggs entertained a closely-knit little group of relatives and family friends for the holiday feast. There were Mrs. Briggs' brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dillehunt of Santa Monica, with their sons, Cecil and Bill; two other sisters, the Misses Frances and Gertrude Potts of this city, with a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Timmons, Miss Bettie Timmons and Miss Gloria Kirchner, of Red Hill avenue, and the Walter Eatons of San Juan Capistrano.

In the late afternoon hours, the group drove over the city to enjoy the many artistic lighting effects, later returning to the Briggs home for supper before different members of the group fulfilled other engagements.

Part of the day's pleasure lay in telegrams from absent members of the family, Mr. and Mrs. Coyle Briggs in Fresno, and Miss Janet Briggs in New York City. The latter was entertaining at Christmas dinner, some of her old Stanford University friends.

Greetings From Tulsa

Telegraphed greetings from relatives in Tulsa, Okla. came to add to the enjoyment of a family gathering Sunday afternoon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Tourpat and son Ivan, 806 North Olive street.

Dinner was served at 3 o'clock at a long table bright with modern holiday decorations. Accordion music by Ivan Tourpat and xylophone numbers by Richard and Walter were features of the informal afternoon.

Old friends of the family, N. Schead and daughter, Miss Gertrude Schead of Los Angeles, joined the group. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cartmell and Cleve Cartmell of Los Angeles, who had just returned from a stay in the Philippines, were welcomed.

Completing the party were Mrs. J. F. Richards, Mrs. N. E. Watson, Richard Watson, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wool, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Swain, the Misses Lucille, Carlene and Georgianna Swain, William Kennedy, Miss Lucille Holman, Miss Ruth Cartmell, Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Vau, George Vau, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Davis and son Monte; Mr. and Mrs. William Fritcher; Mr. and Mrs. Van Eakin, Anaheim.

In Hilltop Home

Departing last night for a several days' stay in San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. George Sattler, of Panorama Heights took with them the memories of a happy holiday time climaxed by an open-house affair Monday evening in their pleasant hilltop home.

Friends of the hosts' daughter, Miss Audrey Sattler, were received from 3 to 5 o'clock. More than 150 family friends called from 5 to 7 o'clock for a friendly chat, an eggnog or other holiday cheer. Receiving with the Sattlers and their daughter were Mr. Sattler's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Sattler of Los Angeles.

The big outdoor Christmas tree which has added so much to the charm of the home grounds during holiday time, a pretty indoor tree and other colorful Yuletide appointments were enjoyed by the guests. Red candles blazed on the serving tables. Howard Timmons officiated at the evening table appointments, while Mr. Sattler and his cousin served in the downstairs playroom where the young people were received in the afternoon. Mrs. Timmons officiated as hostess.

Among the out-of-town friends were Los Angeles guests including Messrs. and Mesdames Howard Ilo, William Jenkins, F. Norton Tolles, Roswell Walters, M. D. Huffman, Miss Lou Schwarz and Lee Blackman.

Friendly Day

Miss Mary Snyder's observance of Christmas was staged Monday in her home, 1248 West Eighth street, where cheerful red and green decorations, a sparkling tree and the green tapers of the dinner table were part of the enjoyable features of the holiday feast served at noon.

In the party with the hostess were Miss Ruth Crosby, her father, Chester Crosby, and Miss Mary Wood. Dinner was followed by an afternoon of Chinese checkers, and the presentation of gifts.

Ulrichs Entertain

With Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Ulrich of Lemon Heights for Christmas dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ulrich and daughters, Sheryl and Carol; Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Stone and son, Ronald; Mrs. H. C. Ulrich and Miss Edna Ulrich, all of this community; with Mr. and Mrs. David Becker of Portland, Ore., who are visiting relatives in Anaheim.

In Blower Home

Early afternoon dinner Sunday in the home of Dr. and Mrs. John H. Bower, 1324 Bush street came as a happy celebration for an intimate group. The affair also served as a welcome home to the hosts' son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Mendenhall, who resided in the east until recently when they moved to El Segundo.

Mr. Mendenhall's parents, Dr.

and Mrs. W. O. Mendenhall of games in which prizes were won by Mrs. Mary E. Perdew, A. O. Floyd and his son, Walter. Gifts were exchanged. Hot chocolate, fruit cake and Christmas dainties were served to the party, including Mrs. Perdew, Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Floyd and children, Walter and Lois Mary; Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Jellison and Bobbie; Mrs. Mary E. Floyd and the hosts.

With the Vernons

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Vernon and daughters, Mary, Peggy and Betty Louise were hosts at an open house, affair Christmas afternoon and evening, following a family dinner at which they entertained earlier in the day.

Dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ogden of Kansas City, Kans.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morris, Elsinore; Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Sholly, Altadena; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rumell and daughters, Jo Anna and Charlene, this city.

Home for Christmas

Departure yesterday of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Tolley and son Bill of Yuma, Ariz., meant the breaking up of a happy family group that had been together for Christmas celebration in the home of Mrs. Tolley's parents, the W. W. Hoyes, 1225 French street.

Other out-of-town guests who were present for Christmas dinner festivities in the Hoy home were the hosts' son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Olmsted and daughters, Patricia and Barbara of Portland, Ore., who are remaining until New Year's day.

Others taking part were Miss Wilma Hoy, daughter of the home; the hosts' son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Hoy; son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene MacKenney and their daughter, Norma Jean; son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Finster and their son Ted, of Balboa; with Miss Jean McFadden.

An earlier event was a dinner party at which Mr. and Mrs. MacKenney entertained in their home, 408 Halesworth street in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Hoy, who celebrated their 41st wedding anniversary December 22. Sharing honors with the hosts' parents were Mr. and Mrs. John Henderson, who observed their wedding anniversary the day before Christmas.

Many Guests Greeted

In the Harry L. Epperly home, 1025 West Myrtle street, many Christmas dinner guests shared a happy afternoon and evening, with an exchange of gifts around the decorated tree.

Especially enjoyed were the motion pictures screened during the evening by Floyd Epperly. Mrs. Rowena Epperly, mother of the host, and Mrs. Nellie Marshall, mother of the hostess, were chief among the guests, who included also Messrs. and Mesdames Floyd Epperly, Alfred Russ, Leonard Berner, Lloyd Watson and Archie H. Beadles, together with Velma, Mildred and Marilyn Watson, Lucille Rush, Marjorie Ann Berner, Marie McGee, E. W. Greene, Billy Greene, Glenn and Donald Rush, Albert Watson, Giles Houser, Charles and Lawrence Berner, Melvin and Archie Beadles Jr.

It was a happy home-coming Sunday for all the children of Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Linsbard, 415 West First street, with gift exchange and special entertainment to complement the enjoyable Christmas dinner.

Table decorations were fashioned by Miss Jean Linsbard of the home, and presented Santa Claus gliding over a mirror of ice banked with snow. Places were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Linsbard and Miss Jean of the home, Mrs. Yvette Shadden with Tommy and Betty Kay; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cox and son Donald, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eggert with Bonnie Mae, Robert and John Allen; Mr. and Mrs. E. Edmond Linsbard with Billy and Beth Ann, and William Westcott, a family friend.

In the evening the party was joined by the Donald Harwoods and little son Dennis, and children of the family circle gave a play, "Jingle Bells," written and directed by Miss Jean. Everybody joined in singing carols, and the exchange of gifts around a blazing fire.

Happy Home-coming

It was a happy home-coming Sunday for all the children of Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Linsbard, 415 West First street, with gift exchange and special entertainment to complement the enjoyable Christmas dinner.

Table decorations were fashioned by Miss Jean Linsbard of the home, and presented Santa Claus gliding over a mirror of ice banked with snow. Places were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Linsbard and Miss Jean of the home, Mrs. Yvette Shadden with Tommy and Betty Kay; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cox and son Donald, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eggert with Bonnie Mae, Robert and John Allen; Mr. and Mrs. E. Edmond Linsbard with Billy and Beth Ann, and William Westcott, a family friend.

In the evening the party was joined by the Donald Harwoods and little son Dennis, and children of the family circle gave a play, "Jingle Bells," written and directed by Miss Jean. Everybody joined in singing carols, and the exchange of gifts around a blazing fire.

Visitor From East

Arrival of George B. Holmes Jr. of Alexandria, La., for a holiday visit in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Holmes, 1238 South Ross street, added to the pleasure of Yuletide celebration for a family group.

With Mr. and Mrs. Holmes, George Holmes Jr. and Richard and Tommie, sons of the home, were Mrs. Lulu New and Mr. and Mrs. William New of San Diego; Mrs. Carrie Holmes and Miss A. Julia Holmes of Duarte, and Tom Holmes, who is postmaster of Duarte. Mrs. William New is well known here, where he attended school several years ago.

George Holmes Jr. is enjoying reunions with many old friends in this community. He was graduated in June from California Institute of Technology, and since then has been employed with the Mott-Smith Corporation, with headquarters in Houston, Tex. The company is engaged in geophysical work in the United States and in foreign lands. Although young Holmes has had the opportunity to go into the foreign field for Mott-Smith, he is remaining in this country for the present.

Informal Affair

An informal affair for a family group was held at which Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Chaffee entertained Christmas Eve in their home, 903 North Olive street. The hosts had planned a series of celebration.

games in which prizes were won by Mrs. Mary E. Perdew, A. O. Floyd and his son, Walter. Gifts were exchanged. Hot chocolate, fruit cake and Christmas dainties were served to the party, including Mrs. Perdew, Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Floyd and children, Walter and Lois Mary; Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Jellison and Bobbie; Mrs. Mary E. Floyd and the hosts.

Members of the family assembled Saturday evening for dinner in the Mendenhall home in Whittier. Dr. Mendenhall is president of Whittier college.

In Timmons Home

Hospitality of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Timmons and their daughter, Miss Bettie Timmons were extended to 75 friends Saturday night when open house was observed in the Red Hill avenue residence.

Receiving the family group in receiving was Miss Gloria Kirchner, who makes her home with the Timmons family. Refreshments were served in a holiday setting.

Intimate Circle

Poinsettias, roses and holly gave colorful atmosphere to the home of Dr. J. M. Raugh and his sister, Mrs. Maude E. Miller, 731 South Birch street, where an intimate little group accepted the dinner invitation for Christmas Day.

Seated around the table with the brother and sister host, were Mrs. Catherine Winter and her brother, Bert Colvin. The table itself offered a wintry scene, with a snow-covered hill rising from a mirror lake, and with small reindeer drawing near a tiny snow-covered house on the hillside.

During the afternoon as a friendly circle formed around the decorated tree, there was an exchange of gifts.

Varied Entertainment

Christmas holidays in Oxnard were enjoyed by a little group of Santa Anans entertained by Mr. and Mrs. G. Dean Wallace and their daughter Glenna Deane. In the party were Mrs. Charles C. Irish, Mrs. A. B. Jessee and daughter, Doris Lee, Mrs. L. G. Wesson and son Carl, with Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Hanway of Los Angeles.

There was a Christmas tree and exchange of gifts with Sunday's holiday dinner, and on Monday everyone joined to compliment the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Wasson. Return home that evening for the Santa Anans was by way of Christmas Tree Lane.

They were accompanied by Mrs. Wallace and Miss Glenna Deane who will remain with Mrs. Wallace's mother, Mrs. Irish, at 203 1-2 West Twentieth street, to be joined for New Year's day by Mr. Wallace. He is secretary to the superintendent of the Camarillo State hospital.

With The Warrens

Mr. and Mrs. Le Roy Warren and sons, James, Dick and Malcolm, of Ione, who came for the Christmas celebration in the home of Mr. Warren's parents, the T. L. Warrens, 814 North Park street, are remaining for a several days' visit in this city.

Others who were present for the holiday dinner were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Warren and daughter Mildred, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hill and children Dick and Maxine, Mrs. Grace Wilkinson and Orrin Matthews, West Los Angeles, with Martin Warren and son and daughter Robert and Mary Jean, this city.

Surprise Shower

Climaxing a celebration shared Christmas day by Mrs. E. G. Huntington and members of her family was a surprise shower honoring her grandson, Lecl Slaback and his fiancée, Miss Neva Rodrick.

The party began in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ross and daughter and son, Virginia and Raymond Ross Jr., 1122 Freeman street, where dinner was served early in the afternoon. Their guests were Mrs. Huntington, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gerken and son Jimmie and Mrs. Frank Tedford.

From there, the group went to Mr. Huntington's home, 907 South Main street. Joining the party were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mont Jackson and sons, Leland and Donald, and Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Horan and son Richard, Fullerton; Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Slaback and daughter and sons, Miss Lela, Lecl and Stanley Slaback, and Mrs. Rodrick.

Jimmy Gerken and Richard Horan assisted Miss Virginia Ross in distributing Christmas gifts. Presentation of miscellaneous shower articles to Miss Rodrick and Lecl Slaback was the highlight of the afternoon.

During the holidays, Mrs. Huntington enjoyed a visit from her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Huntington of Chicago. They had spent the week end with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Huntington of Hollywood.

Holiday Guests

Departure this morning of Mrs. Walter Waits of Riverside, brought to a close the holiday entertaining in the J. Floyd Vale home, 1004 West Camille street, where the Vales and their daughter Vivian, had received many guests. For their Christmas day feast, they welcomed Mr. Vale's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Vale of San Francisco with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Null of Pomona.

On Monday, Mrs. Vale's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Waits, arrived from Riverside, as did her two brothers and their families, the Rev. Raymond Wilder with Mrs. Wilder of Riverside, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilder and son Roger of Hollywood. The senior Mr. and Mrs. Vale also remained for the Monday celebration.

List Patrons For Society's Holiday Event

Patrons and patronesses were named today for the annual dance which Ebell society will give Thursday night at 9 o'clock in the clubhouse peacock room for sons and daughters of members.

Mrs. W. S. Thomson, president of the society, reminded the young people that they must make reservations in order to attend the gala affair. Each ticket will admit one son or daughter and a guest. These tickets must be secured in advance from Mrs. W. D. Ranney or Mrs. Arthur May, it was said.

In the group of patrons and patronesses will be Major and Mrs. B. B. Wellington, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Miller, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Holles, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Davis and the E. D. Whites.

Mrs. Harold Segerstrom has secured Los Serranos Dons to play for the occasion. Miss Vera Getty will be present to direct special dances.

Mrs. Hugh Shields and Mrs. C. E. Bressler are in charge of favors and decorations, while Mrs. W. P. Hellis is chairman of the punch committee.

Next Tuesday Brings Junior Ebell Dinner and Program

Now that Christmas festivities are receding into the background, plans for Junior Ebell society's dinner party and program next Tuesday evening are proving of special interest to the general membership.

New members will be hostesses at the affair, scheduled for 6:30 o'clock in the clubhouse peacock room. Those planning to attend must make their reservations by Saturday afternoon with the club president, Miss Elizabeth Smith; or one of the co-chairmen, Mrs. Jack Rimel and Mrs. Mary Lindsey.

Following the dinner will be a program highlighted by a book review by Mona Summers Smith of the Public Library.

Church Societies

Calvary Max Zimmerman of Immanuel Mission to Shut-Ins was speaker at the latest meeting of Calvary church missionary society in the Y. W. C. rooms.

Luncheon was served at noon by a committee composed of Mesdames Josephine Blood, Gertrude Tallman, Doris Day and J. B. Ramsey. A musical program featured the morning session.

Section Party Extending to their husbands, the hospitality so prevalent at this season, women of Northeast section entertained during the past week, at a holiday supper in the church social rooms.

Half a hundred guests found places around prettily decorated tables for the supper hour. Afterward they were entertained by the Kiwanis chorus and by an accordion ensemble from the Visel-Haughton studio. Mrs. W. E. Marrs read a clever original poem about the various members of the section after which gifts were exchanged, with G. W. Leive as Santa Claus, propounding amusing questions which each person had to answer before receiving a gift.

Mrs. Leive was chairman of the committee planning the party, her group of hostesses including Mesdames J. L. McBride, George S. Smith and J. E. Arterburn.

COMING EVENTS

TONIGHT Episcopal St. Elizabeth's Guild Christmas party; 7:30 o'clock. Epiphany; 8:30 o'clock. H. H. Taylor, 203 West Twentieth street; 7:30 o'clock.

Job's Daughters; Masonic temple; 7:15 o'clock. Torosa Rebekah lodge; 7:30 o'clock. North Florida fraternity; 7:30 o'clock.

Royal Arch Masons; Masonic temple; 7:30 o'clock. Parish party; Unitarian church; 8 p. m. Community Players; tryouts for "You Can't Take It With You"; The Barn; 7:30 o'clock.

Torosa Rebekah lodge; I. O. O. F. hall; 8 o'clock. Knights of Pythias; V. F. W. hall; 8 o'clock. Scouts; M.W.A. hall; 8 o'clock. Golden State R. N. A.; K. C. hall; 8 o'clock.

Moore lodge; 8:05 p. m. East Fourth street; 8 o'clock. Breakfast club; Main cafeteria; 7:30 a. m. Bowers Memorial museum; 10 a. m. to noon; 2 to 4:30 p. m.

Orange Avenue Christian Women's Council; church; all day. Lions club; Masonic temple; noon. Lathrop Branch; 10 a. to 2 p. m. Jubilee lodge; F. and A. M.; Masonic temple; 7:30 p. m. Roy's Arch Masons; Masonic temple; 7:30 p. m. Odd Fellows lodge; I.O.O.F. hall; 8 p. m.

Quill Pen club Christmas party; with Mrs. Marshall Harnois, 404 East Walnut street; 8 p. m. Ebell society dance for sons and daughters; clubhouse; 8 p. m.

Realty Board; Rosmore cafe; noon. Santa Ana lodge; F. and A. M.; Masonic temple; 7:30 p. m. Job's Daughters; De Molay dance; Veterans hall; 8 to 11:30 p. m. Homesteaders; Life association; Moose hall; 8:05 p. m. East Fourth street; 8 p. m.

SATURDAY Bowers Memorial museum; 10 a. m. to noon; 2 to 4:30 p. m.

Panhellenic Party Scene Is One Of Sheer Glamour

Cordial welcome from pretty hostesses, a ripple of toe-tlingling music, quaint little creatures drawn from the fantasy of childhood seeming to float above banked evergreens, softly diffused light pointing here a floating wisp of chiffon, there the lustrous fabric of heavy silk or shining satin, gay greetings called among young people home from university studies to revel in the joys of the holiday season—of such vivid bits was woven the tissue of pleasure which Panhellenic society members last night presented as their Christmas gift to the community.

Nor was this gift one to be enjoyed for the moment and then laid aside. It was the annual holiday ball whose several hours of pleasure for guests in attendance will continue to bring lasting good for ambitious young students who will be enabled to continue their college studies. For proceeds from this ball will go to swell the Junior College Student Loan fund, as Panhellenic society's annual contribution.

Well Attended Held in Santa Ana Veterans' hall, the ball attracted a fine attendance, guests from all sections of the county braving the heavy fog to enjoy the hours of dancing and the prevalent spirit of Yule gaiety.

Panhellenic officers and those members who had been asked to serve on the dance committee, received the guests with friendliness. This hostess line was constant, although its units varied from time to time as one hostess was swept into the maze of the dance and her place was filled by another, just completing one of the intriguing numbers. Music was excellent, and was provided by the George Lewis nine-piece orchestra of Pomona, playing its first Orange county engagement with signal success. One of the most popular dances was the Lambeth Walk, for which George Lewis himself stepped from the orchestra platform to act as leader with young Carolyn Wells. Miss Carolyn had just completed a clever tap dance as an unmounted program feature, singing, in her brief silken costume, of a small girl, "I Found my Yellow Basket," and ending with "Jingle Bells," during which she tossed much sought-after little sleighbells to outstretched hands.

Pretty Costumes Recognized as the major social event of the Yule season, this ball always calls forth the smartest of dance frocks. Last night was no exception, and it was interesting to see the color combinations, the graceful modes, and the handsome materials. There were quaintly picturesque hoop skirt frocks, graceful lace bodices over swirling chiffon skirts, lustrous velvets, and clever little cocktail jacket effects, some of flowered satin, others of silver lame or the popular knitted angora.

Mrs. R. C. Harris, president of the hostess society, was especially lovely in a picture frock of white mousseline de sole with black lace medallions, its off-the-shoulder corsage draped in fichu effect. Mrs. Victor Hupp, dance chairman, was in gold satin paneled with richly oriental embroideries; Mrs. Newell Moore, who had headed the committee planning the effective decorations, chose rosewood moire; Mrs. Jack Hill's frock in deep wine tones, was worn with a broadened silver cloth cocktail jacket.

Demure little flower clusters dotted the heavy black faille frock which Mrs. William Floyd Croddy wore, with a black ribbon knotted through her blonde hair; Mrs. Harry LeBarb chose a bolero costume in polka-dotted satin; Mrs. H. G. Wilson chose ivory satin girdled with twists of velvet in jewel shades; Mrs. Clarence Holles wore a Medici-collared cocktail jacket of flowered satin with a graceful ivory crepe skirt; Mrs. E. M. Sundquist was in faille taffeta in peacock blue.

Festivities Shared By Auxiliary Juniors Bright with holiday appointments, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Robinson, 2103 North Flower street, provided ideal setting for a Yuletide party shared by members of Junior Legion auxiliary. Mrs. Robinson is sponsor of the group, and her daughter, Miss Jean Louise is a member of the organization.

Mrs. Harold Brown directed a session of caroling which proved especially delightful to the young people. The game of lotto was played for part of the time.

Santa Claus in the midst of a snow scene centered the table at which refreshments were served. Exchange of gifts highlighted the festivities. Other prettily-wrapped packages contained scrapbooks for patients at Orange County hospital.

In the group were the Misses Barbara Montgomery, Helen Faught, Phyllis Sandon, Maryann Sandon, Martha Jones, Marjorie Roehm, Patricia Swanner, Shirley Leimer, Shirley Edgar, Mary Alice Eklund, Roberta Corcoran, Betty Corcoran, Theresa Brainer, Dorothy Lou Kenyon, Jane McKee, Nancy Neer, Mabel Louise Casteels, Dorothy Bouldin, Darlene Burnett, Lucille Andrews, Jeanne Louise Robinson.

Annual Dance Preceded By Many Affairs

One of the most enjoyable dances of the year, last night's annual Panhellenic society student-loan fund benefit was preceded by a number of parties which foretold the merriment in store for those attending the general function.

There were several no-host dinner parties at Danigers. In one of these groups were Dr. and Mrs. Milo K. Tedstrom, Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Price, Mr. and Mrs. Carson Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Holles and Mr. and Mrs. Kroese. In another party were Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Wade, Dr. and Mrs. Perry Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Osborne Holmes and the Quentin Matzens.

Miss Helen Wiesseman's home on North Park Boulevard was the rendezvous for a group of young people in advance of the dance. Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Gibbins of Oakland, now visiting with her parents, the Paul Baileys, were in the party. Completing the group were Miss Wiesseman, Andrew Wilson, Miss Helen Knox, Lester Frink, Miss Muriel Matzen and John Schrier.

No Host Dinner Mr. and Mrs. Harry LeBarb and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Sundquist planned the big no-host dinner party which was held at Danigers. In the group were Messrs. and Mesdames Joseph Peterson, James Dickson, W. F. Croddy, E. T. McFadden, Paul Ragan, Frank Miller, Jack Hill, Joseph Daniger, Bruce Monroe and Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Coulson, this city; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Livenspire, Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reark, San Francisco; Mrs. Vivian Woods, Los Angeles and George Eysell of Topeka, Kans.; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Olmsted, who are visiting here from the north.

One merry group forming a "party within a party," was received in the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Harris, 2036 North Main street, before proceeding to the scene of the dance. With the hosts were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Woods and Mr. and Mrs. Loren Moore of this city, with Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Kersten, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Hoskins, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Kuenen and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Ralston of Anaheim.

Late arrivals at the ball were some twenty or more young people from Laguna Beach and Balboa, who had assembled in a Balboa Island home to come in a group, but whose progress was so impeded by the fog that they arrived at Veterans hall only as the dance was drawing to a close.

This same heavy fog prevented several guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wilson from being present, although the Wilsons waited at their home, 1700 East First street, until the last possible moment. Present

SERIAL STORY

SKI'S THE LIMIT

BY ADELAIDE HUMPHRIES

COPYRIGHT, 1938 NEA SERVICE, INC.

CAST OF CHARACTERS
SALLY BLAIR—heroine, she had everything that popularity could wish for, except that she was a bit of a rebel.
DAN REYNOLDS—her hero, he was king on skis.
COREY PORTER—was king of the school, but he was a bit of a rebel.
YESTERDAY: When Dan tells Sally that some day he will make good, overcome his infirmities, she knows she can wait for him forever.

CHAPTER XIV

SALLY and Dan were indeed friends now. Dan came out to the house often, sometimes for dinner, again to spend an evening. Occasionally Sally met him in the city for a luncheon date and every Sunday they spent the entire day together. They went on long hikes, Dan swinging beside Sally, determined to keep step in spite of his limp, almost because of it; they played golf; they went horseback riding. Sally mounted on Lucky Star, Dan on a sorrel from her father's stables. On such a day, when Sally had packed a lunch and they had tramped far into the hills, resting now in the shade of a row of weeping willows that dripped their lacy foliage into a brook, Dan suddenly asked a question that had been bothering him for some time.

"Sally," he said, "may I ask you something? Something that's none of my business, that I've no right to ask?"

"Of course," Sally returned promptly. She might have been another boy, in her sport skirt and slacks, a gay handkerchief tied over her dark curls, except that no boy ever had looked as bewitching as Sally did now, stretched out on the bank, chin cupped in the palms of her hands, eyes dream-filled as they watched the lazy clouds, big puff-balls of cotton, drifting in the blue-blue sky.

Dan skimmed a pebble across the brook—before he went on. It struck the rocks on the other side. His gray eyes, too, were content; he had some of his old color back; he was not nearly so thin.

"Are you engaged to anyone, Sally Blair?" he asked, after a rather long moment.

"Engaged!" Sally straightened up on one elbow. "Whatever made you think that? No, of course not. I'm not engaged to anyone."

"I see," Dan said. He didn't. Corey Porter distinctly had given him to understand that he was engaged to Sally. That night when he had brought him to her birthday party, Corey had said, "Oh, by the way, Reynolds, you might as well know, though I'd rather you didn't mention it since no one else knows about it yet, that Sally and I are going to be married one of these days."

of these days." His tone, his whole manner as he had said this, had made it an established, unquestionable fact.

But of course Sally would not have denied it so emphatically if it was. Unless she too, did not want to know yet. Say until after Corey graduated, perhaps.

"You didn't answer my question," Sally said. She, too, picked up a pebble, tossed it into the brook. The little circle it made widened, and then disappeared. There is only one person I shall ever become engaged to, Sally thought. And she had said she would wait—forever if need be—until that person had licked the things he felt had got the better of him.

"I just wondered," Dan returned. She had asked what had made him think she was engaged. But Corey had asked him not to say that he had told Dan.

"Do I act like an engaged person?" Sally smiled at him.

"You act just as you should," Dan said gravely. "You are a swell person, Sally Blair."

"Does that mean you've changed your mind—a little? Once, you know," Sally reminded, "you told me I was the sort of girl for whom you had no time at all. You said you did not believe in me."

"I'm sorry I said that," His gray eyes looked into hers. "I was wrong. You see I had always been afraid of girls like you, girls who were so pretty, so popular, who had everything, in fact. And you, well, you were the prettiest, the most popular of them all. Queen of the carnival. Corey Porter's girl. A glamour girl, in fact."

"Is that such a terrible thing to be?" Sally asked.

"Terrible enough to scare me to death!" His expression was so serious that Sally laughed. "You were right, when you called me a coward," Dan said, after another moment. "I was—still am, I guess—when it comes to a girl like that. But I don't believe you are that kind of girl, Sally. Except maybe on the outside. I think, deep down inside, that you're as sweet and simple and natural as those spring beauties growing under these trees."

"Thank you, kind sir," Sally replied demurely. But her heart swelled with a fierce, warm joy. Dan did believe in her. He no longer could deny that. Oh, she must be exceedingly careful not to break that belief again. She must be the sort of girl he thought her, live up in every way to that.

"I've changed my mind about a lot of things," Dan went on. He spoke slowly, still idly tossing a pebble now and then into the brook. He might have been thinking out loud. "I see I was wrong about a lot of things, too. For instance, after I had the accident I thought it was no use going on. I didn't want to go on, to be honest. I had had my life all planned out. What I wanted to do."

No need to tell Sally what that had been, this boy who had been a king on his skis, who had been a very part of the mountains in which he had been born and raised.

"I thought—this was while I was laid up—it would be better if I didn't get well. I hoped I wouldn't, when I found out I might never walk, when I knew I could never ski again. But I see now I was a coward to think that."

"No, no!" Sally broke in softly. She knew the extent of this boy's courage.

"Yes I was," Dan's mouth was grim. "You were right, again, Sally, when you told me I was afraid of the world at the foot of the mountain. You see I knew that someone—from that other world—wanted to help me, someone who sent for the best surgeon available to fix my leg, who paid all the expenses, who said he would stand by and see me through."

"I DIDN'T suppose there was anyone like that in any world," Dan said. His eyes were shining now. "A man so fine, so understanding, so good. This same man, Sally, sent for me to come to Boston, offered me the position I have now. This same man—and I don't even know his name, as his lawyer says he prefers it that way—still believes in me—that I'll come through. Is it any wonder I see things differently now? That I want to make the most of myself, repay this man for his faith in me? That I am determined, not only that I'll walk as good as ever again, but that the day will come when I'll ski as good as ever, too!"

"Oh, Dan!" Sally's eyes were shining now. For if he could believe that, he could make her believe it, as well.

"Some day," Dan said grimly, "I'll be in the Olympics. Where I was headed in the first place. Some day I'll pay back everything this man has done for me. You'll see, Sally. Nothing in this world—or any other—is going to stop me!"

Sally could well believe that now. She had heard of faith that could conquer mountains. But she had never looked upon it before.

(To Be Continued)

BEATING CHILDREN

In all the years I have dealt with children, of all kinds, I have never known a whipping to do any one of them the slightest good. I have known it to do a great deal of harm. It humiliates the child; it fills him with resentment, and it teaches him that the person with the strongest arm is entitled to force the weaker one to suffer. What grown up people do—especially what parents do—is right in the eyes of the child, is an example for him.

It is easy to get into the habit of striking children. The thing grows with practice. If a child irritates one, slap him. If he is disobedient, slap and shake him; if he brings home a poor report from school, beat him. And what good does it do? It slaps and shakes and beatings cured mistaken judgment, ignorance and weakness, wouldn't the world, after centuries of it, be rid of errors of all sorts? The old errors and their offspring are still with us, and so are the stupid child beaters.

I have every sympathy with a weary mother who loses patience and slaps a child. But weariness and slapping should not become a habit. When a mother finds herself behaving in such uncontrolled fashion she should realize that she is tired and take some way of curing the condition. Let the work go and take an hour of rest, more if she needs it. Better that there be no dessert, that dust gather in corners, the washing wait, than that the children, and the home life be spoiled.

School children should not be whipped, in school or anywhere else. Once a child has reached the stage of reflective memory all force should cease where his training is concerned. It is mind that is to be disciplined and enlightened. Beating his body is precisely the way NOT to train it to self-control, good judgment, fair reasoning. Force does not appeal to reason and so is useless for the work that needs to be done.

I have heard school masters say that they could not keep school without the use of the rod or the paddle. I think they could, if they were teachers. If not, they should select another profession. I know schools filled with children from poor homes, poor in every sense. The children are beaten at home; they beat each other on the slightest provocation, but they are never beaten in school. And the behavior in school is fine. A hundred percent? Of course not. There are always a few children in a school who cannot conform to the standards set by the best children. But beating them will not help. Their trouble lies in their minds, in the experiences they have known, in the quality of their whole being. They need different training, under experts. But they do not need beating. I have heard older people say that a good beating would help some mistaken child. One wonders what good beating did some of them. It did not improve their attitudes toward other people, nor

WESTMINSTER

WESTMINSTER, December 28.—Miss Helen McCoy is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McCoy at Fontana until after New Year's.

Mr. and Mrs. George Garrett joined their two daughters and their families at a Christmas dinner in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Reed were Christmas guests of Mrs. Reed's mother in Long Beach.

Wendell Bealer and mother, Mrs. Jone Bealer, spent Sunday and Monday at Fresno at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Grimes.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Broyles and son William were guests of other members of their family at Calton over the week end.

(Copyright, 1938, The Bell Syn., Inc.)

A KING'S SON

HORIZONTAL

1 Pictured son of the late King of England.

10 Blackbird.

11 Strained to stiffness.

12 To diminish.

14 To shrink.

15 Wale on the skin.

17 Lawyer's charge.

19 Burmese.

20 Coal pit.

22 Uncooked.

24 God of war.

26 Italian river.

28 Form of "a."

29 Eccentric wheel.

32 Graduated series of boxes.

34 Clan pole.

37 Festival.

38 Play on words.

40 Stream obstruction.

41 To offer.

42 South Carolina.

44 Morass.

46 Merriment.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

SEBASTIAN BACH
COMA LADLE CUED
OMIT AREAS ORLE
NETSUKE STARTLE
CEMENDS JOHANN
RIGOR SEBASTIAN
STRONES BACH
S SE
PEON ETRAMS
OAST LOOSE LONE MUSICIAN SPARSE

47 Note in scale.

48 Eye.

50 Declined to accept.

53 Chicken.

54 Back.

56 Sun.

57 Epilepsy symptom.

58 To leak.

60 Measure above.

62 He is a younger brother of the present.

63 He will be the next governor of Australia.

VERTICAL

1 Any flatfish.

2 Unexpectedly.

3 Air toy.

4 Old Testament.

5 Not many.

6 Cutting tool.

7 Domestic slave.

8 More fastidious.

9 Pedal digit.

13 Tree.

16 Point.

18 Oat beard.

19 He belongs to the House of 21 Form of no

23 Dutch measure

25 Snake

27 Law

29 Vulgar fellow.

30 Morindin dye.

31 His wife was Princess of Greece.

33 Short cask.

35 Alleged force.

36 Type measure

37 Cotton machine.

39 Neither.

41 Unopened flower.

43 Set of opinions.

45 To obtain.

46 Marsh.

47 Earth.

49 Cow's home.

51 Trout.

52 Warbled.

53 Baker.

55 Inlet.

57 Farewell!

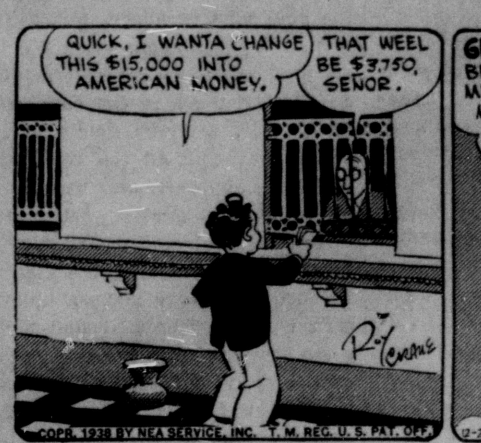

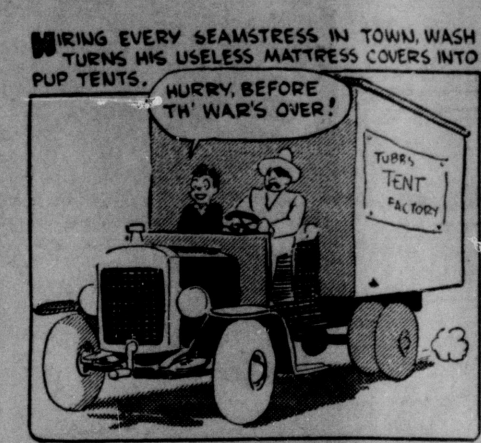

59 Pair

61 Upon.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

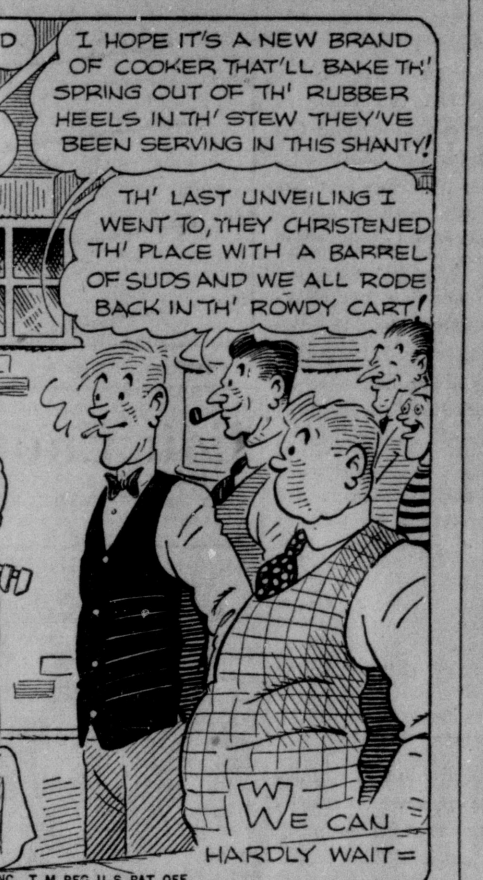

WASH TUBS

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

MAJOR HOOPLE

OUT OUR WAY

By J. R. WILLIAMS

MICKY FINN

Shattered Dreams!

Backstage Stuff

By LANK LEONARD

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

It Would Take a Blizzard

By EDGAR MARTIN

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

By MERRILL BLOSSER

Sounds Ominous

By V. T. HAMLIN

ALLEY OOP

By V. T. HAMLIN

By V. T. HAMLIN

By V. T. HAMLIN

THE SANTA ANA REGISTER AND THE SANTA ANA DAILY JOURNAL

Published daily (except Sunday) by The Register Publishing Company, 210 S. St. Sacramento, Santa Ana, California. Entered in Santa Ana post office as second class matter. TELEPHONES from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. call 5121; after 6 p. m. Subscription, 5121 and 5122. News, 5123. Advertising, 5124.

MEMBER AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS

SUBSCRIPTION RATES—By Carrier, $8.00 per year; $4.25 for 6 months; 75c per month. By mail (advance) in Orange County—$8.00 per year; $4.25 for 6 months; 75c per month. OUTSIDE ORANGE COUNTY—$10.00 per year; $5.25 for 6 months; 90c per month. Single copies 2c.

LEARNING THE HARD WAY

A release from the Claims Bureau of the Association of Casualty and Surety Executives points out that the widespread drive against fake accident claim rackets, in which the police and capital stock insurance companies have joined forces to protect the insuring public against heavy losses, is going forward with undiminished vigor.

This work is comparatively new—but it has resulted in the arrest and conviction of hundreds of racketeers, including members of old-established gangs who moved about from city to city and state to state perpetrating their frauds—frauds which every insurance policy-holder must pay for, through higher insurance rates. As the Association says: "accident fakers constitute one of the strangest criminal types known to the police. They will stop at nothing, not even personal injury, to get 'easy' money from some innocent motorist, taxicab company, railroad or other individual or utility." Over a period of time, the "take" from the rackets runs far into the millions.

One of the recently convicted claim racketeers, it has been found, was in the business for 15 years. Operating from Massachusetts to New Jersey, he was forever getting caught in trolley doors, falling off broken theater seats, tumbling over umbrellas in trains, and getting hit by automobile fenders. He always had witnesses ready at hand to swear that his accident was the result of someone else's carelessness or negligence—and usually he obtained a generous settlement. Now he has started serving a prison sentence, along with others of the same profession.

This drive against the fake claim artist is as important as a deterrent to others as it is in punishing those it actually catches and convicts. The accident racketeer is at last learning that "crime doesn't pay"—and learning it the hard way.

MAN TAKEN AT FACE VALUE

Probably the best of all commentaries on the amazing Coster-Musica case is the plaintive note contributed by the publisher of Who's Who, who remarked: "Who's Who takes it for granted that a man elected president of an $87,000,000 concern is a man of good reputation and standing in his community."

Because practically everybody else follows the same rule, an imaginative swindler was able to put across one of the most fantastic hoaxes of modern times, deceive everybody from the United States government to Wall Street, and come to grief only because of a slip-up on a minor detail.

People probably will be drawing morals from this case for years to come. But in some ways the most striking thing about it is the way it illustrates the almost universal tendency to take a man at his own valuation.

Banks have a commendable wariness in the matter of cashing checks, and most business firms want to know about you before they will let you open a charge account; but beyond that you can get people to believe practically anything you say about yourself, and your history is what you say it is.

And the odd thing about it is that a man like Coster, or Musica, pops up once in a while to make everybody look like a sucker, but the fact that it doesn't happen oftener.

It could happen. All our business and social machinery is geared to the supposition that the average man is a decent and honorable sort—the belief that it isn't necessary to take extraordinary precautions against swindling because most men simply aren't the swindling kind. Any man who has plenty of nerve and imagination can take advantage of that set-up and get away with it for a long time—as witness Coster, Ivar Kreuger, Dr. Cook, Samuel Insull, and sundry others.

But ordinarily people live up to our expectations. They pay out just about as we expect they will. We don't have to police every detail of our personal relationships. By and large, this really is the sort of world that our belief in the next fellow tells us it is.

And that is a rather important point. For it goes back to one of the fundamentals in the existing social organization. What happens when that fundamental is discarded can be seen today, in all its pristine ugliness, in the dictator-lands overseas. There the belief in man's innate decency and intelligence has been discarded.

So perhaps we had better get on taking people at their face value, in spite of the Coster hoax. The only alternative is to start something we wouldn't like at all.

The Nation's Press

MEDICINE ON TRIAL (N. Y. Times)

That the American Medical Association would be indicted on the charge of obstructing group medical practice as a form of "contract medicine" was a foregone conclusion after Attorney General Homer S. Cummings and Assistant Attorney General Thurman Arnold published the Department of Justice's findings and threats last August. Now the courts must decide the novel question whether or not the anti-trust laws can properly be invoked to prevent organized medicine from determining the manner in which medicine shall be practiced.

It was not until the Group Health Association of Washington, D. C., clashed with the local medical society in that city that the Department of Justice intervened. The Group Association was organized in 1937 with the aid of $40,000 granted by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, which had discovered that it was suffering a loss of several hundred thousand dollars annually through sickness. To this co-operative some 2,500 government employees, earning for the most part less than $2,000 a year, have been paying $2.25 to $4 a month for the medical attention of a staff of salaried specialists. The District of Columbia Supreme Court held the activities of the association to be legal.

The process now begun under the anti-trust law attacks the American Medical Association and the local medical societies on purely economic grounds. The Government charges that, prompted by the officers of the American Medical Association, the local medical bodies instituted an active boycott; that hospitals were closed to the co-operative's staff; that members of this staff who were also members of the local medical societies were either expelled or forced to resign their salaried positions; that specialists

Sharing The Comforts Of Life

By R. C. Hoiles

VOTING UNDER SOCIALISM AND CAPITALISM

Those people who are constantly proclaiming that the government should more and more enter the business of directing and managing the production of wealth, do not realize that to the degree we approach the free enterprise system, every customer is voting daily who he wants to manage the producing of what he consumes.

Under the capitalistic system, everytime a man buys an automobile, a pair of shoes, a book, or his groceries he is expressing his preference to the effect that the man from whom he buys is doing a better job of serving him than any other person of whom he knows. He is voting against the man from whom he does not buy, in preference to the man from whom he buys and he is, thus, the daily boss of the man who produces.

On the other hand, when the State would control all production, as the reformers and dreamers are advocating, the man can only vote as a whole; once every year, or every four years, or, with recall, he could be voting all the time, but he could not be voting on any particular management. He could not be voting specifically whether the automobile concern was developing properly or the clothing manufacturer was producing the kind of clothes he wanted. He could only make a lump sum vote that this man was a better all-round-Jack-of-all-trades than some other persons running against him. He would have very, very little selection as to whether he was being served properly in any of the things that he constantly used. In other words, his ability to express a preference would be almost completely taken away from him, under the socialistic state ownership and this is exactly the opposite from what the advocates of state socialism contend.

So the next time you hear one of these "holier than thou" prattlers contending that the business man is a tyrant and destroying the consumer and the working man, remind him that under the capitalistic system the consumer is the boss; that he has the chance of constantly voting his approval or disapproval; that the free enterprise system is really the democratic system which gives the consumer the greatest right to live his life to develop his character as his conscience and judgment; that the socialistic scheme stifles the character and judgment of the individual; and what one does not use, he loses. The individual, under socialism, instead of developing, becomes more and more like a bossed animal.

The systems are as different as night and day. Do not let these socialistic men who claim to be humanitarians, get away with this "bunk" passed out to flatter their vanity.

"FIRE THEM"

Elmer Andrews, Wage and Hour Administrator, according to news dispatches, says that employers should promptly fire any employee who persisted in working overtime.

Here we are in America, establishing a Pagan law that discriminates against the man who believes in the philosophy of Christianity—that it is more blessed to give than receive. We, through our representatives, have decided that a man must be careful how much he puts into the world. He must not give too much to the world. He dare not give himself more than the mob believes he should contribute to the world.

Is it any wonder we have unemployment, misery, suffering and crime, when the people have become so miseducated and so out of harmony with the philosophy of Christianity that they make it a crime for people to serve humanity by working more than the mob specifies.

Will the educators explain whether this is a result of miseducation? It would seem that every educator, every preacher, every publisher, every business man, and every man who believes in the philosophy of Christianity should bow his head in shame that we have such laws, after the heritage that our fathers gave us. We have sold our liberty for a mess of pottage!

AMERICAN FRONTIERS NOT CLOSED

Those people who themselves have never added to the wealth of the world are the ones we hear most often proclaiming that the American frontiers are closed and, as a result, the government must look after the people. The important frontiers are new ways of harnessing the forces of nature.

Robert Millikan, in his book "The Evolution of Science and Religion," written 12 years ago says that six million people are now supported by the electric industries. But when the President of the United States says "our industrial plant is built," with that kind of leadership, there is little wonder that the rank and file of people are constantly yelling that the American frontiers are closed, as an alibi for getting on some made-work, or dole, by the government.

were forbidden to consult with the cooperative's physicians, and that "white lists" of approved medical institutions were published, on which the cooperative's name did not appear. The American Medical Association has not yet filed its reply to these charges.

As early as last March it was apparent that the Government intended to force the hand of organized medicine. At the annual meeting of the Medical Association held in June Miss Josephine Roche, on behalf of the Administration, asked that the appalling facts revealed by the National Health Survey be faced. A month later came the National Health Conference in Washington, where labor unions, farmers' organizations and women's clubs, all politically powerful, endorsed the Interdepartmental Committee's health program. The American Medical Association insisted that medicine was evolving satisfactorily with the times but expressed a willingness to aid the Government in drafting a medical policy which would be acceptable to organized medicine. Back of the present proceeding lies the still unanswered question of providing adequate medical care for the needy without resorting to compulsory insurance. This larger question cannot be settled in court.

THE WAGNER ACT TOTTERS (N. Y. Herald Tribune)

The attitude of the New Deal toward industry is best expressed in the Wagner act. Therefore, whenever it appears that drastic amendment of this act has legislative support one gathers the notion that the New Deal is through. Consider the remarks on the subject by Senator M. M. Logan, of Kentucky, one of the most regular and loyal of New Deal Senators. Senator Logan has found an "overwhelming" sentiment in the upper house for amendment of the Wagner act, so much so that he predicts that "if John L. Lewis and Secretary Perkins insist upon no amendments, there ought to be enough votes to repeal the whole law." Obviously, it is no longer a question whether we shall have a law which deals justly with employer as well as employee, but whether the Federal government shall be empowered to pass judgment on industrial relations. To this pass has come the revolt against the New Deal.

The New Boy

Fair Enough

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—It is a hell of a commentary on American intelligence that any man can stand before the people so soon, historically speaking, after the Russian revolution and convince any considerable portion of them that the upheaval was artificially engineered from the outside by a mysterious group of plotters in white wigs known as the "International bankers." And that the Americans at the time regarded it as anything but a glorious occurrence. Lloyd George wrote that the worms which devoured Czarist Russia were bred of its own corruption and that it fell because every fiber of the abdication of the Czar. When the revolution started Lenin was a refugee in Switzerland. Trotsky was earning a precarious living as a writer in New York. The conspirators who overthrew czarism were the Czarina and Rasputin, with the help of inept ministers whom they promoted and favored.

Lloyd George says further, on the authority of one who cannot be denied great knowledge, that the czar himself was the unconscious head of the conspiracy, who never would have been chosen by any responsible board of directors to manage any business of any magnitude. Moreover, out of his great intimate information regarding affairs at that time, he adds that the "merciful disposition" which has been attributed to the czar since his death was ill-expressed in his dealings with some of the worst of his subjects. Although the horror of the czar's fate has been permitted to temper criticism, the old Welsh manseholder says criticism cannot remain silent if "provoked by truculent challenge."

Lloyd George also quotes from Princess Radziwill's book her belief that the hatred of Rasputin, openly expressed in the best society of St. Petersburg and Moscow, was only a blind for a campaign to overthrow the czar himself. The more serious, she wrote, "was cherished by a considerable number of those sick of the graft, corruption and complete disorder and disgusted with the shallow, false and unreliable character of Nicholas II and the cold-blooded cruelty with which he was trying to suppress every aspiration toward freedom. The torrents of blood shed since he ascended the throne had alienated all respect and affection, and his subjects had come to look upon him as an impediment to the development and prosperity of Russia."

Not only that, but as reference to the files of the American papers of that period will prove to anyone who is willing to roll his own conclusions and reject adulterated package goods offered under religious labels by mass poisoners of truth, the American response to the revolution was acclamation, not repugnance. Even though this country stood to lose an ally in the impending American struggle against the Germans, American traditions and the sympathies born of those traditions were such that the people of the United States smiled through their tears or wept through their cheers with the honest, if too naive, feeling that a monster has perished, anyway.

Yet now, as evidence that it sports the vaunted American education for each to utter that which he sincerely believes to be true, and add his unit of influence to all other units of influence, and let the results work themselves out."—Spencer. Contributors are urged to confine their articles to 300 words.

Register Clearing House

Fellow Citizens: In the controversy about appointments by the district attorney elect and the board of supervisors, there is a point which needs explaining, so the public may understand the situation.

The newspapers about a year ago reported that the supervisors by county ordinance had allowed the district attorney four or five deputies and increased their salaries, on condition that they quit private practice. In short, it seems the district attorney is indebted to the supervisors both for the number of deputies allowed and for their higher salaries.

On the other hand, when the supervisors appointed special counsel, a section of statute was referred to which gave them the right to make the appointment. It further appears that after the new district attorney intimated that the county counsel, together with the deputies allowed him, were more than necessary, the supervisors expressed the opinion or hope, as stated in the newspapers, that the district attorney elect "would not appoint his fifth deputy because of the work that would be taken away from him by the appointment of the county counsel."

The point on which I seek light is: Why is the power given to the district attorney by the supervisors, to appoint deputy district attorneys, any more sacred than the authority given the supervisors by the legislature to appoint special counsel? Also, why is there a disposition on the part of some to approve of the district attorney appointing each and every one of the deputies allowed him, even when one of them may be unnecessary, and to oppose the supervisors appointing the single counsel allowed them, although the right is given them by statute?

Yours truly,

J. A. CRANSTON.

Editor Register:

In our attempt to discover the solution to the present social problems, we are criticized because the public reacts to what is termed, the negative approach. This is due to a false philosophy, that constructive truth is always positive. We forget truth is neither positive nor negative. It is always neutral, the balance of two extremes, the combination of both positive and negative.

For instance, we do not run our autos on either the positive or negative poles of the battery. It is when we turn the switch, and combine the two poles that we develop a neutral power which runs the motor. In our attempt to discover the solution to the present social problems, we are criticized because the public reacts to what is termed, the negative approach. This is due to a false philosophy, that constructive truth is always positive. We forget truth is neither positive nor negative. It is always neutral, the balance of two extremes, the combination of both positive and negative.

YOU AND YOUR Nation's Affairs

Brains Produce Wealth

By GUS W. DYER

Professor of Economics and Sociology, Vanderbilt University

When it is reported that a business executive is paid a salary as large as that of the President of the United States, we may expect someone to ask for an investigation. The very general feeling that large salaries in business are not earned is due in the first place, to the fact that it is difficult for the man who is receiving a small salary to understand how any body can earn a large salary.

In the second place, the host of big salaries is due to a very general ignorance of the nature of production. It is difficult for the average person to divorce himself from the idea that the production of wealth is almost solely a physical process. He regards production as the work of the hands, and hence gives small place to those who do no physical work.

As a matter of fact the effective production of wealth is pre-eminently an intellectual rather than a physical process. It is the brain, not the hands, that is the great producer. The production of wealth is only in a very limited sense a physical process. Workers in business may be divided into four classes—common laborers, semi-skilled laborers, skilled laborers and those who exercise the directive function. The work of common labor is almost altogether physical. The work of the semi-skilled is predominantly physical. The work of the highly skilled is predominantly intellectual; the work of those who exercise directive skill is altogether intellectual.

The differences in the compensation of these four classes are not due to any discrimination against any class in favor of other classes. Under industrial freedom, the compensations of all the classes are fixed by natural forces and are determined under the same law. The differences are due entirely to the scarcity of productive brains in business. It is scarcity and scarcity alone that determine the values of all commodities and all services on the open market. The compensation of the common laborer is small because his services are not scarce, and his productive power is small. The salary of the great executive is large, because directive brains are extremely scarce, and the productive power of a great directive brain is almost unlimited.

No man can produce much wealth with his hands, however skillful he may be. Those who work with their hands consume almost as much as they produce. As long as society is dependent on handworkers for production society remained poor. Our immense wealth in this country today is due primarily to the great directive brains of American business leaders.

Henry Ford, it is said, has a fortune of over a billion dollars. This great fortune is not the product of a certain amount of capital and labor combined in the automobile business. These were only instrumentalities used by Ford in his great directive work. This billion dollars of new wealth added to the wealth of this country by Mr. Ford is the product of his brain. He created it through the exercise of his great directive skill. That which is true of Mr. Ford is true of every other successful director of business.

There is nothing strange about the so-called big salaries of successful business men. It is highly proper that they should receive salaries that are many times that of men who exercise directive skill is altogether intellectual.

(Address questions to the author, care of this newspaper)

News Behind The News

By PAUL MALLON

World Copyright 1938 by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

(Our appetite for profits drew us into the last war; therefore, we should amend the neutrality act to cease trade with fighting nations arbitrarily "when a state of war exists." So says Senator Gerald P. Nye who will try to get congress to do it at the session opening next week.

Nye who will emerge this coming session as leader of the resistance to President Roosevelt's neutrality views, tells some news before the news of the coming debate as well as the implications behind it in his following guest column setting forth his views.—Paul Mallon.)

BY GERALD P. NYE

Republican Senator from North Dakota

WASHINGTON, December 27.—Neutrality is just what the world implies. Too many people seem to labor under the impression that the neutrality act was something conceived to help the side we liked in war and hurt the side that we learned to dislike.

Too many people fail to know just what was the cause and what constitutes the purpose behind the act, which I consider the greatest advance ever made against the danger of being dragged into other peoples' wars.

Behind the neutrality act is a train of experience and an exercise of common sense.

Our participation in the world war, the wealth poured and still being poured into it, the heartbreak and the broken homes occasioned by it,—this plus the knowledge that there was gained no cause alleged at the time of our entry as responsible for our participation in it, has caused Americans to want to make sure that we don't repeat what has proven futile cost and waste. To avoid repetition first requires a knowledge of what real forces and causes did actually take us into that war.

Studies made very definitely establish the fact that nothing played so large a part in taking us to war as did our individual and collective appetites for the profits we found available from Europe's war.

To continue a satisfying of our appetite required pressure to set aside every safeguard erected to keep us out of war. It required finally our financing the allied cause if our war boom was to be continued. Never once did the Wilson effort to maintain a neutrality come in conflict with this appetite for profit from war without finding the neutrality effort set aside. Our urge for more and more of profit from war finally found this hopelessness picture painted by Ambassador Page in a cablegram to the President.

"... An international condition most alarming to the American financial and industrial outlook... perhaps our going to war is the only way in which our trade position can be maintained and a panic averted."

"... The pressure of this approaching crisis has gone beyond the ability of the Morgan financial agency for the British and French starved, and fatalistic? They will need a complete social regeneration, a new beginning. The problem of India will prove the falsity of the expectation, that Unionism will laboring classes, and usher in Utopia. Yet this false philosophy spreads almost unchallenged in these modern days. However, we must recognize the fact, that Unionism is an effect. It is an attempt to remedy an unjust condition. It is a necessity in the present economic set up. The Cause is far more insidious and ruinous, but that is a subject we cannot discuss at this time.

This means, we must discover a saner basis upon which to build an ideal social order. Up to the present time, we have not discovered a more comprehensive and workable program than the philosophy of the One whose birthday we have just observed. It is a strange paradox to the Xmas season, that in spite of all our songs and church services, we have not taken time to study the Philosophy of Jesus as the basis of a distinctively new economic idealism.

EDWIN O. COLBECK.

A Bid for a Smile

NATURE'S WAY

Teacher—Can anyone tell me what causes trees to become petrified?

Bright Student—The wind makes them rock.—Worcester Gazette.

Better Advertise That Vacancy Now And Rent It Before January 1st.

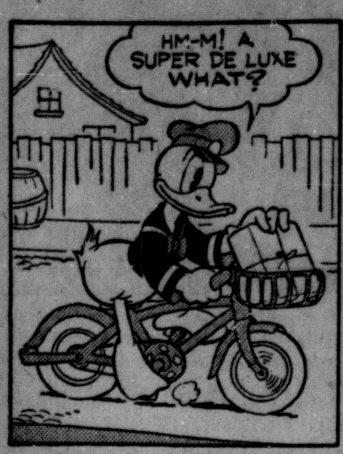

Classified advertisements per counted line. One insertion 10c; three insertions, 25c; per week 75c; by the month, $1.50; per line. Minimum charge, 45c. Count 5 words per line. Advertisements taken by phone.

Phone 6121.

DONALD DUCK

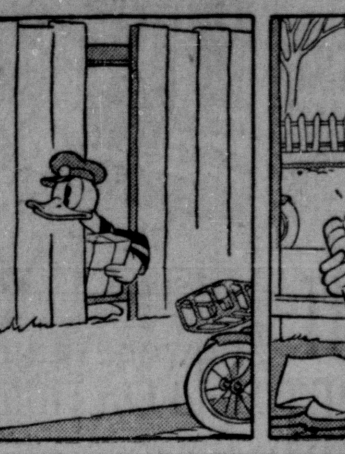

For Noney People

By WALT DISNEY

EXCHANGE FOR HERE.

Ray Goodcell

37 Houses

(Continued)
3 Bdrm. hse. 805 S. Garnsey. Vacant Jan. 1st. Ph. 6032.
NEW 2-bdrm. duplex. North part of Town. Unfur. ROY RUSSELL. Phone 200.
NEW Duplex, newly furn. Inq. 1045 W. 2nd.

43 Stores & Offices

OFFICE space for rent at 1318 No. Main.
FOR RENT—Office space. Desk and chairs. Reception room, priv. of- fice. B. B. Co. 711 No. Main. Phone 4680.

REAL ESTATE

For Sale
CLOSING
Large 4 bedroom home, all modern, furnace, fireplace, tile, large lot, $4750 and a bargain.
STEBBINS REALTY CO.
602 No. Main St. Phone 1314.

Special Notices

REWEAVING, alter, sewing, refitting a specialty. Ph. 1571-W. 709 Minter.
For work, all kinds, dresses altered, coats re-lined. 117 W. 4th. 320-W.
PUBLIC stenographer—
417 1st Nat'l Bank Phone 3664-R
LICENSED boarding home for children by mo. 1663 East 1st st. 2 houses. 2400-Lyon St.
LADIES—GENTS—Half sole, 75c & $1. Ladies' heels 25c. Work guar. Calif. Shoe Shop, 121 W. 3rd.
PSYCHIC Readings 10 to 9. Advice on all problems. 425 E. 1st.
SEWING of all kinds. 224 E. Edinger Mrs. V. L. E. Readings 60c. 10 to 6. 1017 No. Parton.

Travel Opportunities

GOING to Oklahoma by way of Dallas and Fort Worth Jan. 1. Take 2 or 3 Share expenses. 1247 W. 4th.
LEAVING for Oklahoma about Dec. 29th. Take 1 Share. 1219 Fairview.
LEAVING for Oklahoma, Arkansas, Kansas City. Take two, share. Room 7, 324 Plaza. Santa Ana, Orange.
DRIVING to San Antonio, Texas. Jan. 1. Take 1 or 2, drive and share. Phone 3085-M.
WILL take two, Phoenix, Thursday. Share. 215 East 4th.
DRIVING to St. Louis, Missouri. Jan. 1st. Take 2 share and drive. Ph. 5240. Placencia 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.
TRAVELING to San Fran. Thurs. Need 4 pass. share exp. Notify Wed. G. B. Gordon. La Habra. Phone Whittier 31449.

Lost & Found

BAR PIN. 3 1/2 in. 25 diamonds, lost bet. Nov. 8 and 12. Lib. Reward. Topis & Harding, 119 So. Broadway, Los Angeles. Mutual 2381.
LOST—Brooch with letter R, near Grand Central Market. Phone 2254.
LOST—Black shaggy haired dog. Reward. Phone 6055.
$10 reward for return of small black suit case. Lost Dec. 23, on highway entering Tustin. Write M. L. Herrick, Mecca, Calif.
LOST—1 pair of rimless eye glasses in vicinity of Fruit and Lucy. Notify Al Miller, 1040 West 3rd. Phone 61.
LOST—Black billfold containing papers and driver's license. Reward. E. Box 75. Register.
LOST—Tan handbag containing clothing, Xmas packages and money. Reward. 1720 West 2nd.
FOUND—Foxhound. Owner identify and pay for ad. 2149 Elden Ave., Costa Mesa.
LOST—Boston terrier, female pup. from 2215 Greenleaf, Christmas night. Phone 6661-R.

Autos for Sale

CORD
1936 Sedan. Cream finish, maroon upholstery. Excellent condition. Owner leaving country. Sacrifice $535. Laguna Beach, Box 9336; Ph. 6133.

CHEVROLET

1936 CHEVROLET COUPE. This is no ordinary automobile. It carries over 1000 lbs. unconditioned guarantee and is absolutely right. It's real value is far beyond $428 the price asked.

EASY G.M.A.C. TERMS.

B. J. MacMullen

Your Local Chevrolet Dealer.

1st and Sycamore Sts. Ph. 442

PRICES REDUCED

90 DAY GUARANTEE
Buy Your Used Packard Today.
1936 "120" Packard Sedan, original finish, low mileage, shows good care, for sale. $375.
1936 "120" Packard Sedan, with radio, beautiful body, low mileage, low price, only $350.
1935 "120" Packard Sedan, 26,000 miles. A local car. Upholstering like new. Runs fine. $325.
OTHER MAKES
1937 Terraplane 4r. Sedan. Refinished in Canada. Blue. 2400 miles. Guaranteed for 90 days. $375.
1936 Graham Cavalier 7r. Sedan. Renewed and guaranteed, only $425.
Also several other cheaper cars.
407 WEST 5TH ST. OPEN EVEN.

W. W. WOODS

REO DEALER
615-19 E. Fourth St. Phone 4642

Bartelson Pontiac Co.

Good Used Cars

1939 LICENSE AND PERSONAL PROPERTY TAX PAID BY US

26 Dodge 4-dr. Trunk Sedan. $575
27 Chevrolet Tr. Sedan. radio. $565
28 Pontiac 4r. 4-dr. sedan. radio. $455
29 Stude. 4-dr. Trunk Sedan. $475
30 Pontiac 4r. Coupe. $445
31 De Soto 6r. Coupe. $425
32 Buick 4-dr. Sed. like new. $425
33 Pontiac 4-dr. Sedan. $365
34 Terraplane Trunk Sedan. $380
35 Pontiac 4-dr. Sedan. $345
36 Ford Coupe, reconditioned. $325
37 Chevrolet De Luxe Coupe. $325
38 Chevrolet 2-dr. Sedan. $325
39 Lafayette 2-dr. Sedan. $325
40 Ford Coupe. $325
41 Chrysler 6 Coupe. $325
42 Ford Tudor Sedan. $325
43 Essex Coupe. $325
44 De Soto 6r. Coupe. $325
45 Ford Roadster. $325

Used Trucks—All Sizes

Truck Sales Co.—G.M.C. Dealers
505 FRENCH ST. PHONE 654
FORD Pickup, good rubber and just overhauled. Ph. 503-R. Santa Ana. Foothill Blvd., Newport Road.
USED trucks, flats, dumps and pickups, all ready to go to work. TRADE—TERMS
W. W. WOODS
REO DEALER
615-19 E. Fourth St. Phone 4642

9-A Trucks for Rent

ARROW-UDRIVE
DO your own hauling. New trucks for rent. 75c per hour. Special day and weekly rates. Rent Auto Park 2nd and Bush Phone 1202

12 Money to Loan

1ST & 2ND MORTGAGES $100 UP
Immediate. No time. 654
Vacant lots, homes, money at once. Tax. Terms. Hayward Lumber and Investment Co., 200 26th St., Newport. Phone 8.

W. W. WOODS

REO DEALER
615-19 E. Fourth St. Phone 4642

Auto Loans

Lowest Rates—Easy Monthly Pay- ments—Immediate Service.
Mortgages and Trust Deeds. Pur- chased and will accept them as security for loan.
Federal Finance Co., Inc.
429 No. Sycamore, Santa Ana, Calif.

AUTO LOANS

Borrow on your car or truck. Cash immediately. No time. 654
Lowest Rates. Low monthly pay- ments. Immediate service. 654
Mortgages and Trust Deeds. Pur- chased and will accept them as security for loan.
WESTERN FINANCE CO.
1209 So. Main, Santa Ana. Ph. 1470.

22 Poultry & Supplies

Turkeys, ducks, fryers, hens. Ph. 4136
SELECT your holiday bird from Orange County's largest turkey flock. Fed to produce the finest quality and greatest per centage of meat per bird. Wagner Turkey Ranch, Ball Road and Sunkist Ave. 1 mile south and 1 1/2 miles east of Anaheim. Ph. 4036 Anaheim

28 Home Furnishings

SEE MR. FINLEY
ALLIANCE MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO.
Pacific Bldg. 3rd & Broadway Phone 6050

31 Miscellaneous

FOR OLD GOLD & STERLING.
Cup, glass, silverplate, pressed glass, old china, Eric-4-brag, old chairs, antiques. 105 West Third St.
NEW Olan fur machine. Cheap. W. First at Sullivan.
FOR SALE—2 gas heaters, good condition. 1227 West Highland.

32 Poultry & Supplies

Turkeys, ducks, fryers, hens. Ph. 4136
SELECT your holiday bird from Orange County's largest turkey flock. Fed to produce the finest quality and greatest per centage of meat per bird. Wagner Turkey Ranch, Ball Road and Sunkist Ave. 1 mile south and 1 1/2 miles east of Anaheim. Ph. 4036 Anaheim

33 Autos for Sale

1936 Dodge 4 SEDAN, clean. $497
1936 DODGE 6 SED. Clean. $497
1936 DODGE 6 SEDAN. $4217
1936 DODGE 6 SEDAN. $4347
1936 DODGE DLX. SEDAN. $387
1936 DODGE TRUNK SED. $557
1936 DODGE DLX. COUPE. $587
1936 DODGE TR. SED. Radio. $677
1936 DODGE DLX. CPE. Rad. $877
1936 DODGE SED. Trk. Rad. $577
1936 DODGE PANEL DEL. $677
1936 CHEV. COUPE. Radio. $547
1936 CHEV. COUPE. Radio. $677
1936 CHEV. SEDAN. Radio. $627
1936 CHEV. SEDAN. Perfect $497
1936 FORD CPE. Newingtons $247
1936 FORD COUPE. $347
1936 FORD COUPE. Radio. $427
1936 FORD SEDAN. $347
1936 GRAHAM SEDAN. $347
1936 PONTIAC 6 COUPE. $417
1936 DURANT 6 SEDAN. $387
1936 HUMPHIRE 6 SEDAN. $387
1936 CHEVROLET COUPE. $377

34 Money to Loan

1 to 18 mos. to repay—1929 to 1939 cars, light trucks and out-of-state cars.
CONSUMERS CREDIT
(DIVISION OF PACIFIC FINANCE)
608 No. Main St.
Santa Ana Hotel Bldg.
$4,000 to Loan. Crawford. Ph. 161
6%—HOME LOANS—6.5%
FIRST FEDERAL SAVINGS & LOAN ASSN. OF SANTA ANA
5th & Sycamore. Masonic Bldg.
MONEY at 6% on homes. Ranches. Alaman, 210 Otis Bldg. Ph. 5555.

35 Autos for Sale

1936 Dodge 4 SEDAN, clean. $497
1936 DODGE 6 SED. Clean. $497
1936 DODGE 6 SEDAN. $4217
1936 DODGE 6 SEDAN. $4347
1936 DODGE DLX. SEDAN. $387
1936 DODGE TRUNK SED. $557
1936 DODGE DLX. COUPE. $587
1936 DODGE TR. SED. Radio. $677
1936 DODGE DLX. CPE. Rad. $877
1936 DODGE SED. Trk. Rad. $577
1936 DODGE PANEL DEL. $677
1936 CHEV. COUPE. Radio. $547
1936 CHEV. COUPE. Radio. $677
1936 CHEV. SEDAN. Radio. $627
1936 CHEV. SEDAN. Perfect $497
1936 FORD CPE. Newingtons $247
1936 FORD COUPE. $347
1936 FORD COUPE. Radio. $427
1936 FORD SEDAN. $347
1936 GRAHAM SEDAN. $347
1936 PONTIAC 6 COUPE. $417
1936 DURANT 6 SEDAN. $387
1936 HUMPHIRE 6 SEDAN. $387
1936 CHEVROLET COUPE. $377

Did - - You - - Ever

Get Anything for Nothing

Neither Did We!

But You Can Get

DOLLAR FOR DOLLAR VALUE IN ONE OF OUR GUARANTEED REPENDABLE RECONDITIONED USED CARS.

1934 DODGE 4 SEDAN, clean. $497
1934 DODGE 6 SED. Clean. $497
1934 DODGE 6 SEDAN. $4217
1934 DODGE 6 SEDAN. $4347
1934 DODGE DLX. SEDAN. $387
1934 DODGE TRUNK SED. $557
1934 DODGE DLX. COUPE. $587
1934 DODGE TR. SED. Radio. $677
1934 DODGE DLX. CPE. Rad. $877
1934 DODGE SED. Trk. Rad. $577
1934 DODGE PANEL DEL. $677
1934 CHEV. COUPE. Radio. $547
1934 CHEV. COUPE. Radio. $677
1934 CHEV. SEDAN. Radio. $627
1934 CHEV. SEDAN. Perfect $497
1934 FORD CPE. Newingtons $247
1934 FORD COUPE. $347
1934 FORD COUPE. Radio. $427
1934 FORD SEDAN. $347
1934 GRAHAM SEDAN. $347
1934 PONTIAC 6 COUPE. $417
1934 DURANT 6 SEDAN. $387
1934 HUMPHIRE 6 SEDAN. $387
1934 CHEVROLET COUPE. $377

Interstate Finance Co.

Auto and Furniture Loan
307 No. Main Phone 2347

AUTOMOBILES

HOUSEHOLD GOODS

LOANS UP TO SEVERAL HUNDRED DOLLARS

SPED - - PRIVACY

AND FLEXIBLE TERMS ARE FEATURES OF OUR SIMPLIFIED LOAN SERVICE

L. D. COFFING CO.

Your Local Dodge-Plymouth Dealer

311 EAST 5TH STREET

YEAR END SALE

36 OLDS. "8" TOUR. SEDAN
Radio. Beautiful black finish. Motor, three upholstery in excellent condition. Years of dependable transportation at a bargain price. $599
G. M. A. C. Terms

40

MORE REAL BARGAINS TO CHOOSE FROM. SEE THEM TODAY

W. R. (Stormy) GORDON

"Your Buick Dealer"
Used Car Lot—6th & Spurgeon
OPEN EVENINGS

101 Auto Salvage Offers

1932 Dodge Sed. Just painted.
1930 Ford Town Sedan, 16 in. wire wheels, new paint.
Also Ford 1931 Panel Truck and 1930 Ford Station wagon.
1 1/2 Mile No. Orange Co. Hospital.
1933 DODGE, by owner. Very low mileage. Shows excellent car. Big discount. 1844 W. 17th. Call 6318-W.

6 Auto Service

MOVED ACROSS THE STREET
Jerry Hall Tire Serv. 2nd & Main.
SPECIALIZED brake service costs no more. Bill Clarke, 605 West 5th St. Phone 2200

5 Autos Wanted

MOST Cash for Model A Fords and light cars. Ben La Monica, 217 E. Chapman, Orange. Phone 581-W.

6 Auto Trailers

WANTED—Used modern house trailer. Double walls. Must be reasonable. Give particulars. Write E. Box 76. Register.

9 Trucks & Tractors

1936 Ten Wheeler Chev. Truck. Langlois body. Brownline trans. Will carry at $50 per month. 101 Auto Salvage 1/2 mi. No. Orange County Hospital.

Used Trucks—All Sizes

Truck Sales Co.—G.M.C. Dealers
505 FRENCH ST. PHONE 654
FORD Pickup, good rubber and just overhauled. Ph. 503-R. Santa Ana. Foothill Blvd., Newport Road.
USED trucks, flats, dumps and pickups, all ready to go to work. TRADE—TERMS
W. W. WOODS
REO DEALER
615-19 E. Fourth St. Phone 4642

9-A Trucks for Rent

ARROW-UDRIVE
DO your own hauling. New trucks for rent. 75c per hour. Special day and weekly rates. Rent Auto Park 2nd and Bush Phone 1202

12 Money to Loan

1ST & 2ND MORTGAGES $100 UP
Immediate. No time. 654
Vacant lots, homes, money at once. Tax. Terms. Hayward Lumber and Investment Co., 200 26th St., Newport. Phone 8.

W. W. WOODS

REO DEALER
615-19 E. Fourth St. Phone 4642

Bartelson Pontiac Co.

Good Used Cars

1939 LICENSE AND PERSONAL PROPERTY TAX PAID BY US

26 Dodge 4-dr. Trunk Sedan. $575
27 Chevrolet Tr. Sedan. radio. $565
28 Pontiac 4r. 4-dr. sedan. radio. $455
29 Stude. 4-dr. Trunk Sedan. $475
30 Pontiac 4r. Coupe. $445
31 De Soto 6r. Coupe. $425
32 Buick 4-dr. Sed. like new. $425
33 Pontiac 4-dr. Sedan. $365
34 Terraplane Trunk Sedan. $380
35 Pontiac 4-dr. Sedan. $345
36 Ford Coupe, reconditioned. $325
37 Chevrolet De Luxe Coupe. $325
38 Chevrolet 2-dr. Sedan. $325
39 Lafayette 2-dr. Sedan. $325
40 Ford Coupe. $325
41 Chrysler 6 Coupe. $325
42 Ford Tudor Sedan. $325
43 Essex Coupe. $325
44 De Soto 6r. Coupe. $325
45 Ford Roadster. $325

Used Trucks—All Sizes

Truck Sales Co.—G.M.C. Dealers
505 FRENCH ST. PHONE 654
FORD Pickup, good rubber and just overhauled. Ph. 503-R. Santa Ana. Foothill Blvd., Newport Road.
USED trucks, flats, dumps and pickups, all ready to go to work. TRADE—TERMS
W. W. WOODS
REO DEALER
615-19 E. Fourth St. Phone 4642

9-A Trucks for Rent

ARROW-UDRIVE
DO your own hauling. New trucks for rent. 75c per hour. Special day and weekly rates. Rent Auto Park 2nd and Bush Phone 1202

12 Money to Loan

1ST & 2ND MORTGAGES $100 UP
Immediate. No time. 654
Vacant lots, homes, money at once. Tax. Terms. Hayward Lumber and Investment Co., 200 26th St., Newport. Phone 8.

W. W. WOODS

REO DEALER
615-19 E. Fourth St. Phone 4642

Bartelson Pontiac Co.

Good Used Cars

1939 LICENSE AND PERSONAL PROPERTY TAX PAID BY US

26 Dodge 4-dr. Trunk Sedan. $575
27 Chevrolet Tr. Sedan. radio. $565
28 Pontiac 4r. 4-dr. sedan. radio. $455
29 Stude. 4-dr. Trunk Sedan. $475
30 Pontiac 4r. Coupe. $445
31 De Soto 6r. Coupe. $425
32 Buick 4-dr. Sed. like new. $425
33 Pontiac 4-dr. Sedan. $365
34 Terraplane Trunk Sedan. $380
35 Pontiac 4-dr. Sedan. $345
36 Ford Coupe, reconditioned. $325
37 Chevrolet De Luxe Coupe. $325
38 Chevrolet 2-dr. Sedan. $325
39 Lafayette 2-dr. Sedan. $325
40 Ford Coupe. $325
41 Chrysler 6 Coupe. $325
42 Ford Tudor Sedan. $325
43 Essex Coupe. $325
44 De Soto 6r. Coupe. $325
45 Ford Roadster. $325

Used Trucks—All Sizes

Truck Sales Co.—G.M.C. Dealers
505 FRENCH ST. PHONE 654
FORD Pickup, good rubber and just overhauled. Ph. 503-R. Santa Ana. Foothill Blvd., Newport Road.
USED trucks, flats, dumps and pickups, all ready to go to work. TRADE—TERMS
W. W. WOODS
REO DEALER
615-19 E. Fourth St. Phone 4642

9-A Trucks for Rent

ARROW-UDRIVE
DO your own hauling. New trucks for rent. 75c per hour. Special day and weekly rates. Rent Auto Park 2nd and Bush Phone 1202

12 Money to Loan

1ST & 2ND MORTGAGES $100 UP
Immediate. No time. 654
Vacant lots, homes, money at once. Tax. Terms. Hayward Lumber and Investment Co., 200 26th St., Newport. Phone 8.

W. W. WOODS

REO DEALER
615-19 E. Fourth St. Phone 4642

Bartelson Pontiac Co.

Good Used Cars

1939 LICENSE AND PERSONAL PROPERTY TAX PAID BY US

26 Dodge 4-dr. Trunk Sedan. $575
27 Chevrolet Tr. Sedan. radio. $565
28 Pontiac 4r. 4-dr. sedan. radio. $455
29 Stude. 4-dr. Trunk Sedan. $475
30 Pontiac 4r. Coupe. $445
31 De Soto 6r. Coupe. $425
32 Buick 4-dr. Sed. like new. $425
33 Pontiac 4-dr. Sedan. $365
34 Terraplane Trunk Sedan. $380
35 Pontiac 4-dr. Sedan. $345
36 Ford Coupe, reconditioned. $325
37 Chevrolet De Luxe Coupe. $325
38 Chevrolet 2-dr. Sedan. $325
39 Lafayette 2-dr. Sedan. $325
40 Ford Coupe. $325
41 Chrysler 6 Coupe. $325
42 Ford Tudor Sedan. $325
43 Essex Coupe. $325
44 De Soto 6r. Coupe. $325
45 Ford Roadster. $325

Used Trucks—All Sizes

Truck Sales Co.—G.M.C. Dealers
505 FRENCH ST. PHONE 654
FORD Pickup, good rubber and just overhauled. Ph. 503-R. Santa Ana. Foothill Blvd., Newport Road.
USED trucks, flats, dumps and pickups, all ready to go to work. TRADE—TERMS
W. W. WOODS
REO DEALER
615-19 E. Fourth St. Phone 4642

9-A Trucks for Rent

ARROW-UDRIVE
DO your own hauling. New trucks for rent. 75c per hour. Special day and weekly rates. Rent Auto Park 2nd and Bush Phone 1202

A NEW LENDING SERVICE FOR SANTA ANA

$20 to $1,000 on your car

CONSUMERS CREDIT

(DIVISION OF PACIFIC FINANCE)
608 No. Main St.
Santa Ana Hotel Bldg.
$4,000 to Loan. Crawford. Ph. 161
6%—HOME LOANS—6.5%
FIRST FEDERAL SAVINGS & LOAN ASSN. OF SANTA ANA
5th & Sycamore. Masonic Bldg.
MONEY at 6% on homes. Ranches. Alaman, 210 Otis Bldg. Ph. 5555.

LATE NEWS FROM ORANGE

YOUNG PEOPLE
HOLD BANQUET

ORANGE, Dec. 28.—"Wings" was the theme of the 10th annual Christmas season banquet held by young people of the Presbyterian church last night at the church dining hall.

Guests Introduced
Dr. Robert Burns Macaulay offered grace after which Miss Suzanne Clark welcomed the guests. Miss Marion Linnert gave the response. Miss Ellen McCollum, who was general chairman of the banquet, introduced special guests, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lush, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Smiley, the Rev. and Mrs. Jay Davenport and the speaker.

The Rev. Harry Owens, pastor of the First Baptist church in Santa Ana, was the speaker, and chose the topic, "Wings". Sharing the program as a speaker was David Berchum, a student at U. C. L. A., who talked on "Wings of Youth," emphasizing the unified church.

Musical portions of the evening were furnished by Miss Esther Thomas, who played incidental music on the marimbaphone, and Thomas Flippin, who sang two solos, "Song of the Open Road" and "Without a Song," accompanied by Miss Eleanor Buckles.

Party Hostesses
Hostesses were Misses Hattie Arends, chairman; Melba Estes, Elizabeth Welsh, Betty Bergen, Catherine Brewer, Bettie Hobbs, Margaret Hughes, Maxine Huber, Iolene Schmidt, Agnes Adams, Mrs. Duane Armstrong, Mrs. Glen Allen, Mrs. Willard Galey, Miss Suzanne Clark was program chairman, Miss Maxine Huber and Miss Iolene Schmidt, decoration chairman. The painting was done by Bill Snodgrass.

Silverado Holds
Holiday Affair

SILVERADO, Dec. 28.—The banquet hall of Baker's cafe in Silverado was the setting for the annual Christmas party given for young people of the canyon. The party was sponsored by Mrs. George J. Baker and made possible by Silverado residents.

Those serving on the various committees were as follows: Finances, Mesdames Leo E. Clark and Robert Lancaster; gifts, Mesdames Ed Freeman, N. C. Fassett, William Smith, Louis P. Cook and Charles Limer; decorations and lighting, Daniel M. Waite, Leo E. Clark; stage setting and entertainment, Mesdames Clyde H. Gilbert, Thomas Beaulieu, Miss Marquita Johnson and Thomas Beaulieu; N. C. Fassett, Kenneth Brand, Harry Conway, C. Brown and Guy Graves.

Mistletoe, holly wreaths, candles and large Christmas tree decorated with many colored lights created a festive atmosphere for the party. A tableau of "The Birth of Christ" was presented while the carolers under the supervision of Freddie Graves and Victor Johnson sang "Silent Night". The manger was improvised at one end of the hall. Mary was portrayed by Mrs. Charles Mason and the Christ Child by Baby Charles Mason, Jr. Ernest Smith, John Kirby, Jr., and George Brand enacted the Three Wise Men. This was followed by distribution of gifts by old St. Nicholas, William Howell, to 80 boys and girls.

The serving of fruit punch, cake, and coffee by high school girls to about 200 participants climaxed the is mighty lucky. His mother knows how very good CALIFORNIA SODA CRACKERS are with soups and salads; the zestful base they make for appetizers and spreads. Because mother enjoys them, he gets his share.

THIS YOUNG FELLOW

...AND NOW VITAMIN D HAS BEEN ADDED ALONG WITH CALCIUM AND PHOSPHORUS. The entire family enjoys them and find them always the same—Creamy, Flaky, and distinctively delicious. Mildly salted for added zest.

ONE AND TWO POUND PACKAGES FOR ECONOMY

By the makers of Vitaminized California Fig Cookies

Contains: 1800 International Units of VITAMIN D per pound—plus CALCIUM and PHOSPHORUS

ADDED: VITAMIN D CALCIUM AND PHOSPHORUS

BUILDING PERMITS FOR PAST
YEAR SHOW $50,000 INCREASE

ORANGE, Dec. 28.—Building permits for 1938 exceeded those of 1937 by approximately $50,000, according to figures at the office of Building Inspector Frank Dale. Dale stated the past year had been the best since 1931.

The past year building permits totaled $233,345. In 1937 the total was $190,050. In the previous record year of 1931, permits were $233,294.

Dale pointed out today that the majority of the permits for the past year have been for homes and remodeling. A $20,000 permit was issued for the erection of the Santa Fe depot. In 1931 a number of large buildings were erected. Permits for the past month totaled $21,335, while in December of 1937 they totaled 11,340. Plans have been made by a number of builders for erection of several new homes next month.

Dinner Enjoyed
In Olive Homes

OLIVE, Dec. 28.—Mr. and Mrs. George Heinemann had as their Christmas dinner guests, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Loeffers, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Suckla, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heinemann, Fred Hauptman, of San Jose, Oscar Loeffers, Clinton Loeffers, Miss Elola Heinemann and Georgene Heinemann.

Mr. Fred Hauptman, of San Jose, is spending the holiday season with his daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. George Heinemann. Gathered at the Walter Kragge home were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kragge, Mrs. Mensenkamp, Al Mensenkamp, Mr. and Mrs. William Schuster, of Fullerton, Miss Margaret Kreidt, Miss Hilma Kragge, Erwin Kragge, Edwin Kragge and Gilbert Kragge.

Christmas dinner was enjoyed Sunday evening at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Kreidt by Miss Frieda Schaa, Miss Elsie Schaa, Erwin Kragge, Miss Margaret Kreidt, Miss Grace Kreidt, Robert Kreidt and Leonard Kreidt.

At the August Heinemann ranch home were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Guenther sr., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Guenther jr., Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Guenther, of Orange, Mr. and Mrs. William Heman, of El Modena; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Meierhoff and children, Miss Lura Dotson, Miss Helen Heinemann, Miss Verna Heinemann, Miss Agnes Meierhoff, Fred Speich and Lawrence Heinemann.

Install Officers
Of Masonic Lodge

ORANGE, Dec. 28.—Officers for the coming year were installed at a meeting of Orange Grove lodge No. 293, F. and A. M. Tuesday night at the Masonic hall, with a large group in attendance. Installing officer was Henry McEasters, of Fullerton, with A. H. Allen, of Santa Ana, acting as toastmaster.

Officers are as follows: Worshipful master, Robert P. Graham; senior warden, George Weimer; junior warden, Siegfried Swanson; senior deacon, Clyde Feldner; junior deacon, J. T. McInnis; treasurer, John D. Campbell; secretary, John Lampert; marshal, J. J. Hutchins; senior steward, Martell Thompson; junior steward, Richard Evans; Tyler, W. C. Lee. J. J. Hutchins was presented with a handsome past master's ring. John D. Campbell making the presentation. Hutchins is the outgoing worshipful master. Ernst Zitzmann served as musician for the ceremony playing as the opening number "America" and the closing song, "Auld Lang Syne." Other musical numbers were given as a part of a program arranged by Robert Graham.

Conduct Funeral
Of L. W. Hemphill

ORANGE, Dec. 28.—The First Methodist church was filled to capacity yesterday afternoon when funeral services were held for L. W. Hemphill, 64, who passed away Friday at his home near Santa Ana. Mr. Hemphill, prominent in civic and church life in Orange, had lived in California 63 years.

Officiating at the services were the Rev. Arthur T. Hobson, pastor of the church, and the Rev. L. W. Lucas, former pastor here but now of Pomona. Musical selections were given by a quartet composed of Harold Gilton, Carl Stuckey, Lyman Harpster and James Nuchols, with Miss Eleanor Buckles at the organ. They sang "Lighty God" and "Under His Wing" and at entertainment services at Fairhaven mausoleum, "Shall We See". Pallbearers were W. T. Syester, L. L. Williams, S. B. Edwards, Henry Terry, Russell Kenyon, all of Orange, and Llewellyn Davis of Tustin.

Mr. Hemphill leaves his widow, Mrs. Flossie Hemphill; one brother, Earl, of Los Angeles, and a sister, Mrs. Alice Ellsworth of Long Beach.

PUPILS ENTERTAINED
ORANGE, Dec. 28.—Miss Elsie Sorenson entertained her music pupils and their parents and friends on North Cambridge recently with a Christmas piano party. Her studio was decorated in keeping with the Christmas theme.

Pupils participating were Donna Carpenter, Dorothy Ann Rice, Shirley Crump, Patricia Ford, Nancy Rillera, Betty Lee Black and Margaret Carpenter. After the piano selections, Christmas carols were sung by the audience, accompanied by Shirley Walker, Patricia Ford and Shirley Crump. After a gift exchange, popcorn in colorful pottery and candy were served by Miss Sorenson, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Frances Sorenson.

CHURCH NIGHT
MEETINGS SET

ORANGE, Dec. 28.—Details for the series of seven church night programs to be given at the First Methodist church Wednesday nights beginning January 4, have been announced by the pastor of the church, the Rev. Arthur T. Hobson. Dr. Carl Summer Knopf, dean of the school of religion of the University of Southern California, will be speaker for the first six nights of the series.

Topics Listed
The theme of the series is to be "Bible Answers to Modern Questions." On January 4 the topic will be "Jesus Finds a Modern World"; January 11, "Jesus Challenges a World"; January 18, "Paul Avoids Security"; February 1, "The New Testament on Democracy" and February 8, "I Am the Way".

The Rev. Laurence V. Lucas, former pastor here and now pastor of the Trinity Methodist church of Pomona, will give the final message. Suppers are to be served at 6:30 p. m. and those not caring to attend the supper will be welcome to come to the talks and program at 7 p. m.

Special music is to be arranged by the church music committee under the direction of Vernon Shippee, chairman.

Suppers Arranged
Suppers are to be served by the various church groups and classes of the church, as follows: January 4, R. P. C. class; January 11, Home Builders' class; January 18, Circles Nos. 1 and 2 of the Ladies' Aid society; January 25, Home Builders' class; February 1, Circles Nos. 3 and 4 of the Ladies' Aid society; February 8, Benediction class; February 15, S. W. class.

Friends Guests
At Holiday Party

ORANGE, Dec. 28.—For the purpose of bringing together a group of friends, Mrs. Dorothy Stadel Bosh entertained with a Christmas party at her home on North Glassell street Tuesday evening. Games of "whoopie" and "Santa Claus" were played, with Mrs. Alfred Oliphant (Betty Ross) and Miss Mary Elizabeth Heenie the prize winners. Miss Heenie also won the traveling prize.

Refreshments were served from white leather card tables, centered with a tray on which was a white angel surrounded by gilded acorn cups containing lighted tapers. Present were Miss Mary Elizabeth Heenie, Misses Virginia Buhman, Barbara Sutherland, Catherine Brewer, Eleanor Buckles, Anne Borchard, Josephine Green, all of Orange; Mrs. Virginia Humphries Paddock, Anaheim; Mrs. Betty Ross Oliphant, Balboa Island and Mrs. Miriam Powell Wright, Santa Ana.

Meeting On Water
Rates Scheduled

ORANGE, Dec. 28.—Announcement is made by H. R. Shepherd that a meeting to discuss the recent raise in water rates and other matters will be held at the Free Methodist church, corner of Almond avenue and Lemon street, tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock.

ORANGE PERSONALS

ORANGE, Dec. 28.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paul of Lindsay spent the week end with the latter's father, Addison M. Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stuckey and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Stuckey were included in the guests at a recent dinner given by the son-in-law and daughter of the former couple, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Pendleton, of Anaheim. Others present were the little daughter of the hosts, Marilee Pendleton; Mrs. Ella Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Carricker and daughter, Nola Sue; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ware and two daughters, of Anaheim.

A recent family dinner and reunion took place in the home of Homer Skiles, North Batavia street. Present were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Skiles and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Skiles and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Skiles and family, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Heard and Mr. and Mrs. Troy Heard, of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cutright, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ristow and sons, Lewis, Everett and Richard, and Miss Luella Cutright spent the week end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Swartz, of Van Nuys. Members of the Olympic club will be entertained Tuesday at a Christmas party in the home of Mrs. C. H. Adams, 132 South Clark street.

The annual meeting of the Immanuel Lutheran church will be held January 10 when the board will be elected and a budget for the year adopted, according to plans made at a meeting of a committee at the church.

SILVERADO

Mrs. Jessie Bond, of Shady Brook, is in St. Joseph hospital suffering from a broken ankle, the result of a fall.

Mrs. Val Thomas and daughter, Miss Renee Thomas, and Fred Ritcher, Miss Lynne Culbertson of Culver City and George Fries, of San Fernando, were recent dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Freeman.

MYRA NORTH, SPECIAL NURSE

Shower Affair
Held On Holiday

ORANGE, Dec. 28.—One of the loliest of Christmas parties held in Orange was given by Mrs. John Quandt and her daughter, Mrs. Arnold H. Clasen, at the home of Mrs. Quandt, 1017 East Palmyra avenue, Christmas day. The party honored their niece and cousin, Mrs. Arthur H. Brase, with a layette shower, the guests surprising Mrs. Brase after she had been a Christmas dinner guest in the home.

A beautiful Christmas tree, under which a manger scene was displayed, was the main decoration, with bowls of poinsettias and holly placed around the room. The game of "Flea" was played, with Mrs. Martin Duker winning first and Miss Irma Dankert, consolation.

Served at the tables, where each place was marked with a red and gold nut cup. The table were centered with a red taper in a mound of holly.

Invited to share the party were the honor guest's mother, Mrs. H. Rottmann; the Misses Lydia, Florence and Helen Ruff, Lydia Mueller, Irene Massmann, Elva Werel, Emma Duker, Irma Dankert, Ella Lucas, Minnie Dankert and Mesdames Norman Mueller, Oswald Ulrich, Andrew Pixton, Emil Schnackenberg, Reinhold Duker, Martin Duker, Herman Harms, Arthur Ruff, Arthur Schluster, Edgar Pargue, Melvin Liermann, Alfred Vogel and the honor guest, Mrs. Arthur Brase.

BOARD IN MEETING
ORANGE, Dec. 28.—Preparing for their annual election meeting members of the board at St. John's Lutheran church met last night at Walker Memorial hall for a business meeting clearing up 1938 business. The Rev. A. C. Bode, pastor of the church and chairman of the board, presided.

A budget of more than $400 was accepted at the November meeting and the 1939 budget will be accepted at a meeting of January 4. Plans will be made to celebrate the centennial of the Missouri synod, and the 25th anniversary of the building of St. John's Lutheran church in Orange will be celebrated January 19.

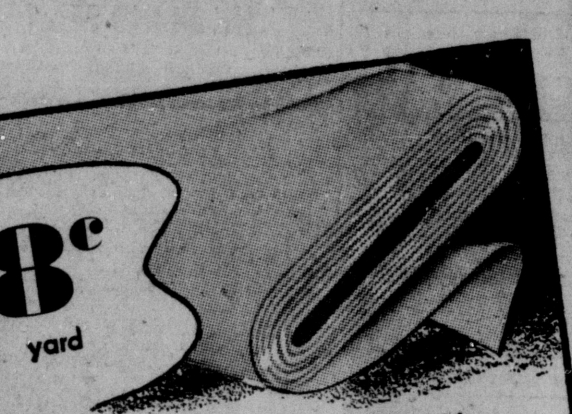

Wards
Biggest and Best
JANUARY WHITE SALE

Priced lower than today's wholesale cost! SALE!

Longwear Sheets

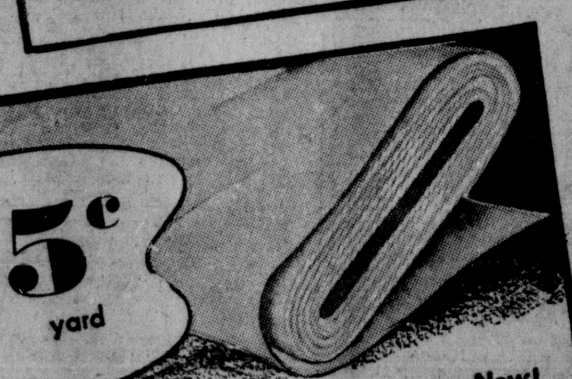

Sensational values! For everyone who wants service plus low-price! Laundry-tested, Longwears wash 234 times—equal to four-year home wear! Full bedsize, 81x99 inches! Smooth, snowy-white, strong muslin! Hand-torn, sturdy selvages! Now's the time to stock up and SAVE on an every-day necessity! For boarding houses, hotels, homes, institutions.

Sale! 72x99 in. Longwear Sheets.....69c
Sale! 81x108 in. Longwear Sheets.....89c
Sale! 21c Longwear Pillow Cases.....19c
Sale! 28c Unh. 81 in. Longwear Sheeting...24c yd.
Sale! 30c Bl. 81 in. Longwear Sheeting...26c yd.

Broadcloth

Save extra on cotton broadcloth for all sewing needs! This lustrous quality is popular for children's clothes, uniforms, shirts. SAVE ON SILVANIA PERCALE Lowest-priced prints. Tubfast. 36". 9c
80 SQUARE PINNACLES, ONLY 15c
Finest percale made! Tubfast. 36". 12c
COLONIAL PERCALES, SPECIAL Standard quality! Tubfast. 36". 12c
PETALDOWN RAYON, VALUE AT Advance spring prints. Tubfast. 39". 44c

Economy Brand! Yard Wide! Save Now!
Sale! Muslin

For all household and farm needs—at White Sale savings! Strong quality unbleached muslin! Typical Wards low price! SALE! 10c PRIDE MUSLIN Finer quality. Pure finish. 36 in. SALE! 80 SQUARE MUSLIN Regularly 9c! Unbleached. 39 in. SALE! BLEACHED MUSLIN Regularly 8c! Firmly woven. 36 in. INDIAN HAD SUITING Permanent linen finish. 36 in. 9c yd. 8c yd. 7c yd. 19c yd.

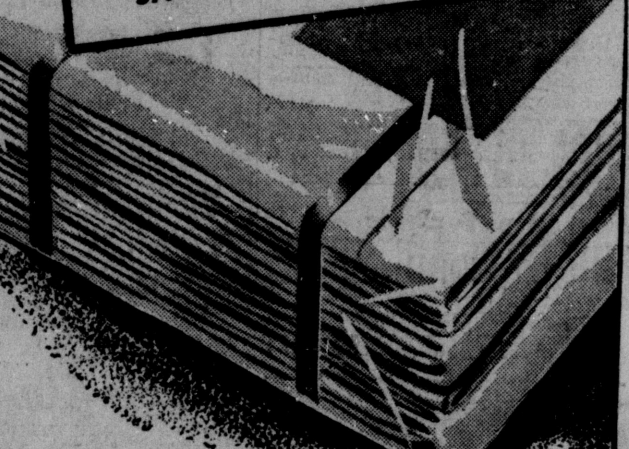

Special Purchase from Cannon!
Sale! Towels

Save 20%! Buy twelve for less than $1! Size 17x30 inches. Popular for every day use, easy to launder. Terry texture. Pastels. SAVE 16%—TURKISH TOWELS Cannon special! 20x40 in. Checks. 12c
CANNON TURKISH TOWELS High-style checks. 20x40 inches. 25c
STEVENS "P" TOWELING Sale! Regularly 20c. Part linen. 17c
SALE! BLEACHED TOWELING Stevens "P." Regularly 22c. 18 in. 19c

For Year 'Round Savings!
Blanket Sale!

Wards famous Fleece-downs made of strong American cotton! 70x80 inches.....98c pr.
Fleece-down Plaid Pairs, 70x80 inches.....198 pr.
5% WOOL PAIR BLANKET! Plaid! Sateen-bound. 70x80 inches. 97c
HEAVY INDIAN BLANKET! Suede finished cotton! 66x80 inches. 98c
HEAVY JACQUARD SPREAD! Rayon and cotton! New pattern. 98c
COTTON JACQUARD SPREAD Brand new patterns! Wards low price. 298
CHENILLE SPREAD VALUES Extra-fast colored muslin. Thick tufts.

Why is this Wards biggest White Sale? Because you save more on nationally famous Longwear, Treasure-Chest and Thrift sheets! And on Pinnacle, Silvania and Petal-down fabrics! You also save on towels, domestics and bedding! Stock up now! SAVE MONEY AT WARDS!

Sale! Wards finest $1.09
Treasure Chest
Sheets 1.05 ea.

Exceptional value! Fine muslin woven to U. S. Gov't specifications. Laundry tested 360 times—equal to 7 years' wear! 81x99 inches.

Sale! Size 81x108 in. Sheets.....1.10
Sale! Matching Pillow Cases......25c

Thrift Sheets
Size 81x99 in. 59c

Best-wearing low-priced sheet made! Laundry tested 150 times—equal to 3 years' wear! Woven of heavy sheeting yarns. Bleached. Pillow Tubing, 42 in.; special 18c yd. Unbleached Sheeting, 81 in.; now 18c yd.

THRIFT PILLOW CASES
Sturdy 64x60 count muslin! Slightly starched. 42x36 in. 10c

SALE! COTTON FLANNEL Regularly 9c! Cozy, warm, serviceable! 27 in. White. 8c

CANNON WASH CLOTHS Save on six or a dozen! Terry texture. 11x11 in. Pastels. 3 for 10c

SPECIAL! DISH TOWELS Bleached linen and cotton. Fast-color borders. 15x30 in. 5c

25% Wool Blanket Regularly $3.98 for only Pastel colors. 72x84 inches 3.49

SAVE ON FLOUR SACKS Bleached and mangled. Extra absorbent. 35x32 inches. 10c

MONTGOMERY WARD

Corner Fourth and Main

Santa Ana